

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

THE

OF WHICH THIS BOOK IS A REVISED AND ENLARGED EDITION, WAS

COPYRIGHTED A. D. 1892 BY COL. W. A. TAYLOR.

THE COPYRIGHT WAS PURCHASED BY THE STATE OF OHIO BY THE ACT OF MARCH 3, 1898 (O. L. VOL. 93, PAGE 29), WHICH CONTAINED THE FOLLOWING PROVISION: "WHEREBY
THE STATE AFORESAID SHALL HAVE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO MAKE FUTURE PUBLICATION OF SAID WORK FOR ITS USE AND BENEFIT."

PREFACE.

THE "Biographical Annals of Ohio" is the outcome of efforts to preserve in ready reference form the names and history of the men who have served the State. In 1888-1892, Col. William A. Taylor, a well-known journalist, collected from official sources much of the matter which appears within these covers and published as a private enterprise "The Ohio Statesman and Hundred Year Book." The General Assembly purchased and distributed an edition of 7,500 copies. In 1896-98 a revised edition under the name of the "Ohio Statesman and Annals of Progress" was prepared by Col. Taylor. The State through an act of the General Assembly purchased the manuscript and copyright of the work and printed for gratuitous distribution an edition of 9,500 copies.

In 1900-1901 another revision, prepared under the direction of the General Assembly by Mr. E. Howard Gilkey was published under the name of the Hundred Year Book.

The Act of May 12, 1902, as amended April 19, 1904, contemplates the publication of a work of this character biennially under the name of "The Biographical Annals of Ohio." In order that the series may be complete the matter heretofore published is reprinted in this volume covering the biographical history of Ohio from the formation of the Northwest Territory in 1787 to September 1, 1904.

The present compilers make no claim to originality or authorship. They acknowledge their obligations to Col. Taylor, Mr. Gilkey and the others who have contributed hours of research and labor to the sum of this result.

THE DECLARATION OF THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

IN CONFEDERATE CONGRESS, JULY 4TH, 1776.

THE UNANIMOUS DECLARATION OF THE THIRTEEN STATES OF AMERICA.

WHEN in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of usages and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migration hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount of payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies, without the Consent of our legislature.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the civil power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For, protecting them by a mock trial, from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefits of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offenses:

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighboring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies:

For taking away our Charters, abolish our most valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

The Declaration of Independence.

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with Power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his protection and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our Coasts, burnt our towns and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large armies of mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear arms against their Country to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands.

He has excited domestic insurrection amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attention to our British brethern. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and our correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the Good people of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; and that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the Protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our Fortunes and our sacred Honor.

NOTE—In the facsimile of the Declaration of Independence, as in the original, the whole instrument runs without a break, dashes being freely used to emphasize the several utterances, and to bind them together. In the above copy, the arrangement of paragraphs adopted in the old Congress, and inserted in its journal, and which is also found in the original draft of the Declaration in the handwriting of the author now in the custody of the State Department at Washington, has been followed with care, that the reader may have a correct transcript. The spelling, capitalization, and punctuation is as in the authority referred to.

ACT OF CONFEDERATION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

JULY 9, 1778.

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, WE, THE UNDERSIGNED DELEGATES OF THE STATES AFFIXED TO OUR NAMES, SEND GREETING.

WHEREAS the Delegates of the United States of America in Congress assembled did on the 15th day of November in the year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-Seven and in the Second Year of the Independence of America agree to certain articles of Confederation and perpetuated Union between the States of Newhampshire, Massachusetts-bay, Rhodeisland and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia in the Words following viz. :

“ARTICLES OF CONFEDERATION AND PERPETUAL UNION BETWEEN THE STATES OF NEWHAMPshire, MASSACHUSETTS-BAY, RHODEISLAND AND PROVIDENCE PLANTATIONS, CONNECTICUT, NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY, PENNSYLVANIA, DELAWARE, MARYLAND, VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA, SOUTH CAROLINA AND GEORGIA.”

ARTICLE I. The Stile of this confederacy shall be “The United States of America.”

ARTICLE II. Each state retains its Sovereignty, freedom and independence and every Power, Jurisdiction and Right, which is not by this confederation expressly delegated to the United States in Congress assembled.

ARTICLE III. The said states hereby severally enter into a firm league of friendship with each other, for their common defence, the security of their Liberties, and their mutual and general welfare, binding themselves to assist each other, against all force offered to, or attacks made upon, them or any of them, on account of religion, sovereignty, trade, or any other pretence whatever.

ARTICLE IV. The better to secure and perpetuate mutual friendship and intercourse among the people of the different states in this union, the free inhabitants of each of these states, paupers, vagabonds and fugitives from Justice excepted shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of free citizens in the several states; and the people of each state shall have free ingress and regress to and from any other state, and shall enjoy therein all the privileges of trade and commerce, subject to the same duties, impositions and restrictions as the inhabitants thereof respectively, provided that such restrictions shall not extend so far as to prevent the removal of property imported into the state, to any other state of which the Owner is an inhabitant; provided also that no imposition, duties or restriction shall be laid by any state, on the property of the united states, or either of them. If any Person is guilty of, or charged with treason, felony, or other high misdemeanor in any state, shall flee from Justice, and be found in any of the united states, he shall upon demand of the Governor or executive power, of the state from which he fled, be delivered up and removed to the state having jurisdiction of his offence.

Full faith and credit shall be given in each of these states to the records, acts and judicial proceedings of the courts and magistrates of every other state.

ARTICLE V. For the more convenient management of the general interest of the united states, delegates shall be annually appointed in such manner as the legislature of each state shall direct, to meet in Congress on the first Monday in November, in every year, with a power reserved to each state, to recall its delegates, or any of them, at any time within the year, and to send others in their stead, for the remainder of the year. No state shall be represented in Congress by less than two, nor more than seven members; and no person shall be capable of being a delegate for more than three years in any term of six years; nor shall any person, being a delegate, be capable of holding any office under the united states for which he, or another for his benefit receives any salary, fees or emoluments of any kind.

Each state shall maintain its own delegates in a meeting of the states, and while they act as members of the committee of the states.

In determining questions in the united states, in Congress assembled, each state shall have one vote.

Freedom of speech and debate in Congress shall not be impeached or questioned in any Court or place out of Congress, and the members of congress shall be protected in their persons from arrests and imprisonments, during the time of their going to and from, and attendance on congress, except for treason, felony, or breach of the peace.

ARTICLE VI. No state without the Consent of the united states in congress assembled, shall send any embassy to, or receive any embassy from, or enter into any conference, agreement, alliance or treaty with any King prince or state; nor shall any person holding any office of profit or trust under the united states, or any of them, accept of any present, emolument, office or title of any kind whatever from any king prince or foreign state; nor shall the united states in congress assembled, or any of them, grant any title of nobility.

No two or more states shall enter into any treaty, confederation or alliance whatever between them, without the consent of the united states in congress assembled, specifying accurately the purposes for which the same is to entered into, and how long it shall continue.

No state shall lay any imposts or duties, which may interfere with any stipulations in treaties, entered into by the united states in congress assembled with any king, prince, or state, in pursuance of any treaties already proposed by congress to the courts of France and Spain.

No vessels of war shall be kept up in time of peace by any state, except such number only, as shall be deemed necessary by the united states in congress assembled, for the defence of such state, or its trade; nor shall any body of forces be kept up by any state, in time of peace, except such number only, as in the judgment of the united states, in congress assembled, shall be deemed requisite to garrison the forts necessary for the defence of such state; but every state shall always keep up a well regulated disciplined militia, sufficiently armed and accoutred, and shall provide and constantly have ready for use, in public stores, a due number of field pieces and tents, and a proper quantity of arms, ammunition and camp equipage.

No state shall engage in any war without the consent of the united states in congress assembled. unless such state be actually invaded by enemies, or shall have received certain advice of a resolution being formed by some nation of Indians to invade such state, and the danger is so imminent as not to admit of a delay, till the united states in congress assembled can be consulted nor shall any state grant commissions to any ships or vessels of war, nor letters of marque or reprisal, except it be after a declaration of war by the united states in congress assembled, and then only against the kingdom or state and the subjects thereof, against which war has been so declared, and under such regulations as shall be established by the united states in congress assembled, unless such state be infested by pirates, in which case vessels of war may be fitted out for that occasion, and kept so long as the danger shall continue, or until the united states in congress assembled shall determine otherwise.

ARTICLE VII. When land forces are raised by any state for the common defence, all officers of or under the rank of colonel, shall be appointed by the legislature of each state respectively by whom such forces shall be raised, or in such manner as such state shall direct, and all vacancies shall be filled up by the state which first made the appointment.

ARTICLE VIII. All charges of war, and all other expenses that shall be incurred for the common defence or general welfare, and allowed by the united states in congress assembled, shall be defrayed out of a common treasury, which shall be supplied by the several states, in proportion to the value of all land within each state, granted to or surveyed for any Person, as such land and the buildings and the improvements thereon shall be estimated according to such mode as the united states in congress assembled, shall from time to time direct and appoint.

The taxes for paying that portion shall be laid and levied by the authority and direction of the legislatures of the several states within the time agreed upon by the united states in congress assembled.

ARTICLE IX. The united states in congress assembled, shall have the sole and exclusive right and power of determining on peace and war, except in the cases mentioned in the sixth article—of sending and receiving ambassadors—entering into treaties and alliances, provided that no treaty of commerce shall be made whereby the legislative power of the respective states shall be restrained from imposing such imposts and duties on foreigners, as their own people are subjected to, or from prohibiting the exportation or importation of any species of goods or commodities whatsoever—of establishing rules for deciding in all cases, what captures on land or water shall be legal, and in what manner prizes taken by land or naval forces in the service of the united states shall be divided or appropriated—of granting letters of marque and reprisal in times of peace—appointing courts for the trial of piracies and felonies committed on the high seas and establishing courts for receiving and determining finally appeals in all cases of captures, provided that no member of congress shall be appointed a judge of any of the said courts. The united states in congress assembled shall also be the last resort on appeal in all disputes and differences now subsisting or that hereafter may arise between two or more states concerning boundary, jurisdiction or any cause whatever; which authority shall always be exercised in the manner following. Whenever the legislative or executive authority or lawful agent of any state in controversy with another shall present a petition to congress stating the matter in question and praying for a hearing, notice thereof shall be given by congress to the legislative or executive authority of the other state in controversy, and a day assigned for the appearance of the parties by their lawful agents, who shall then be directed to appoint by joint consent, commissioners or judges to constitute a court for hearing and determining the matter in question: but if they cannot agree, congress shall name three persons out of each of the united states, and from the list of such persons each party shall alternately strike out one, the petitioners beginning, until the number shall be reduced to thirteen; and from that number not less than seven, nor more than nine names as congress shall direct, shall in the presence of congress be drawn out by lot, and the persons whose names shall be so drawn, or any five of them, shall be commissioners or judges to hear and finally determine the controversy, so always as a major part of the judges who shall hear the cause shall agree in the determination: and if either party shall neglect to attend at the day appointed, without showing reasons, which congress shall judge sufficient, or being present shall refuse to strike, the congress shall proceed to nominate three persons out of each state, and the secretary of congress shall strike in behalf of such party absent or refusing; and the judgment and sentence of the court to be appointed, in the manner before prescribed, shall be final and conclusive; and if any of the parties shall refuse to submit to the authority of such court, or to appear or defend their claim or cause, the court shall nevertheless proceed to pronounce sentence, or judgment, which shall in like manner be final and decisive, the judgment or sentence and other proceedings being in either case transmitted to congress, and lodged among the acts of congress for the security of the parties concerned: provided that every commissioner, before he sits in judgment, shall take an oath to be administered by one of the judges of the supreme or superior court of the state, where the cause shall be tried, "well and truly to hear and determine the matter in question, according to the best of his judgment, without favor, affection or hope of reward:" provided also that no state shall be deprived of territory for the benefit of the united states.

All controversies concerning the private right of soil claimed under different grants of two or more states, whose jurisdictions as they may respect such lands, and the states which passed such grants are adjusted, the said grants or either of them being at the same time claimed to have originated antecedent to such settlement of jurisdiction, shall on the petition of either party to the congress of the united states, be finally determined as near as may be in the same manner as is before prescribed for deciding disputes respecting territorial jurisdiction between different states.

The united states in congress assembled shall also have the sole and exclusive right of regulating the alloy and value of coin struck by their own authority, or by that of the respective states—fixing the standard of weights and measures throughout the united states—regulating the trade and managing all affairs with the Indians, not members of any of the states, provided that the legislative right of any state within its own limits be not infringed or violated—establishing and regulating post-offices from one state to another, throughout all the united states, and exacting such postage on the papers passing thro' the same as may be requisite to defray the expenses of said office—appointing all officers of the land forces, in the service of the united states, excepting regimental officers—appointing all the officers of the naval forces, and commissioning all officers whatever in the service of the united states—making rules for the government and regulation of said land and naval forces, and directing their operations.

The united states in congress assembled shall have authority to appoint a committee, to sit in the recess of congress, to be denominated "A Committee of the States," and to consist of one delegate from each state; and to appoint such other committees and civil officers as may be necessary for managing the general affairs of the united states under their direction—to appoint one of their number to preside, provided that no person be allowed to serve in the office of president more than one year in any term of three years; to ascertain the necessary sums of Money to be raised for the service of the united states, and to appropriate and apply the same for defraying the public expenses—to borrow money, or emit bills on the credit of the united states; transmitting every half year to the respective states an account of the sums of money so borrowed or emitted,—to build and equip a navy—to agree upon the number of land forces, and to make requisitions from each state for its quota, in proportion to the number of white inhabitants in such state; which requisitions shall be binding, and thereupon the legislature of each state shall appoint the regimental officers, raise the men and cloath, arm and equip them in a soldier like manner, at the expense of the united states; and the officers and men so cloathed, armed and equipped shall march to the place appointed, and within the time agreed upon by the united states in congress assembled: But if the united states in congress assembled shall, on consideration of circumstances judge proper that any state should not raise men, or should raise a smaller number than its quota, and that any other state should raise a greater number of men than its quota thereof, such extra number shall be raised, officered, cloathed, armed and equipped in the same manner as the quota of such state, unless the legislature of such state shall judge that such extra number cannot be safely spared out of the same, in which case they shall raise, officer, cloathe, arm and equip as many of such number as they judge can be safely spared. And the officers and men so cloathed, armed and equipped shall march to the place appointed, and within the time agreed on by the united states in congress assembled.

Act of Confederation.

The united states in congress assembled shall never engage in a war, nor grant letters of marque and reprisal in time of peace, nor enter into any treaties or alliances, nor coin money, nor regulate the value thereof, nor ascertain the sums and expenses necessary for the defence and welfare of the united states, or any of them, nor emit bills, nor borrow money on the credit of the united states, nor appropriate money, nor agree upon the number of vessels of war, to be built or purchased, or the number of land or sea forces to be raised, nor appoint a commander-in-chief of the army or navy, unless nine states assent to the same: nor shall a question on any point, except for adjourning from day to day, be determined unless by the votes of a majority of the united states in congress assembled.

The congress of the united states shall have power to adjourn to any time within the year, and to any place within the united states, so that no period of adjournment be for a longer duration than the space of six months, and shall publish the Journal of their proceedings monthly, except such part thereof relating to treaties, alliances or military operations, as in their judgment may require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the delegates of each state on any question shall be entered on the journal, when it is desired by any delegate; and the delegates of a state, or any of them, at his or their request shall be furnished with a transcript of the said Journal, except such parts as are above excepted, to lay before the legislatures of the several states.

ARTICLE X. The committee of the states, or any nine of them, shall be authorized to execute, in the recess of congress, such of the powers of congress as the united states in congress assembled, by the consent of nine states, shall from time to time think it expedient to vest them with; provided that no power be delegated to the said committee, for the exercise of which, by the articles of confederation, the voice of nine states in the congress of the united states assembled is requisite.

ARTICLE XI. Canada acceding to this confederation and joining in the measures of the united states, shall be admitted into, and entitled to all the advantages of this union: but no other colony shall be admitted into the same, unless such admission be agreed to by nine states.

ARTICLE XII. All bills of credit emitted, monies borrowed and debts contracted by, or under the authority of congress, before the assembling of the united states, in pursuance of the present confederation, shall be deemed and considered as a charge against the united states, for payment and satisfaction whereof the said united states, and the public faith are hereby solemnly pledged.

ARTICLE XIII. Every state shall abide by the determination of the united states in congress assembled, on all questions which by this confederation are submitted to them. And the articles of this confederation shall be inviolably observed by every state, and the union shall be perpetual; nor shall any alteration at any time hereafter be made in any of them; unless such alteration be agreed to in a congress of the united states, and be afterward confirmed by the legislatures of every state.

AND WHEREAS, it hath pleased the Great Governor of the World to incline the hearts of the legislatures we respectively represent in congress, to approve of, and to authorize us to ratify the said articles of confederation and perpetual union, KNOW YE that we the undersigned delegates, by virtue of the power and authority to us given for that purpose, do by these presents, in the name and in behalf of our respective constituents, fully and entirely ratify and confirm each and every of the said articles of confederation and perpetual union, and all and singular the matter and things therein contained: And we do further solemnly plight and engage the faith of our respective constituents, that they shall abide by the determination of the united states in congress assembled, on all questions, which by the said confederation are submitted to them. And that the articles thereof shall be inviolably observed by the states we respectively represent and that the union shall be perpetual.

IN WITNESS whereof we have hereunto set our hands in congress. DONE at Philadelphia in the state of Pennsylvania the ninth day of July in the Year of our Lord one Thousand seven Hundred and Seventy-eight, and in the third year of the independence of America.

Edw. Telfair,

NOTE—Prior to the Declaration of Independence, and on the 12th day of the preceding month, a committee was appointed by the Continental Congress, "to prepare and digest the form of a confederation to be entered into between these colonies." The report of the committee was made on the 12th of July, and printed copies placed in the hands of members of the congress for their secret examination. For two years the articles were under discussion by the members of the several state legislatures to whom copies were sent by the new government, and on the 9th of July, 1778, the representatives in congress of the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and South Carolina, signed the form above which had been agreed upon. To those states whose delegates being absent or uncertain of their power, did not sign the form at this time. Congress addressed a request for action with all convenient dispatch. North Carolina ratified the Act on the 21st of July, and Georgia on the 24th of the same month, thus giving the assent of ten states to the instrument. The remaining ratifications were given, by New Jersey, November 26, 1778; by Delaware, May 5, 1779; and by Maryland, March 1, 1781.

Congress assembled under the Act of Confederation, March 2, 1781, the day following the ratification of the act by Maryland,

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

WILLIAM M'KINLEY.

William McKinley, President, was born at Niles, Trumbull County, Ohio, January 29, 1843; was educated in the public schools, Poland Academy, Allegheny College; before attaining his majority he taught in the public schools; enlisted as a private in the Twenty-third Ohio Volunteer Infantry June 11, 1861; promoted to commissary-sergeant April 15, 1862, to second lieutenant September 23, 1862, to first lieutenant February 7, 1863, to captain July 25, 1864; served successively on the staffs of Generals R. B. Hayes, George Crook and Winfield S. Hancock and was brevetted major in the United States Volunteers by President Lincoln for gallantry in battle March 13, 1865; detailed for acting adjutant-general of the First Division, First Army Corps, on the staff of General S. S. Carroll; mustered out of service July 26, 1865; returning to civil life, he studied law in Mahoning County; took a course at the Albany (N. Y.) Law School, and in 1867 was admitted to the bar and settled at Canton, Ohio, which has since been his home; in 1869 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Stark County, and served a term in that office; in 1876 he was elected a member of the National House of Representatives, and for fourteen years represented the congressional district of which his county was a part; as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee he reported the tariff law of 1890, but in November following was defeated for Congress in a gerrymandered district, although reducing the usual adverse majority from 3,000 to 300; in 1891 was elected governor of Ohio by a plurality of 21,511, and 1893 was re-elected by a plurality of 80,995; in 1884 was a delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention and supported James G. Blaine for president; was a member of the committee on resolutions and read the platform to the convention; in 1888 was also a delegate-at-large from Ohio, supporting John Sherman, and as chairman of the committee on resolutions again reported the platform; in 1892 was again a delegate-at-large from Ohio, and supported the nomination of Benjamin Harrison, and served as chairman of the convention. At that convention 182 votes were cast for him for president, although he had persistently refused to have his name considered. On June 18, 1896, he was nominated for president at St. Louis, receiving 661 out of 905 votes. He was elected president at the ensuing November election by a popular plurality of 600,000 votes, and received 271 electoral votes as against 176 for William J. Bryan, of Nebraska. He was again elected president in 1900. On September 6, 1901, at the Pan-American Exposition he was shot by an anarchist, and died of his wound September 14. His remains were buried at Canton, Ohio.

THE ORDINANCE OF 1787.

AN ORDINANCE FOR THE GOVERNMENT OF THE TERRITORY OF THE UNITED STATES NORTH WEST OF THE OHIO RIVER.

[Adopted by the Confederate Congress July 13th, 1787. The Constitution of the United States was adopted by the Congress the 28th of September following. The text from which this was printed was found in a volume of territorial laws printed in Cincinnati in the year 1796. By authority W. Maxwell, Jr., and known as "Maxwell's Code, 1796."]

BE it ordained by the United States in Congress assembled, That the said territory, for the purpose of temporary government, be one district; subject, however, to be divided into two districts, as future circumstances may, in the opinion of Congress, make it expedient.

Be it ordained by the authority aforesaid, that the estates both of resident and non-resident proprietors, in the said territory, dying intestate, shall descend to, and be distributed among their children, and the descendants of a deceased child in equal parts; the descendants of a deceased child or grandchild, to take the share of their deceased parent in equal parts among them; and where there shall be no children or descendants, then in equal parts to the next of kin, in equal degree; and among collaterals, the children of a deceased brother or sister of the intestate shall have in equal parts among them their deceased parents share; and there shall in no case be a distinction between kindred of the whole and half blood; saving in all cases to the widow of the intestate, her third part of the real estate for life, and one-third part of the personal estate; and this law relative to descents and dower, shall remain in full force until altered by the legislature of the district. And until the governor and judges shall adopt laws as hereinafter mentioned, estates in the said territory may be devised or bequeathed by wills in writing, signed and sealed by him or her, in whom the estate may be (being of full age) and attested by three witnesses; and real estates may be conveyed by lease and release or bargain and sale signed, sealed and delivered by the person, being of full age, in whom the estate may be, and attested by two witnesses, provided such wills be duly proved, and such conveyances be acknowledged, or the execution thereof duly proved, and be recorded within one year after proper magistrates, courts, and registers shall be appointed for that purpose; and personal property may be transferred by delivery, saving, however, to the French and Canadian inhabitants, and other settlers of the Kaskaskies, Saint Vincents, and the neighboring villages, who have heretofore professed themselves citizens of Virginia, their laws and customs now in force among them, relative to the descent and conveyance of property.

Be it ordained by the authority aforesaid, that there shall be appointed from time to time, by Congress, a governor, whose commission shall continue in force for the term of three years, unless sooner revoked by Congress; he shall reside in the district, and have a freehold estate therein, in one thousand acres of land, while in the exercise of his office.

There shall be appointed from time to time, by Congress, a secretary, whose commission shall continue in force for four years, unless sooner revoked, he shall reside in the district, and have a freehold estate therein, in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of his office; it shall be his duty to keep and preserve the acts and laws passed by the legislature, and the public records of the district, and the proceedings of the governor in his executive department; and transmit authentic copies of such acts and proceedings, every six months, to the Secretary of Congress. There shall also be appointed a court to consist of three judges, any two of whom to form a court, who shall have a common-law jurisdiction, and reside in the district, and have each therein a freehold estate in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of their offices; and their commissions shall continue in force during good behavior.

The governor and judges, or a majority of them, shall adopt and publish in the district such laws of the original States, criminal and civil, as may be necessary, and best suited to the circumstances of the district, and report them to Congress, from time to time, which laws shall be in force in the district until the organization of the general assembly therein, unless disapproved of by Congress; but afterwards the legislature shall have authority to alter them as they shall think fit.

The governor, for the time being, shall be commander-in-chief of the militia, appoint and commission all officers in the same, below the rank of general officers; all general officers shall be appointed and commissioned by Congress.

Previous to the organization of the general assembly, the governor shall appoint such magistrates and other civil officers, in each county or township, as he shall find necessary for the preservation of the peace and good order in the same. After the general assembly shall be organized, the powers and duties of magistrates and other civil officers shall be regulated and defined by the said assembly; but all magistrates and other civil officers, not herein otherwise directed, shall, during the continuance of this temporary government, be appointed by the governor.

For the prevention of crimes and injuries, the laws to be adopted or made shall have force in all parts of the district, and for the execution of process, criminal and civil, the governor shall make proper divisions thereof—and he shall proceed from time to time, as circumstances may require, to lay out the parts of the district in which the Indian titles shall have been extinguished, into counties and townships, subject, however, to such alterations as may thereafter be made by the legislature.

So soon as there shall be five thousand free male inhabitants, of full age, in the district, upon giving proof thereof to the governor, they shall receive authority, with time and place, to elect representatives from their counties or townships, to represent them in the general assembly: Provided, That for every five hundred free male inhabitants there shall be one representative, and so on, progressively, with the number of free male inhabitants, shall the right of representation increase, until the number of representatives shall amount to twenty-five, after which the number and proportion of representatives shall be regulated by the legislature; Provided, That no person be eligible or qualified to act as a representative unless he shall have been a citizen of one of the United States three years, and be a resident in the district, or unless he shall have resided in the district three years, and in either case, shall likewise hold in his own right, in fee simple, two hundred acres of land within the same:—Provided also, that a freehold in fifty acres of land in the district, having been a citizen of one of the States, and being resident in the district; or the like freehold and two years' residence in the district shall be necessary to qualify a man as an elector of a representative.

The representatives thus elected, shall serve for the term of two years, and in case of the death of a representative, or removal from office, the governor shall issue a writ to the county or township for which he was a member, to elect another in his stead, to serve for the residue of the term. The general assembly, or legislature, shall consist of the governor, legislative council, and a house of representatives. The legislative council shall consist of five members, to continue in office five years, unless sooner removed by Congress, any three of whom to be a quorum, and the members of the council shall be nominated and appointed in the following manner, to-wit: As soon as representatives shall be elected, the governor shall appoint a time and place for them to meet together, and, when met, they shall nominate ten persons, resident in the district, and each possessed of a freehold in five hundred acres of land, and return their names to Congress; five of whom Congress shall appoint and commission to serve as aforesaid; and whenever a vacancy shall happen in the council, by death or removal from office, the house of representatives shall nominate two persons, qualified as aforesaid, for each vacancy, and return their names to Congress; one of whom Congress shall appoint and commission for the residue of the term; and every five years, four months at least before the expiration of the time of service of the members of the council, the said house shall nominate ten persons, qualified as aforesaid, and return their names to Congress, five of whom Congress shall appoint and commission to serve as members of the council five years, unless sooner removed. And the governor, legislative council, and house of representatives shall have authority to make laws in all cases for good government of the district, not repugnant to the principles and articles in this ordinance established and declared. And all bills having passed by a majority in the house, and by a majority in the council, shall be referred to the governor for his assent; but no bills or legislative act whatever, shall be of any force without his assent. The governor shall have power to convene, prorogue and dissolve the general assembly, when in his opinion, it shall be expedient.

The governor, judges, legislative council, secretary, and such other officers as Congress shall appoint in the district, shall take an oath or affirmation of fidelity, and of office, the governor before the President of Congress, and all other officers before the governor. As soon as a legislature shall be formed in the district, the council and house, assembled in one room, shall have authority by joint ballot, to elect a delegate to Congress, who shall have a seat in Congress, with a right of debating, but not of voting, during this temporary government.

And for extending the fundamental principles of civil and religious liberty, which forms the basis whereon these republics, their laws and constitutions are erected; to fix and establish those principles as the basis of all laws, constitutions and governments, which forever hereafter shall be formed in the said territory;—to provide also for the establishment of States, and permanent government therein, and for their admission to a share in the Federal councils on an equal footing with the original States, at as early periods as may be consistent with the general interest.

It is hereby ordained and declared, by the authority aforesaid, that the following articles shall be considered as articles of compact between the original States and the people and State in the said territory, and forever remain unalterable, unless by common consent, to-wit:

ARTICLE I. No person, demeaning himself in a peaceable and orderly manner, shall ever be molested on account of his mode of worship or religious sentiments in the said territory.

ARTICLE II. The inhabitants of the said territory shall always be entitled to the benefits of the writs of habeas corpus, and of the trial by jury; of a proportionate representation of the people in the legislature, and of judicial proceedings according to the course of the common law; all persons shall beailable unless for capital offenses where the proof shall be evident or the presumption great; all fines shall be moderate, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; no man shall be deprived of his liberty or property, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land; and should the public exigencies make it necessary for the common preservation to take any person's property, or to demand his particular services, full compensation shall be made for the same;—and in the just preservation of rights and property it is understood and declared, that no law ought ever to be made, or have force in the said territory, that shall in any manner whatever interfere with, or affect private contracts or engagements, bona fide and without fraud previously formed.

ARTICLE III. Religion, morality, and knowledge, being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged. The utmost good faith shall always be observed towards the Indians; their lands and property shall never be taken from them without their consent; and in their property, rights and liberty, they never shall be invaded or disturbed, unless in just and lawful wars authorized by Congress; but laws founded in justice and humanity shall from time to time be made for preventing wrongs being done to them, and for preserving peace and friendship with them.

ARTICLE IV. The said territory, and the States which may be formed therein shall forever remain a part of this confederacy of the United States of America, subject to the Articles of Confederation, and to such alterations therein as shall be constitutionally made; and to all the acts and ordinances of the United States in Congress assembled, conformable thereto. The inhabitants and settlers in the said territory, shall be subject to pay a part of the Federal debts, contracted or to be contracted, and a proportional part of the expenses of government, to be apportioned on them by Congress, according to the same common rule and measure by which apportionments thereof shall be made on the other states; and the taxes for paying their proportion, shall be laid and levied by the authority and direction of the legislatures of the district or districts, or new states as in the original states, within the time agreed upon by the United States in Congress assembled. The legislatures of those districts, or new States, shall never interfere with the primary disposal of the soil by the United States in Congress assembled, nor with any regulations Congress may find necessary for securing the title in such soil to the bona fide purchasers. No tax shall be imposed on lands the property of the United States; and in no case shall non-resident proprietors be taxed higher than residents. The navigable waters leading into the Mississippi and Saint Lawrence, and carrying places between the same shall be common highways, and forever free, as well as to the inhabitants of the said Territory as to the citizens of the United States, and those of any other states that may be admitted into the confederacy, without any tax, impost, or duty therefor.

ARTICLE V. There shall be formed in the said Territory, not less than three nor more than five States; and the boundaries of the States, as soon as Virginia shall alter her act of cession and consent to the same, shall become fixed and established as follows, to-wit: The western State, in the said Territory, shall be bounded by the Mississippi, the Ohio, and the Wabash rivers, a direct line drawn from the Wabash and Post Vincents, due north, to the territorial line between the United States and Canada; and by the said territorial line to the Lake of the Woods and Mississippi. The middle State shall be bounded by the said direct line, the Wabash from Post Vincents to the Ohio; by the Ohio, by a direct line drawn due north from the mouth of the Great Miami to the said territorial line, and by said territorial line. The eastern State shall be bounded by the last mentioned direct line, the Ohio, Pennsylvania, and the said territorial line: Provided, however, and it is further understood and declared, that the boundaries of these three States shall be subject so far to be altered, that if Congress shall hereafter find it expedient, they shall have authority to form one or two States in that part of the said territory which lies north of an east and west line drawn through the southerly bend or extreme of lake Michigan; and whenever any of the said States shall have sixty thousand free inhabitants therein, such State shall be admitted by its delegates into the Congress of the United States, on an equal footing with the original states, in all respects whatsoever and shall be at liberty to form a permanent constitution and State government; provided, the constitution and government so to be formed shall be republican, and in conformity to the principles contained in these articles, and so far as it can be consistent with the general interest of the confederacy, such admission shall be allowed at an earlier period, and when there may be a less number of free inhabitants in the State than sixty thousand.

ARTICLE VI. There shall be neither slavery nor involuntary servitude in the said territory, otherwise than in the punishment of crimes whereof the party shall have been duly convicted; provided, always, that any person escaping into the same, from whom labor or service is lawfully claimed in any one of the original states, such fugitive may be lawfully reclaimed and conveyed to the person claiming his or her labor or services as aforesaid.

Ordinance of 1787.

DONE by the United States in Congress assembled, the 13th day of July, in the year of our Lord, 1787, and of their sovereignty and independence the 12th.

CHA. THOMPSON, Secy.

WHO WAS THE AUTHOR OF THE ORDINANCE OF 1787?—"There has been some diversity of opinion as to the individual to whom the honor of the paternity of that document rightfully belongs. Some have claimed it for Mr. Jefferson, though he did not claim it himself. The honor of drafting that instrument, on which the constitutions of all the northwestern states are founded, belongs of right to Nathan Dane, a revolutionary patriot of Massachusetts. He was its author,—he reported it to Congress and persevered in explaining, and impressing it on their attention till they became satisfied of its merits and adopted it by a unanimous vote, Mr. Jefferson being in France at the time."—Burnett's Notes on the North-Western Territory, pp. 37-8.

RUTHERFORD BIRCHARD HAYES.

RUTHERFORD BIRCHARD HAYES.

Rutherford Birchard Hayes, nineteenth president of the United States, was born at Delaware, Ohio, October 4, 1822; graduated at Kenyon College, Ohio, in 1842, and at Harvard Law School in 1845; began the practice of law at Fremont, Ohio; removed to Cincinnati in 1849; was city solicitor from 1858 to 1861; was appointed, June 27, 1861, major Twenty-third Ohio Volunteers, of which W. S. Rosecrans was the first colonel and Stanley Matthews (afterwards justice U. S. Supreme Court) lieutenant-colonel. He was promoted lieutenant-colonel October 24, 1861, from which date he commanded the Twenty-third until December, 1862. In the brilliant action of South Mountain (1862) he received a severe wound in the left arm which compelled him to leave the field. After the battle of Antietam the regiment was returned to West Virginia, where, November 30, 1862, he rejoined it as colonel, having been promoted October 24. He was commissioned brigadier-general of volunteers, to date from the battle of Cedar Creek, at the close of which he received news of his election to Congress from the second district of Ohio; was made brevet major-general for gallant services, and resigned from the army June 1, 1865. In December he took his seat in Congress; was re-elected in 1866, but left his seat in 1867, having been nominated for governor of Ohio, to which office he was elected in October and re-elected in 1869. In 1872 he suffered his first defeat for Congress. In 1875 he reluctantly consented to allow his name to be used once more as a candidate for governor, and was elected for a third time, an honor never before conferred upon a citizen of Ohio. On June 16, 1876, he was nominated at Cincinnati for president of the United States, on the Republican ticket, on the seventh ballot, receiving 384 votes, to 351 for J. G. Blaine, and 21 for B. H. Bristow. The ensuing canvass, which was bitter and exciting, was closed by a disputed election, the electoral votes of Florida, South Carolina, and Louisiana, and one of those of Oregon being claimed by both parties. The Presidential Electoral Commission announced, March 2, 1877, that he had been duly elected president of the United States. The inauguration ceremonies took place on March 5. During the four years of his office the affairs of the government were conducted in a manner that will command the favorable judgment of history. Died at Fremont, Ohio, January 17, 1893.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.*

[Recommended to the Congress by a constitutional convention, of which George Washington was President, on the 17th day of September, 1787, and transmitted to the several states for ratification on the 28th day of the same month. On the fourth of March, 1789, the day which had been fixed for commencing operations of Government under the new Constitution, it had been ratified by the conventions chosen in each state to consider it, as follows: Delaware, December 7, 1787; New Jersey, December 18, 1787; Connecticut, January 9, 1788; Maryland, April 28, 1788; Pennsylvania, December 12, 1787; Georgia, January 2, 1788; Massachusetts, February 6, 1788; South Carolina, May 23, 1788; New Hampshire, June 21, 1788; Virginia, June 26, 1788; and New York, July 26, 1788.

Rhode Island ratified the constitution on the 29th of May, and North Carolina on the 21st of November, 1789. Vermont, then an applicant for admission to statehood, ratified the constitution on the 10th day of January, 1791, and was admitted into the Union on the 18th day of February following.]

Nor shall any indenture of any negro or mulatto hereafter made and executed out of the State, or, if made in the State where the term of servitude exceeds one year, be of the least validity, except those given in the case of apprenticeships.

SEC. 3. That all men have a natural and indefeasible right to worship Almighty God according to the dictates of conscience; that no human authority can, in any case whatever, control or interfere with the rights of conscience; that no man shall be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship, or to maintain any ministry against his consent; and that no preference shall ever be given by law to any religious society or mode of worship, and no religious test shall be required as a qualification to any office of trust or profit. But religion, morality, and knowledge being essentially necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of instruction shall forever be encouraged by legislative provision not inconsistent with the rights of conscience.

SEC. 4. Private property ought, and shall ever be held inviolate, but always subservient to the public welfare, provided a compensation in money be made to the owner.

SEC. 5. That the people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions from unwarrantable searches and seizures and that general warrants, whereby an officer may be commanded to search suspected places without probable evidence of the fact committed, or to seize any person or persons not named whose offenses are not particularly described, and without oath or affirmation, are dangerous to liberty, and shall not be granted.

SEC. 6. That the printing presses shall be open and free to every citizen who wishes to examine the proceedings of any branch of government, or the conduct of any public officer; and no law shall ever restrain the right thereof. Every citizen has an indisputable right to speak, write or print upon any subject as he thinks proper, being liable for the abuse of that liberty. In prosecutions for any publication respecting the official conduct of men in a public capacity, or where the matter published is proper for public information the truth thereof may always be given in evidence; and in all indictments for libels the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts under the direction of the court, as in other cases.

SEC. 13. Excessive bail shall not be required; excessive fines shall not be imposed; nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

SEC. 14. All penalties shall be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise Legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. When the same undisguised severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do the slightest offenses. For the same reasons, a multitude of sanguinary laws are both impolitic and unjust; the true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate, mankind.

SEC. 15. The person of a debtor, where there is not strong presumption of fraud, shall not be continued in prison after delivering up his estate for the benefit of his creditor or creditors, in such manner as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 20. That the people have a right to bear arms for the defence of themselves and the State; and as standing armies in time of peace are dangerous to liberty, they shall not be kept up; and that the military shall be kept under strict subordination to the civil power.

SEC. 21. That no person in this State, except such as are employed in the army or navy of the United States, or militia in actual service, shall be subject to corporal punishment under the military law.

The First Constitution of Ohio.

SEC. 22. That no soldier, in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in the manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 24. That no hereditary emoluments, privileges, or honors shall ever be granted or conferred by this State.

SEC. 25. That no law shall be passed to prevent the poor in the several Counties and townships within this State from an equal participation in the schools, academies, colleges, and universities within this State which are endowed, in whole or in part, from the revenue arising from donations made by the United States for the support of schools and colleges; and the doors of the said schools, academies, and universities shall be open for the reception of scholars, students, and teachers of every grade without any distinction or preference whatever contrary to the intent for which said donations were made.

MARCUS A. HANNA.

MARCUS A. HANNA.

Marcus Alonzo Hanna, Republican, of Cleveland, was born in New Lisbon (now Lisbon), Columbiana County, Ohio, September 24, 1837; removed with his father's family to Cleveland in 1852; was educated in the common schools of that city and the Western Reserve College, Hudson, Ohio; was engaged as an employee in the wholesale grocery house of Hanna, Garretson & Co., his father being senior member of the firm; his father died in 1862, and he represented that interest in the firm until 1867, when the business was closed up; then became a member of the firm of Rhodes & Co., engaged in the iron and coal business; at the expiration of ten years the title of this firm was changed to M. A. Hanna & Co., which still exists; has been identified with lake carrying business, being interested in vessels on the lakes, and in the construction of such vessels; was president of the Union National Bank of Cleveland; president of the Cleveland City Railway Company; was director of the Union Pacific Railway Company in 1885, by appointment of President Cleveland; was a delegate to the national Republican conventions in 1884, 1888, and 1896; was elected chairman of the national Republican committee in 1896 and 1900; was appointed to the United States Senate by Governor Bushnell, March 5, 1897, to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of Hon. John Sherman, who resigned to accept the position of Secretary of State in President McKinley's cabinet; took his seat March 5, 1897; in January, 1898, he was elected for the short term ending March 4, 1899, and also for the succeeding full term. Senator Hanna occupied a very prominent place among the leaders of the Senate. His advocacy of the Panama route for the isthmian canal, after the House of Representatives had by an overwhelming vote chosen the Nicaraguan route, resulted in a complete reversal of the program and the final choice of Panama; this is said to be one of the most remarkable legislative feats in the history of the United States Congress, and was the result alone of Senator Hanna's masterful presentation of the claims of Panama as compared with those of Nicaragua. Senator Hanna was chosen in January, 1904, to succeed himself in the United States Senate for the term commencing March 4, 1905, by the largest majority ever accorded a senatorial candidate by the legislature of Ohio. His speech of acceptance delivered to the General Assembly was looked upon as the benediction of one about to lay down the burdens of life, as indeed it proved to be, for his death followed one month later. Senator Hanna died February 15, 1904, in the city of Washington, and the funeral was held in Cleveland. His remains were deposited in the Wade mausoleum, Lake View Cemetery.

NOTES ON THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF 1802.

THE Constitutional Convention of 1802 forms a connecting-link between the Territorial and State Government which seems to find its proper consideration at this point. The first session of the Second (and last) Territorial Legislature, was adjourned by Governor St. Clair in January, 1802, to meet in Cincinnati, November 29. The Congress, by an act of April 30, 1802, provided for the election of members of a convention which should:

First. Decide on the desirability of forming a state government, and Second. Frame the constitution for the state should the convention decide the first question affirmatively.

This convention met in Chillicothe on Monday, November 1, four weeks prior to the time set for the convening of the Second Territorial Legislature in its second session, and on the day appointed for the legislature to meet, promulgated the FIRST CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

Many members of the territorial legislature were members of this first constitutional convention, and the following notes from the Journal of that convention are republished as matters of history:

NOTES FROM THE JOURNAL OF CONVENTION.

The members of the Convention were:

ADAMS COUNTY.

Joseph Darlington, Thomas Kirker, Israel Donaldson.

BELMONT COUNTY.

James Caldwell, Elijah Woods.

CLERMONT COUNTY.

Philip Gatch, James Sargent.

HAMILTON COUNTY.

Francis Dunlavy, John Paul, Jeremiah Morrow,
John Wilson, Charles Willing Byrd,
William Goforth, John Smith, John Reily,
John Browne, John Kitchel.

Notes on the Constitutional Convention of 1802.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.

Rudolph Blair, John Milligan, George Humphrey,
Bazaleel Wells, Nathan Updegraff.

ROSS COUNTY.

Edward Tiffin, Nathaniel Massie, Thomas Worthington.
Michael Baldwin, James Grubb.

TRUMBULL COUNTY.

Samuel Huntington, David Abbot.

FAIRFIELD COUNTY.

Emanuel Carpenter, Henry Abrams.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Rufus Putnam, Ephraim Cutler, John McIntire,
Benjamin Ives Gilman.

Edward Tiffin was chosen president of the Convention.

William Goforth was elected president pro tempore.

Thomas Scott was elected secretary at $3 per day.

William McFarland was elected assistant secretary, and ordered to attend the Committee on Preamble and First Article.

Adam Betz was elected door-keeper at $1.50 per day.

Upon the question whether it would be expedient to form a constitution and state government for the people of the Territory, at this time, the question carried in the affirmative by a vote of 32 to 1. Mr. Cutler voted in the negative.

NOTE.—“Although more than a fourth of the members comprising the body had expressed their opinion in very decided terms against the expediency of the measure, and against the manner of its accomplishment, yet the resolution was carried. * * * Judge Cutler, an indomitable Whig, of Washington County, voting in the negative, solitary and alone.” (Burnett’s Notes on the Northwest Territory p. 352-3.)

A resolution was adopted requesting the governor to prorogue the territorial legislature which had adjourned in January last, to meet in Cincinnati on the fourth Monday of the present month. But this was not done, as the members of the legislature, many of whom were in convention, manifested no disposition to interfere with the progress of the Territory toward statehood. (See Burnett quoted.)

Notes on the Constitutional Convention of 1802.

Nathaniel Willis was elected printer to the Convention, on the terms of his proposition to print 700 copies of the Journal of Convention, and 1,000 copies of the constitution then being framed.

A resolution to submit the proposed constitution to the people is found on page 15 of the Journal. It was disagreed to by the vote of 27 to 7, and the constitution was not submitted to the people, but was put in operation by the act of the delegates to the convention in formally signing the instrument in their representative capacity.

A proposition to have the members of the Senate chosen annually instead of biennially was defeated by a vote of 15 to 18.

A proposition to insert a proviso in Section 19 of Article 1, prohibiting any member of the Convention from holding any office under the constitution so framed, unless elective, for the term of one year after its adoption, was defeated—yeas 3, nays 31.

A proposition to strike out of the bill of rights that part of the second section relating to servitude of adult persons not negroes or mulattoes was defeated by a vote of 12 to 21.

A proposition to strike out that part of the same section which forbids slavery or involuntary servitude in this state, was defeated overwhelmingly, by a vote of yeas 2, nays 31.

Messrs. Paul and Reily, of Hamilton County, voted in favor of the proposition. (See Journal, p. 26; November 20, 1802.)

A proposition to amend the third section of the bill of rights by striking out the words "no religious test shall be required," etc., and inserting words to the effect that no person who denies the being of a God, or a place of future rewards and punishments, shall hold office in the civil government, was lost—yeas 3, nays 30.

In considering Article 4. on the twenty-second of November, the Convention voted—yeas 19, nays 15—to add these words to the end of the article:

"Provided, that all male negroes and mulattoes, now residing in this territory, shall be entitled to the rights of suffrage, if they shall within twelve months make a record of their citizenship."

As this is one of the earliest records of an attempt to give the right of suffrage to the negro in America, the vote on that proposition is interesting. Those who voted aye were: Abbot, Byrd, Cutler, Darlington, Dunlavy, Gatch, Gilman, Goforth, Grubb, Kitchel, Morrow, Paul, Putnam, Reily, Sargent, Smith, Updegraff, Wells and Wilson—19. Those who voted in the negative were: Abrams, Baldwin, Bair, Browne, Caldwell, Carpenter, Donaldson, Humphrey, Huntington, Kirker, McIntire, Massie, Milligan, Woods and Worthington—15.

At the same time the Convention refused, by a vote of 17 to 16, to extend the right of suffrage to the male descendants of such negro residents.

Notes on the Constitutional Convention of 1802.

A motion was made to add to the seventh article of the constitution a new section, as follows:

"Section 7. No negro or mulatto shall ever be eligible to any office, civil, or military, or give their oath in any court of justice against a white person, be subject to do military duty or pay a poll tax in this state; provided always, and it is fully understood and declared, that all negroes and mulattoes, now in, or who may hereafter reside in this state, shall be entitled to all the privileges of citizens of this state, not excepted by this constitution."

This was agreed to by a vote of—yeas 19, nays 16—as follows:

Yeas—Abrams, Baldwin, Bair, Byrd, Caldwell, Carpenter, Darlington, Donaldson, Grubb, Humphrey, Kirker, Massie, McIntire, Milligan, Morrow, Smith, Tiffin, Woods and Worthington—19.

Nays—Abbot, Browne, Cutler, Gatch, Gilman, Goforth, Huntington, Kitchel, Paul, Putnam, Reily, Sargent, Updegraff, Wells and Wilson—15.

On Friday, November 26, in considering Article IV, a motion was made to strike out the provision which had been inserted on the twenty-second, giving right of suffrage to negroes and mulattoes who would prove their residence within twelve months. On this motion the yeas and nays were taken and resulted, 17 to 17. There being a tie vote, the president of the Convention (Edward Tiffin, afterward governor of the State) voted in the affirmative, and the proposition was stricken from the first constitution of the state. The change of front was brought about by the vote of the president and of the Messrs. Darlington, Grubb and Smith, who had previously voted to add this provision to the constitution. On the other hand, Mr. Browne, who had voted against the proposition in the first instance now voted to retain it as a part of the organic law of the state. (P. 34.) Mr. Donaldson, who had opposed the proposition on the twenty-second, refrained from voting on the question as now presented.

A proposition was made to strike out the fifth section of Article IV, relating to labor on roads and its relation to an elector's qualifications, which was defeated by a vote of 13 to 21.

A provision in Article VII, Section 3, that "no new county shall be established by the legislature, which is not entitled by its numbers to a representative," was stricken out by a vote of 22 to 12.

An effort to make the minimum number of square miles in a county five hundred instead of four hundred was defeated, 11 to 23.

A motion to strike out the section (7) added to Article VII on the twenty-second, in relation to the bar to negroes in office, etc., was carried by a vote of 17 to 16.

On this vote Messrs. Dunlavy (who had not voted on this proposition before), and Milligan (who had voted to incorporate it in the article), voted with the friends of the negro, and caused the amendment to be made. President Tiffin, who had voted for the incorporation of the section on the twenty-second, is not recorded on this later vote. The friends of the restriction tried to have it inserted in an amended form, but on a demand for the previous question were outgeneralled, and defeated. (P. 36.)

Notes on the Constitutional Convention of 1802.

By a vote of 20 to 13, the convention inserted a provision in Section 2, Article VIII, prohibiting in this state the indenture of any negro or mulatto.

Early in the sitting of the convention the following message was adopted and ordered to be officially transmitted to the representatives of the United States:

TO THE PRESIDENT AND BOTH HOUSES OF CONGRESS:

The Convention of the State of Ohio, November 27, 1802, duly appreciating the importance of a free and independent state government and impressed with sentiments of gratitude to the Congress of the United States, for the prompt and decisive measures taken at their last session, to enable the people of the north-western territory, to immerge from their colonial government, and to assume a rank among the sister states, beg leave to take the earliest opportunity of announcing to you this important event: on this occasion the Convention can not help expressing their unequivocal approbation of the measures pursued by the present administration of the general government, and both Houses of Congress, in diminishing the public burthens, cultivating peace with all nations, and producing the happiness and prosperity of our country.

WE the people of the State of Ohio, grateful to Almighty God for our freedom, to secure its blessings and promote our common welfare, do establish this constitution.

ARTICLE I.

BILL OF RIGHTS.

SEC. 1. All men are, by nature, free and independent, and have certain inalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and seeking and obtaining happiness and safety.

SEC. 2. All political power is inherent in the people. Government is instituted for their equal protection and benefit, and they have the right to alter, reform, or abolish the same, whenever they may deem it necessary; and no special privileges or immunities shall ever be granted, that may not be altered, revoked, or repealed by the General Assembly.

SEC. 3. The people have the right to assemble together, in a peaceable manner, to consult for their common good; to instruct their representatives; and to petition the General Assembly for the redress of grievances.

SEC. 4. The people have the right to bear arms for their defense and security; but standing armies, in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, and shall not be kept up; and the military shall be in strict subordination to the civil power.

SEC. 5. The right of trial by jury shall be inviolate.

SEC. 6. There shall be no slavery in this state, nor involuntary servitude, unless for the punishment of crime.

No person shall be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship, or maintain any form of worship, against his consent; and no preference shall be given, by law, to any religious society; nor shall any interference with the rights of conscience be permitted. No religious test shall be required, as a qualification for office, nor shall any person be incompetent to be a witness on account of his religious belief; but nothing herein shall be construed to dispense with oaths and affirmations. Religion, morality, and knowledge, however, being essential to good government, it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to pass suitable laws to protect every religious denomination in the peaceable enjoyment of its own mode of public worship, and to encourage schools, and the means of instruction.

The Second Constitution of the State of Ohio.

SEC. 8. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless, in cases of rebellion or invasion, the public safety require it.

SEC. 9. All persons shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses where the proof is evident, or the presumption great. Excessive bail shall not be required; nor excessive fines imposed; nor cruel and unusual punishment inflicted.

Except in cases of impeachment, and cases arising in the army and navy, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger, and in cases of petit larceny and other inferior offenses, no person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury. In any trial, in any court, the party accused shall be allowed to appear and defend in person, and with counsel; to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof; to meet the witnesses face to face, and to have compulsory process to procure the attendance of witnesses in his behalf, and a speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county or district, in which the offense is alleged to have been committed; nor shall any person be compelled, in any criminal case, to be a witness against himself, or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense.

SEC. 11. Every citizen may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of the right; and no law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech, or of the press. In all criminal prosecutions for libel the truth may be given in evidence to the jury, and if it shall appear to the jury, that the matter as charged as libelous is true, and was published with good motives, and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted.

SEC. 12. No person shall be transported out of the state, for any offense committed within the same; and no conviction shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture of estate.

SEC. 13. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; nor, in time of war, except in the manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 14. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and possessions, against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, particularly describing the place to be searched and the person and things to be seized.

When taken in time of war, or other public exigency, imperatively requiring its immediate seizure or for the purpose of making or repairing roads, which shall be open to the public, without charge, a compensation shall be made to the owner, in money, and in all other cases, where private property shall be taken for public use, a compensation therefor shall first be made in money, or first secured by a deposit of money, and such compensation shall be assessed by a jury, without deduction for benefits to any property of the owner.

SEC. 20. This enumeration of rights shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people; and all powers, not herein delegated, remain with the people.

ARTICLE II.

SEC. 6. Each house shall be judge of the election, returns, and qualifications of its own members; a majority of all the members elected to each house shall be a quorum to do business; but a less number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties, as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 7. The mode of organizing the house of representatives, at the commencement of each regular session, shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 8. Each house, except as otherwise provided in this constitution, shall choose its own officers, may determine its own rules of proceeding, punish its members for disorderly conduct; and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member, but not the second time for the same cause; and shall have all other powers, necessary to provide for its safety, and the undisturbed transaction of its business.

SEC. 9. Each house shall keep a correct journal of its proceedings, which shall be published. At the desire of any two members, the yeas and nays shall be entered upon the journal; and, on the passage of every bill, in either house, the vote shall be taken by yeas and nays, and entered upon the journal; and no law shall be passed in either house without the concurrence of a majority of all the members elected thereto.

SEC. 10. Any member of either house shall have the right to protest against any act, or resolution thereof; and such protest, and the reasons therefor, shall, without alteration, commitment, or delay, be entered upon the journal.

SEC. 11. All vacancies which may happen in either house shall, for the unexpired term, be filled by election, as shall be directed by law.

SEC. 12. Senators and Representatives, during the session of the General Assembly, and in going to and returning from the same, shall be privileged from arrest, in all cases, except treason, felony, or breach of the peace; and for any speech, or debate, in either house, they shall not be questioned elsewhere.

SEC. 13. The proceedings of both houses shall be public, except in cases which, in the opinion of two-thirds of those present, require secrecy.

SEC. 14. Neither house shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than two days, Sundays excluded; nor to any other place than that, in which the two houses shall be in session.

SEC. 15. Bills may originate in either house; but may be altered, amended, or rejected in the other.

The Second Constitution of the State of Ohio.

SEC. 16. Every bill shall be fully and distinctly read three different days, unless in case of urgency three-fourths of the house in which it shall be pending, shall dispense with the rule. No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title, and no law shall be revived or amended unless the new act contain the entire act revived, or the section or sections amended, and the section or sections so amended shall be repealed.

Every bill passed by both houses of the General Assembly shall, before said bill can become law, be presented to the governor. If he approves he shall sign said bill and thereupon said bill shall be law. If he object he shall not sign and shall return said bill, together with its objection thereto in writing, to the house wherein said bill originated, which house shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members-elect of that house vote to repass said bill it shall be sent, together with said objection, to the other house, which shall enter at large upon its journal said objection and shall proceed to reconsider said bill. If, after said reconsideration, at least two-thirds of the members-elect of that house vote to pass said bill it shall be law, otherwise it shall not be law. The 76th General Assembly and its Membership	342

INTRODUCTORY.

A REFERENCE to the Ordinance of 1787, which is reproduced in Part One of this volume, will discover to the reader that the legislative function of the territorial government in its first stage of development, and until there should be five thousand free male inhabitants of full age in the district, was lodged in the Governor of the Territory and the judges of the General (or Territorial) Court, or, any two of the Judges and the Governor.

The power of this legislative body is specifically declared in these words of the third paragraph of the Ordinance:

“The governor and judges, or a majority of them, shall adopt and publish in the district, such laws OF THE ORIGINAL STATES, criminal and civil, as may be necessary and best suited to the circumstances of the district, and report them to Congress from time to time, which laws shall be in force in the district until the organization of the general assembly therein, unless disapproved of by Congress; but afterward the legislature shall have authority to alter them as they shall think fit.”

THE FIRST LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORY.

THE Ordinance was adopted by the Congress, July 13, 1787, and the first officers for the territory northwest of the River Ohio were elected by the same body in October. They were: Governor, Major General Arthur St. Clair, elected October 5 (Pennsylvania); Secretary, Major Winthrop Sargent, elected October 5; Judges, General Samuel Holden Parsons, elected October 17 (Connecticut); General James Mitchell Varnum, elected October 17 (Rhode Island); Colonel John Armstrong, elected October 17 (Pennsylvania); Lieutenant Colonel Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., elected February 19, 1788.

Colonel Armstrong declined the post tendered to him by the Congress and did not come to Ohio. Judge Meigs was elected to fill the vacancy.

Although these officers were appointed in the fall and winter of 1787-8, there was no settlement of the new country until the arrival of the Mayflower with a party of forty-six New England emigrants, at the mouth of the Muskingum river, on the seventh day of April, 1788. In the absence of the constituted authority, Colonel Return Jonathan Meigs, father of the judge of that name, drew up a code of rules on a sheet of ordinary foolscap, which he published by tacking them to the trunk of a large oak tree on the site of the infant settlement. This was the first legislation in the territory, and it is said that the code was rigidly adhered to by the pioneers of that country. The late General Manning F. Force, in an historical sketch in "Bench and Bar of Ohio" (1897), is authority for the statement that "history has recorded no infraction of these regulations which were read and approved by all."

Governor St. Clair, who had been occupied since his appointment in continuous efforts to conciliate the Indians of the territory, and in preparing for the needs of the infant settlement, arrived at Marietta with his official family on Wednesday, July 9, and on Tuesday, July 15, in public ceremonies held in the three-months-old town of Marietta, entered upon the discharge of his official duties. The Ordinance of 1787 was read to the settlers by Secretary Winthrop Sargent, after which the commissions of the Governor, Secretary and the Judges were publicly read, and the Governor addressed the people briefly.

The territorial government thus set up consisted of the following officers who were present and participated in the ceremony: Governor, Arthur St. Clair; Secretary, Winthrop Sargent; Judges, Parsons and Varnum.

The First Legislative Council of the Northwest Territory (1788).

This group of officers comprised the First Legislative Council of the Northwest Territory, and during the summer and fall of the year published at Marietta laws on the following subjects:

(1788), July 25—Regulating and establishing the Militia.

(1788), August 23—Establishing General Courts of Quarter Sessions, Common Pleas, and for the appointment of Sheriffs.

(1788), August 30—Establishing a Court of Probate.

(1788), August 30—Fixing the terms of the General Court.

(1788), September 2—Prescribing the forms of oaths of office.

(1788), September 6—Respecting crimes and punishments.

(1788), November 23—Regulating marriages (age for male 17, female 14, with consent of fathers of parties).

(1788), November 23—Fixing monthly fines for failure of recruit in militia to provide himself with the proper equipment.

(1788), December 21—Creating the office of Coroner.

(1788), December 28—Limiting the times of civil actions and for instituting criminal prosecutions.

Each of the above laws was undersigned by Messrs. St. Clair, Parsons, and Varnum, on the dates given, the signature of Judge John Cleves Symmes appearing on the law of August 30,—establishing a Court of Probate—but on no other. His arrival in the colony is thus fixed at a much earlier day than that given in most authorities.—(Territorial Laws.)

Governor St. Clair withheld his approval to a proposed law relating to estates held in common; he also, on July 30, called the attention of the judges to the provision of the ordinance which empowered them to "adopt" the laws of the older states, and expressed it as his opinion that they were overstepping their authority in forming new laws in any case; "And when we do," he adds, "the necessity of the case only can be our justification." This opinion of the Governor was fully borne out, when, at a later period, the council found it wise to repeal by wholesale laws of their own making which had no foundation in the code of the older states, and adopt others which conformed to this requirement in their stead.—(St. Clair Papers.)

Judge Varnum died in 1789.

THE SECOND LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

THE ratification of the Constitution of the United States by a sufficient number of states having occurred during the latter part of the year 1784, and President Washington having assumed the reins of government thereunder, it was construed to be the duty of the Executive to appoint such officers whose commissions, having been issued by the Congress under the old form of government, were held to have expired with that government. In pursuance of this conception of his duty, the President, in a letter dated New York, August 18, 1789, nominated for the officers of the Northwest Territory: Arthur St. Clair, for Governor, and Messrs. Samuel Holden Parsons, John Cleves Symmes, and William Barton (vice Varnum, deceased), Judges. The nominations were confirmed by the Senate of the United States, but Mr. Barton declining the appointment, the President nominated Mr. George Turner, who was confirmed on the eighth day of September.

There is no public record of the acts of the council during the year 1789. In November of this year, Judge Parsons, who was the Chief Justice of the court, was drowned in a ford in the Muskingum valley, while returning to the seat of government from a treaty council with the Indians of the Western Reserve.

THE THIRD LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

THE year 1790 was marked by the sitting of the Council in the farther west, at the town of Vincennes (more generally known at that day by the name of "au Post"). Winthrop Sargent, Secretary and acting Governor, sat with Messrs. Symmes and Turner, Governor St. Clair being absent in the eastern states, and no successor sitting in the room of Judge Parsons, who had been succeeded by General Rufus Putnam, Jr., of Marietta. This council, in its meeting at Vincennes, published the following laws, which were afterwards disapproved and ordered to be repealed by the Congress, as having no foundation in the older laws to which the territorial council was confined by the Ordinance of 1787.

July 19—An act prohibiting the giving or selling of intoxicating liquors to Indians.

July 26—An act restricting the sale of intoxicating liquors to soldiers, and to prevent the pawning or selling of arms, ammunition, clothing and accoutrements.

August 4—An act suppressing gambling and making void all contracts and payments made in consequence thereof.

Removing to the town of Cincinnati, the council passed, in November—Governor St. Clair having resumed his attendance with the body, and Secretary Winthrop Sargent retiring—the following laws:

November 4—An act to alter the terms of the General Court.

November 5—An act to augment the terms of the County Courts.

November 6—An act to authorize the Courts of Quarter Sessions to divide the counties into townships, and to appoint constables, overseers of the poor, and township clerks.

THE LAWS OF 1791.

THE body to which has been given in this volume the designation of the Third Legislative Council, was permitted to serve until no change in its official membership, except that in the absence of the Governor his seat was occupied by the Secretary as Acting Governor, from the appointment of Judge Putnam in the winter of 1790 to 1796, when Judge Putnam resigned his seat on the bench and in the council to accept the office of Surveyor General of the United States, to which he had been appointed by President Washington.

Messrs. St. Clair, Symmes and Turner affixed their signatures to the following laws in the year 1791, and caused the same to be published at Cincinnati:

June 22—An act supplementary to the act of September 6, 1798, respecting crimes.

June 22—An act for the punishment of persons who deface publications set up by authority.

June 29—An act regulating the enclosures of ground; and on July 2—An act to amend the militia laws of 1788 as to days of muster, and fines for disobedience.

THE LAWS OF 1792.

THE session of the council for the year 1792 seems to have been held in Cincinnati prior to the first day of August, and including that day, Messrs. Winthrop Sargent (acting Governor), Symmes, and Putnam signing and publishing the following bills:

August 1—Granting licenses to merchants, traders, and tavern-keepers.

August 1—An act creating the office of Treasurer General and of county treasurers.

August 1—An act supplementary to the law of November 23, 1788, regulating marriages.

August 1—An act to regulate the admission of attorneys.

August 1—An act prescribing forms of writs and mode of procedure in civil cases.

These laws are found in a published volume of the date of 1792, Philadelphia, and certified by Winthrop Sargent, Secretary.

THE LAWS OF 1795.

THE council sitting in 1795, in the town of Cincinnati, devoted the months of June, July and August to a careful revision of the laws then in use in the territory, and by an act of repeal (See law of July 14 in list below, eliminated those laws to which, as exceeding the authority of the council, the Congress had objected, at the same time putting into operation new laws in their stead, which, by careful citation of the authority of some one of the original states, attested the propriety of such act by council.

The sitting members of the council at this time were Governor St. Clair and Judges Symmes and Turner, who certified, and caused to be published at Cincinnati, on the dates mentioned in each case, the following, which, being printed by William Maxwell, printer of Cincinnati, came to be known as "The Maxwell Code."

THE FOURTH LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

I N December, 1796, Judge Putnam, who had been appointed a brigadier general by President Washington in May, 1792, while a member of the territorial court, was again honored by the President and nominated for surveyor general of the United States. This appointment led to the resignation of Judge Putnam, who was succeeded on the bench by Joseph Gilman, of Point Harmar.

This council has left no record of new legislation in this year.

THE FIFTH LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

JUDGE TURNER, who had served the territory with distinguished zeal since his appointment (September 8, 1797) to succeed to the chair made vacant by the death of Chief Justice Parsons, resigned in the winter of 1797-8 and was succeeded by Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., of Marietta. This was the last legislative act of the Territorial Council.

THE FIRST SESSION OF THE FIRST TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE.

IN the year 1798, Governor St. Clair, having by personal visits to the several settlements become satisfied of the presence of the necessary five thousand white male inhabitants in the territory, issued his proclamation to the people calling for the election of representatives to a general assembly to be convened at Cincinnati on the fourth day of February, 1799. This general assembly, under the ordinance of 1787, must consist of a House of Representatives, together with a Legislative Council of five members to be appointed by the President of the United States, from a list of ten names to be submitted to him by the House of Representatives when so elected. The representatives were chosen in accordance with the proclamation of the Governor, and on assembling at Cincinnati on the day named in the proclamation, February 4, nominated the members of council and adjourned to meet in Cincinnati on the sixteenth of the following September, in order that the President would have an opportunity to act. Of the ten names submitted for his inspection and approval, the President nominated to the United States Senate as members of the Territorial Council (or upper house): Jacob Burnet and James Findlay of Cincinnati; Henry Vanderburgh of Vincennes; Robert Oliver of Marietta, and David Vance of Vanceville.

These nominations were promptly confirmed by the Senate and transmitted to Cincinnati, where they were announced to the people by proclamation of the Governor.

On the sixteenth day of September, 1799, the First Territorial Legislature met in Cincinnati, the two houses being composed of the following gentlemen:

IN THE COUNCIL (APPOINTED).

Jacob Burnett, of Cincinnati.
James Findlay, of Cincinnati.
Henry Vanderburgh, of Vincennes.
Robert Oliver, of Marietta.
David Vance, of Vanceville.

Mr. Vanderburgh was elected President of the Council.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (ELECTED).

Benham, Robert, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).
Bond, Shadrack, of St. Clair County.
Chobert de Joncaire, Charles F., of Wayne County (Detroit).

Caldwell, Aaron, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).
 Darlington, Joseph, of Adams County.
 Edgar, John, of Randolph County.
 Fearing, Paul, of Washington County (Marietta).
 Findlay, Samuel, of Ross County (Chillicothe).
 Gofortli, William, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).
 Ludlow, John, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).
 Langham, Elias, of Ross County (Chillicothe).
 McMillan, William, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).
 Martin, Isaac, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).
 Massie, Nathaniel, of Ross County (Chillicothe).
 Meigs, Return Jonathan, Jr., of Washington County (Marietta).
 Pritchard, James, of Jefferson County.
 Sibley, Solomon, of Wayne County (Detroit).
 Small, John, of Knox County (Vincennes).
 Smith, John, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).
 Tiffin, Edward, of Ross County (Chillicothe).
 Viscar, Jacob, of Wayne County (Detroit).
 Worthington, Thomas, of Ross County (Chillicothe).

The two houses having met and organized by the election of their officers, on the sixteenth of September, on the following day Governor St. Clair addressed the legislature in eloquent terms, congratulating the body and the Territory on the new form of legislative government in which the people now had a direct voice in the conduct of affairs. Jacob Burnet, a member of the council, writing after the lapse of a half a century, says in his "Notes on the Northwest Territory" (Cincinnati, 1847): "He laid before them a full and faithful view of the condition and the wants of the Territory, and recommended to their attention such measures as he believed were proper to advance the prosperity and happiness of the people" (p. 300).

Governor St. Clair had been in active discharge of the duties of the chief executive of the Territory continuously since he had supervised the dispatch of the first settlers to the then unsettled west in 1788; he had joined the first colony at Marietta within three months of its arrival (July, 1788), and had been one of the legislators for the colonies up to the time of the meeting of this first territorial assembly; out of the experience of over eleven pioneer years, the governor spoke to the legislators of the work before them, as no better quipped man could speak, for there was no man of better equipment for the duty. Of Governor St. Clair's influence at this time Mr. Burnet says (p. 378): "And it may be said with great truth, that at the time he addressed the First Territorial Legislature in 1799, he possessed as great, if not a greater share of the confidence and respect of the people of the Territory than any other individual residing in it."

This being the first session of any representative legislative body in the Territory, the transition from the first to the second grade of government involved a general revision of the laws in force; new laws to meet the changed conditions; new officers and new duties for those already established; and a plan must be conceived by which to meet the increased expenditures of a semi-independent government. Many of the members being inexperienced in legislative matters, the active work of the session fell on a few of the men who had been most closely identified with the previous history of the settlements.

On the third of October the two houses in joint session elected William Henry Harrison as delegate from the Territory in the Congress of the United States, his election being contested by Arthur St. Clair, Jr., who was beaten by one vote. Captain Harrison was secretary of the Territory at the time of his election, Mr. St. Clair, son of the Governor, being its attorney. Mr. Harrison resigned his position as secretary and at once proceeded to his duties in the Congress.

It is hard to present the history of this session of the legislature in the limits allowed in a publication of this nature. The existing laws were a poor apology for a code; the Ordinance of 1787 formed a broad and liberal basis for the government which has since grown up under its provisions, but there was much legislation needed to supplement and make practical its several declarations. The governor and the judges had selected or made laws, from time to time, neglecting many important interests, and imperfectly providing for others which were touched upon; one of the statutes of Virginia had been adopted which put in operation the English common law and certain English statutes of a date prior to the fourth year of the reign of James I.; statutes from the original states had been called upon to supply, in whole or in part, contributions to the code of statute law in the Territory, and there fell upon the legislature at this first session the duty of "repealing, amending, enacting and supplementing," in such manner as appealed to the best judgment of the pioneers who composed the body, until on their adjournment on the nineteenth day of December, 1799, there had been laid the foundation for much of the subsequent public law in the Territory and in those states which have been carved out of it.

Following is a summary of the acts of this assembly:

THE SECOND SESSION OF THE FIRST TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE.

(CHILLICOTHE, NOVEMBER 3, 1800.)

IT was in connection with the work of this first session of the legislature that the signs of approaching disagreement with the governor made their appearance. Governor St. Clair assumed that he was a branch of the assembly and that he had an absolute right to veto the acts of the two houses. He claimed the right, as governor, to lay out and change the boundaries of counties under the Ordinance of 1787, regardless of the expressions from the legislature, and was no doubt sincere in his efforts to perform that which he looked upon as his sworn duty. The result of his action was, however, to bring about a strained relation which only grew in force as time went on. Judge Burnet says, in the book already quoted: "The effect of the construction he gave of his own power may be seen in the fact that of thirty bills passed by the two houses during the first session, and sent to him for his approval, he refused assent to eleven; some of which were supposed to be of much importance, and all of them calculated, more or less, to advance the public interest. Some of them he rejected because they related to the establishment of new counties; others because he thought they were unnecessary or inexpedient. Thus, more than a third of the fruits of the labor of that entire session was lost by the exercise of the arbitrary discretion of one man." (p. 376.)

In this connection it may be well to add that the governor was not sustained in his position when he submitted to the Senate of the United States his report of new counties laid out after the legislature of the Territory had come into existence. It was held that the governor of the Territory had exhausted his authority when he had once laid out the whole territory into counties (which Governor St. Clair had done early in his administration) and that subsequent rearrangements or divisions vested solely in the territorial legislature. This decision was not reached in time to prevent a recurrence of the differences between the governor and the legislature at its second session in 1800, but was gratifying to those members who had been engaged on the legislative side of the question during the first two sessions.

The legislature stood prorogued to meet at Cincinnati on the first Monday in November, 1800. By reference to an act of Congress of the United States May 7 of that year (See Part One), it will be noticed that after the adjournment of the first session of the legislature, the Northwest Territory was divided by a line running due north from the mouth of the Kentucky River, into an eastern part which retained the old name and government, and a western part which was given the name of THE TERRITORY OF INDIANA, and a new government of the first grade established therein, the officers of which were to be appointed by the President. This act of Congress was acquiesced in by the Governor and legislature of the territory with great reluctance, and was regarded by the best men in the Territory to be an unwarranted assumption of legislative power on the part of the Congress. President Vanderburg of the council was thus legislated out of office and became a citizen of the new territory. Representatives Shadrack Bond, of St. Clair County, John Edgar, of Randolph County, and John Small, of Knox County, also lost their seats in the House of Representatives for the same reason, and the constituents of these gentlemen were summarily deprived of a voice and a membership in that local territorial government, for which they had but recently voted. The seat of government for the new territory was fixed by Congress at Vincennes, and the same act named the village of Chillicothe, instead of the already established capital at Cincinnati, as the seat of government for the old territory. It was charged that this act of Congress was urged by two or three ardent and aggressive spirits who hoped to bring about an early state government in Ohio, and were already planning to accomplish the removal of Governor St. Clair and his administration.

Pursuant to the call issued by the Governor under the new order, the members of the legislature met in Chillicothe on the third day of November, 1800. This was almost exactly one hundred years ago, it being an interesting fact that the editor writes these lines on the twenty-sixth day of October, 1900. The council met in the house of Joseph Tiffin, the council chamber in the new capitol not being ready for occupancy. As there is no record to the contrary, it is probable that the representatives were better provided for. The composition of the legislature at this second session was as follows:

IN THE COUNCIL.

Jacob Burnet, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).

Robert Oliver, of Washington County (Marietta).

David Vance, of Jefferson County (Vanceville).

James Findlay, of Hamilton County (Cincinnati).

Mr. Vanderburg, of Vincennes, having for reasons already given, lost his seat in the council, Mr. Oliver was elected president of that body, Mr. William C. Schenck (secretary of the Territory) acting as secretary to the council, and William Rutledge being elected doorkeeper. To fill the vacancy in council, the Governor requested the House of Representatives to nominate to the President of the United States two names from which to make a selection, and on the ninth of November the names of Solomon Sibley, of Detroit, and Samuel Findlay (Finley?), of Cincinnati, were chosen. The seat remained vacant until the session of 1801, owing to the time necessarily consumed in forwarding the nominations to the national capitol and in returning the appointment to the Territory.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The following members were present or took their seats at a later day:

Benham, Robert, of Hamilton County.,
 Chobert de Joncaire, Charles F., of Wayne County (Detroit).
 Darlington, Joseph, of Adams County.
 Fearing, Paul, of Washington County.
 Findlay, Samuel, of Ross County.
 Goforth, William, of Hamilton County.
 Kimberly, Zenas, of Jefferson County.
 Langham, Elias, of Ross County (contested seat).
 Ludlow, John, of Hamilton County (Vice Caldwell, removed from the Territory).
 Lytle, William, of Hamilton County.
 McMillan, William, of Hamilton County.
 Martin, Isaac, of Hamilton County.
 Massie, Nathaniel, of Adams County (Seated November 10).
 Meigs, Return J., Jr., of Washington County.
 Pritchard, James, of Jefferson County.
 Sibley, Solomon, of Wayne County (Detroit).
 Smith, John, of Hamilton County.
 Tiffin, Edward, of Ross County.
 Visgar, Jacob, of Wayne County (Detroit).
 Worthington, Thomas, of Ross County.

Edward Tiffin was elected Speaker of the House.

One of the first duties devolving on the legislature was the election of a delegate to Congress to succeed Captain William Henry Harrison, who had resigned to accept the appointment as governor of the territory of Indiana, and also to elect a delegate for the long term beginning on the fifth day of March, 1801. On the sixth day of November the two houses met in joint session in accordance with a previous resolution to that effect, and elected as delegates to Congress: William McMillan, of Hamilton County, for the unexpired term ending March 4, 1801, and Paul Fearing, of Washington County, for the term ending on the fourth day of March, 1803.

As will be noticed, the selections were made from the members of the House of Representatives.

The Second Session of the First Territorial Legislature.

Mr. McMillan at once resigned from the House and proceeded to his new duties.

The work of legislation was begun with mutual expressions of regard between the Governor and the members of the assembly, notwithstanding the differences of the preceding winter. On November 5, the Governor visited the joint assembly and delivered an annual message of kindly tone in which he spoke of the near approach of the end of his term of office and of their own. He mentioned the efforts of his adversaries only to remark: "The remorse of their own consciences will one day be punishment sufficient. Their acts may, however, succeed. Be that as it may, this I am certain, that, be my successor who he may, he can never have the interests of the people of this Territory more truly at heart than I have had for them, nor labor more assiduously for their good than I have done; and I am not conscious that any one act of my administration has been influenced by any other motive than a sincere desire to promote their welfare and happiness."

To this the assembly drafted its formal reply and asked the Governor to fix an hour when he could receive the committee and hear the same. On receiving an intimation of his convenience, the committee formally waited on him in the executive chamber at 10 o'clock a. m., Monday, November 17, and afterward returned to their respective houses bearing with them the formal reply of his excellency to their address. This second communication from St. Clair is a feeling response to the expressions of confidence in which the House had clothed its message to him.

Governor St. Clair, in a message to the House December 2, 1800, calls to their attention the fact that, as his term of office expires in one week from that day, it will be necessary that the session must end on that day, and therefore any business of importance to be transacted should not be too long postponed. He says in this case the Secretary of the Territory cannot supply to the Assembly the place of a Governor.

French inhabitants of the County of Wayne presented to the House, December 4, a petition in French language which was referred to Messrs. Kimberly and Visger for translation. (p. 95.) This committee reported later in the day that the petition was for a redress of certain grievances, and it was referred to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

A proposition was submitted that the assembly should hold its sessions in rotation as follows: The first session to be held in the town of Marietta, the second in the town of Cincinnati, and the third in the town of Chillicothe. This was agreed to by the House, 10 to 8.

A motion to hold the sessions in Cincinnati was lost, 4 to 14. The bill was finally defeated by striking out the enacting clause, on a vote not given. (p. 109.)

Adjourned by the Governor December 9, 1800. (S. J., p. 77.)

The First Session of the Second Territorial General Assembly.

The House organized on the twenty-fourth of November by the election of the following officers: Edward Tiffin, Speaker; John Reilly, Clerk.

The seats of Messrs. Schefflin and McDougall, of Wayne County, were contested, but they were declared to be entitled to their seats.

The finances of the Territory were in such condition that the governor, who had been reappointed during the adjournment of the assembly, in his address at a joint session of the two houses called to be held in "Mr. Gregg's Hall" for the purpose said: "The Territory is in debt in the sum of $5,419 beyond the whole revenue for the present year. A new emission of bills (of credit) must be made, even to meet the expenses of the present session. A wretched expedient, it is true, because the bills suffer a depreciation in the hands they pass through, and the public pays the full interest."

During this session of the General Assembly, a bill was passed transferring the seat of government to Cincinnati, from which city it had been removed by a provision in the territorial act of 1800, and as an expression of feeling on the part of the local inhabitants, a number of the members of the legislature, and also the governor, were set upon in Chillicothe on the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth of December. The matter was made a subject for official investigation.

At 12 o'clock noon, on January twenty-third, the Council attended the chamber of the House of Representatives in a body, where the joint assembly was addressed by Governor St. Clair, and adjourned by him to meet in second session in Cincinnati on the fourth Monday of the following November (1802). It should be noted here that this proposed second session of the second and last territorial legislature was never held. The reason is given in the following interesting extract from the memoirs of a member of the Council speaking of the first constitutional convention:

"As the territorial legislature was in existence, and stood adjourned, to meet at Cincinnati on the fourth Monday in November, three weeks after the opening of the convention, a resolution was passed, directing their president to request the governor to dissolve or prorogue that body. Such a precaution was altogether unnecessary, as no disposition existed among the members, either to embarrass, or in any way interfere with the movements of the convention. That such a disposition did not exist was verified by the fact that the day for the meeting of the legislature came and passed; the members remaining at home as by common consent. No attempt was made by the governor, or by any of the members, to convene that body, till its existence was terminated, and it was succeeded by the General Assembly, under the State Constitution." (Notes on the Northwestern Territory, 1847, by Judge Jacob Burnett, a member of the Territorial Council.)

THE QUESTION OF THE BOUNDARY OF THE STATE.

THE question of boundary, though not expressly referred to the convention (The Constitutional Convention of 1802) was one of greater importance than would appear at first view. It is generally known to those who have consulted the maps of the western country extant at the time the Ordinance of 1887 was passed, that Lake Michigan was represented as being very far north of the position which it has since been ascertained to occupy. On a map in the Department of State (at Washington) which was before the committee of Congress who formed the ordinance for the government of the Territory, the southern boundary of that lake was laid down as being near the forty-second degree of north latitude, and there was a pencil line passing through the southern bend of the lake, to the Canada line, which intersected the strait between the River Raisin and the town of Detroit. The line was manifestly intended by the committee, and by Congress, to be the northern boundary of this state; and that map, and the line marked on it, should have been taken as conclusive evidence of the boundary, without reference to the actual position of the southern extreme of the lake.

When the Convention was in session in 1802, it was the prevailing opinion that the old maps were correct; and that the line, as defined in the ordinance, would terminate at some point on the strait far above the Maumee Bay; but, while that subject was under discussion, a man who had hunted many years on Lake Michigan and was well acquainted with its position, happened to be in Chillicothe, and in conversation with some of the members, mentioned to them that the lake extended much farther south than was generally supposed; and that a map he had seen placed its southern bend many miles north of its true position. His statement produced some apprehension and excitement on the subject, and induced the convention to change the line prescribed in the act of Congress, so far as to provide that if it should be found to strike Lake Erie below the Maumee River, as the hunter informed them it would, then the boundary of the state should be a line drawn from the point where the prescribed line intersected the west boundary of the state, direct to the most northern cape of the Maumee Bay. That provision saved to the State of Ohio the valuable ports and harbors on the Maumee River and bay, which were the prize contended for in the "Michigan war of Governor Lucas." "Yet some of the members (of the Convention) hesitated in making the provision, lest it might cause delay; but fortunately it was adopted and its object is now secure." (Burnett's "Notes on the Northwestern Territory," 1847, p. 360.) (See also the language of the Acts of Congress, 1800, 1802-1812, quoted in Part I of this publication.—EDITOR.

THE QUESTION OF THE BOUNDARY OF THE STATE.

THE question of boundary, though not expressly referred to the convention (The Constitutional Convention of 1802) was one of greater importance than would appear at first view. It is generally known to those who have consulted the maps of the western country extant at the time the Ordinance of 1887 was passed, that Lake Michigan was represented as being very far north of the position which it has since been ascertained to occupy. On a map in the Department of State (at Washington) which was before the committee of Congress who formed the ordinance for the government of the Territory, the southern boundary of that lake was laid down as being near the forty-second degree of north latitude, and there was a pencil line passing through the southern bend of the lake, to the Canada line, which intersected the strait between the River Raisin and the town of Detroit. The line was manifestly intended by the committee, and by Congress, to be the northern boundary of this state; and that map, and the line marked on it, should have been taken as conclusive evidence of the boundary, without reference to the actual position of the southern extreme of the lake.

When the Convention was in session in 1802, it was the prevailing opinion that the old maps were correct; and that the line, as defined in the ordinance, would terminate at some point on the strait far above the Maumee Bay; but, while that subject was under discussion, a man who had hunted many years on Lake Michigan and was well acquainted with its position, happened to be in Chillicothe, and in conversation with some of the members, mentioned to them that the lake extended much farther south than was generally supposed; and that a map he had seen placed its southern bend many miles north of its true position. His statement produced some apprehension and excitement on the subject, and induced the convention to change the line prescribed in the act of Congress, so far as to provide that if it should be found to strike Lake Erie below the Maumee River, as the hunter informed them it would, then the boundary of the state should be a line drawn from the point where the prescribed line intersected the west boundary of the state, direct to the most northern cape of the Maumee Bay. That provision saved to the State of Ohio the valuable ports and harbors on the Maumee River and bay, which were the prize contended for in the "Michigan war of Governor Lucas." "Yet some of the members (of the Convention) hesitated in making the provision, lest it might cause delay; but fortunately it was adopted and its object is now secure." THE QUESTION OF THE BOUNDARY OF THE STATE.

THE question of boundary, though not expressly referred to the convention (The Constitutional Convention of 1802) was one of greater importance than would appear at first view. It is generally known to those who have consulted the maps of the western country extant at the time the Ordinance of 1887 was passed, that Lake Michigan was represented as being very far north of the position which it has since been ascertained to occupy. On a map in the Department of State (at Washington) which was before the committee of Congress who formed the ordinance for the government of the Territory, the southern boundary of that lake was laid down as being near the forty-second degree of north latitude, and there was a pencil line passing through the southern bend of the lake, to the Canada line, which intersected the strait between the River Raisin and the town of Detroit. The line was manifestly intended by the committee, and by Congress, to be the northern boundary of this state; and that map, and the line marked on it, should have been taken as conclusive evidence of the boundary, without reference to the actual position of the southern extreme of the lake.

When the Convention was in session in 1802, it was the prevailing opinion that the old maps were correct; and that the line, as defined in the ordinance, would terminate at some point on the strait far above the Maumee Bay; but, while that subject was under discussion, a man who had hunted many years on Lake Michigan and was well acquainted with its position, happened to be in Chillicothe, and in conversation with some of the members, mentioned to them that the lake extended much farther south than was generally supposed; and that a map he had seen placed its southern bend many miles north of its true position. His statement produced some apprehension and excitement on the subject, and induced the convention to change the line prescribed in the act of Congress, so far as to provide that if it should be found to strike Lake Erie below the Maumee River, as the hunter informed them it would, then the boundary of the state should be a line drawn from the point where the prescribed line intersected the west boundary of the state, direct to the most northern cape of the Maumee Bay. That provision saved to the State of Ohio the valuable ports and harbors on the Maumee River and bay, which were the prize contended for in the "Michigan war of Governor Lucas." "Yet some of the members (of the Convention) hesitated in making the provision, lest it might cause delay; but fortunately it was adopted and its object is now secure." (Burnett's "Notes on the Northwestern Territory," 1847, p. 360.) (See also the language of the Acts of Congress, 1800, 1802-1812, quoted in Part I of this publication.—EDITOR.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF OHIO.

THE third legislative body to come into power in the territory comprised in the present state was the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, which, following the adoption of the State Constitution and the admission of the state into the Union of States, was organized for its first session, on the first day of March, 1803.

The legislative body thus inaugurated has been an enormous factor for good in the onward and forward progress of Ohio during the past hundred years. No group of men have served the state with so little personal gain as have her legislators. No body of public men has done so much to encourage morality, industry and patriotism. The wonder of it is—not that legislators have occasionally made personal mistakes—but that in no matter what strait or dilemma, Ohio has always had in her service, practically without compensation, so many men who were not only patriots, but men who exhibited the wisdom and had the courage to handle the affairs of state with honor to themselves, to their constituents and the name of an Ohioan. When the enormous power of a General Assembly is fairly understood, the more honor is found to be due those men who, since the first settler landed on the western bank of the Ohio, in 1788, have never used that power as a body, except to advance the state in dignity and in prosperity, and in evidences of fealty in every hour of danger to the general government. More or less acquaintance with members of recent assemblies, and a quite studious attention to the records of the past century in Ohio, gives point to these observations.

After the war, he was for many years interested in the lumber business as a member of the firm of Jackson, Buchtel & Co., and as the head of the firm of Wm. Much of his time was spent in the Michigan pineries and his experiences there afford an endless fund of amusing and interesting reminiscences. At this time, in company with W. B. Among the monuments to his enterprise in this direction may be named the Buchtel Hotel, the Akron Savings Bank building and numerous residences in Akron and surrounding towns. He resigned as vice president of the City National Bank and organized the Akron Savings Bank in 1888, and has held the office of president of this bank from its organization to the present time. He is also president of the Thomas Lumber and Building Company and treasurer of the Akron Building and Loan Association.

Always greatly interested in municipal affairs, he has served two terms as chairman of the Board of City Commissioners of Akron and was a member of the Decennial Board of Equalization in 1890. He is a man of sterling integrity and his stern adherence to the principles of truth and equity has won for himself the unqualified respect and admiration of all who know him.

From the age of eight, when his father died, our subject has resided in Seneca County, attending village and district schools and the academy of Heidelberg University, spending ten years on the farm and teaching one term of school before leaving for college. He led the entire ticket in 1901 by two hundred votes. In 1902 when the state went 113,000 Republican and the Democrats in the House were reduced from 42 to 22, Representative Carle was confronted by an opponent picked as "the strongest Republican in Seneca County." Allied with the splendidly organized Republican committee and its resources was a desperate clique of defeated Democratic leaders of the county, including an ex-congressman, who determined that Seneca County for the first time in her history should elect a Republican Representative. When the polls closed, Representative Carle was re-elected by a majority of thirty per cent. greater than before. John J. Lehmann, Representative from Sandusky County, was born October 4, 1863, on a farm in the county which he represents. He worked for his parents until he was 21 years old, and during his boyhood days he experienced many of the hardships incident to early farm life. He attended the public school during the winter and received a good common school education. At the age of 21 he began attending school at Ada, Ohio, and the next year he began farming for himself in summer and teaching school in winter. In the year 1887 he was nominated without any opposition for clerk of his township and was elected by the largest majority of any one on his ticket. He was re-elected and again received a large majority. As a school teacher he met with great success and in the year 1892 he was tendered the principalship of the Rising Sun, Ohio, schools which position he accepted and held for two years. As soon as he began teaching in Rising Sun he gave up farming and devoted his time, while not engaged in the school room, to the study of law. Mr. Lehmann came to the Legislature with one object especially in view, and that was to secure the enactment of some law to prevent the American Strawboard Company from continuing to pollute the Sandusky River and thereby endangering the health of the people of Fremont where he lives.

He began early in the session by introducing H. B. No. 58 and following this he introduced several bills of a similar nature until near the close of the session when he caught the Strawboard people napping and introduced H. B. No. 449, which, under the guise of a bill to give cities purer water, authorizes the court to fine for contempt in cases of nuisance of a recurring character. He used every effort to secure the passage of this bill, and succeeded. The bill as it catches in a trap the Strawboard factories, which have for a decade succeeded in preventing the passage of all such bills aimed at the pollution of streams by strawboard refuse. He also introduced and secured the passage of H. B. No. 165, compelling land owners to build one-half of partition fences, thus revolutionizing the fence laws of Ohio. H. B. No. 320, limiting the time of the committee to examine the County Commissioner's report to thirty days. H. B. No. 202 authorizing County Commissioners of adjoining counties to act jointly under the Gehrett Road law in building county line roads. H. B. No. 468, providing for the payment of $500.00 to Paul Schaff, of the O. N. G., for injury received while in camp, and H. B. No. 560, authorizing a village and township to join in improving or building a public building.

His ancestors were Scotch-Irish Presbyterians, who became farmers in the undeveloped wilds of what is now a prosperous and highly cultivated agricultural district. His father was a soldier in the Civil War. The subject of this sketch naturally inherited the sturdy, industrious, progressive habits of his parentage, and as he grew to young manhood on the farm, made the most of every opportunity for self development. He received a good common and high school education, and at the early age of seventeen became a teacher. For several years he was successful as an instructor in the public schools, and gave his spare time to the life insurance business. As this line of work proved interesting and profitable, he gave up the profession of teaching and became a member of the firm of Boyd & McConnell, of Coshocton, Ohio, with whom his interests are still allied. This firm is extensively known and does a very lucrative business in all kinds of insurance.

Smith, of Marietta, who has always been an earnest Republican, because he believes that the greatness of our country in the closing years of the nineteenth century is due more to the principles of government as espoused by the Republican party than to anything else.

He was born on a farm near Chester Hill, Morgan county, Ohio, May 27, 1863, of Quaker parents, Humphrey Smith and Susanna (Lewis) Smith, all of his ancestors being Quakers, who emigrated to Ohio early in the nineteenth century and settled in Harrison and Belmont counties.

J. S. STUCKEY, OF VAN WERT COUNTY.

J. S. Stuckey, Republican member of the 76th General Assembly from Van Wert County, was born in Auglaize County, Ohio, October 21, 1841, from which place his parents soon thereafter removed to Van Wert county, which has ever since been the home of Mr. Stuckey. His opportunities for attending school were very limited, the only chance being that of a few weeks at the country school during mid-winter, when no work could be done on the farm.

Notwithstanding these disadvantages, Mr. Stuckey has, by diligent and earnest effort, acquired that which many so-called educated men lack, viz., a practical general business education.

Mr. Stuckey enlisted July 26, 1861, as a private in Company I, 27th O. V. I., and after four years constant service in this regiment, was mustered out by reason of the expiration of the war First Lieutenant of Company F.

Mr. Stuckey was married to Miss Mary F. Gilliland, of Van Wert County, September 14, 1865. To them have been born eleven children, eight of whom are yet living, viz., five sons and three daughters. Dull, by 252 majority, a good majority for Van Wert County.

D. D. SPANGLER.

D. D. Spangler, the Representative of Henry County, was born in Marion Township, Henry County, Ohio, May 19, 1868. Till he was eighteen he worked exclusively on the farm, attending a few months each winter the district school. So determined was he to secure an education that it is said of him in his younger years, when sent out in the fields by himself, he would frequently be found with a book or a newspaper; but the gratification of his desires for a number of years seemed very far distant. However, in the summer of 1886 prospects became brighter. An uncle from St. Paul, Kansas, who is a professor, and spent his vacation in Ohio, became interested in his nephew. In August, 1886, the subject of this sketch accompanied his uncle to St. Paul, Kansas, where for two years he applied himself closely and diligently to his books. He always was a model student, leading in his classes. In the monthly tests, which were always rewarded by prizes, he frequently carried all of them.

The course of studies prescribed by the institution which was conducted by the Jesuits, embraced four years; but circumstances at home became such that with only one year yet to complete the course, he had to abandon his beloved professors and fellow students and return to Ohio.

Upon his return to Ohio he took the county examination, passed it successfully, and for four terms taught the school where he had been a pupil. Not being satisfied with his education, at the age of twenty-two he resumed his studies again at Pio Nono college, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he graduated in June, 1893, as valedictorian of his class. In the fall of 1893 he accepted a position as principal in the schools at Decatur, Indiana, where he labored successfully for years.

Returning to Ohio, he purchased a farm on which he has since resided, dividing his time between farming and teaching in the South Ridge special school district as principal and superintendent for a number of years.

Being politically inclined, he entered the field for Representative of Henry County in 1899, against the Hon. T. M. Gehrett and James Anderson, and came out of the convention as second man. As a man who strictly attends to his own business he was practically unknown in the greater part of the county. Making an honorable and clean campaign, and by his telling and timely talks before the convention, he made such an impression upon the people that at this time he became their choice for Representative by acclamation. Neither did his constituents desert him at the election. Where he was best known people, regardless of party, supported him at the election.

He is a firm and ardent believer and supporter in the principles of Democracy, and never lets an opportunity pass in public or private to let himself be heard and felt, and is a staunch friend of labor. The Democratic executive committee of Henry County invited him to take the stump, which he cheerfully did, and by the close of the campaign he was known as the silver-tongued orator of Henry County.

As a member of the 76th General Assembly he serves on the important committees of Common Schools, Boys' Industrial School, and Elections.

JAMES M. SPRAGUE.

He was later made deputy revenue collector, but a change of administration brought about his withdrawal from that position. Soon after, he was appointed deputy in the Probate Court, which position he held for several years, resigning it in order to accept the general agency of an eastern surety company. That position he also resigned and accepted his present responsible position on October 1, 1901.

Mr. Sprague was married in 1898 to Caroline Virginia Fieber, and they have a handsome home at No. 1529 Lincoln avenue. They have one child, Elvina Stoll, a beautiful and bright little girl.

Personally, Mr. Sprague has many friends who enjoy the sincerity of his friendship and the genial nature of his companionship.

MYRON T. HERRICK.

HON. MYRON T. HERRICK, GOVERNOR OF OHIO.

Myron T. Herrick was born at Huntington, Lorain County, Ohio, on the 9th of October, 1854, the son of Timothy R. and Mary L. Herrick. His father came from a Massachusetts family of colonial origin. His grandfather, Timothy Herrick, was one of the pioneers of Lorain County, Ohio, and was a soldier in the second war with England. Timothy R. Herrick, Governor Herrick's father, was born in Watertown, New York, in 1828.

Governor Herrick was educated in the district school at Huntington, the union schools at Wellington, Ohio, and later on attended college at Oberlin and at the Ohio Wesleyan University, at Delaware, Ohio. In 1899 the emeritus degree was conferred upon him by the Ohio Wesleyan University.

Governor Herrick came to Cleveland in the year 1875. He entered the law offices of J. F. & G. E. Herrick, and was admitted to the bar in 1878. Mr. Herrick was a successful lawyer, and latterly became well known as a business man and financier of ability. He is today recognized as one of the leading and most successful bankers in the country. He is at present the chairman of the executive council of the American Bankers' Association. In addition to his many financial interests, Governor Herrick is interested in various manufacturing, industrial and building enterprises in Cleveland, and the city has in many ways profited by the energy and public spirit which he has displayed.

Governor Herrick reorganized the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railway Company, and placed the property on a good business basis, and it now forms an important link in the Wabash system.

Governor Herrick's first vote was cast for President Rutherford B. Hayes, and he has ever since remained a Republican. He was a member of the Cleveland city council in 1885, and accepted a re-election at the close of his first term of office. He has always taken an active interest in political issues, local and national. He was a delegate to the national conventions of 1888, 1892, 1896 and 1904, and elector-at-large for Ohio in 1900. He is at present a member of the Republican National Committee and of its Advisory Committee. Under President McKinley he was offered the United States Treasurership, and later the United States Ambassadorship to Rome, but both of these were declined. He was also offered the Ambassadorship to Rome by President Roosevelt, but again declined. In 1893 he was a member of the Electoral College, and served as chairman of the preliminary session when McKinley was nominated for Governor of Ohio. He was appointed by Governor McKinley as a member of his military staff.

In 1886 he was elected secretary and treasurer of the Society for Savings, and in 1894, upon the death of the President, Samuel H. Mather, he succeeded him to the office of president, which he still occupies.

He became a candidate in 1903 for the office of governor of the state of Ohio, and received the marked honor of being selected as the unanimous choice of the nominating convention—the second instance of the kind in the history of the state, William McKinley being the other candidate for governor to receive this recognition—and he was elected governor of the state by a majority greater than that ever given a candidate for that office in Ohio.

The Governor.

THE OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR.

The Constitution of Ohio provides that "The supreme executive power of the state shall be vested in the Governor."

He is elected by the people for a term of two years. He must be an elector and not hold any other office under the authority of the State or the United States. In case of death, removal or other disability, the Lieutenant-Governor shall execute the office of Governor. The Governor must see that the laws are faithfully executed and may request of the executive officials reports of their respective departments.

At every session of the General Assembly he must report the condition of the state by message, recommending therein such legislation as may to him seem proper. He may convene the General Assembly upon extraordinary occasions. He may adjourn it in case of disagreement upon this subject between the two branches thereof.

The Governor is Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy and custodian of the Great Seal of the State.

He may grant reprieves, commutations and pardons.

Must approve or disapprove all bills of the General Assembly.

Such, briefly, are the constitutional provisions relating to the Chief Executive.

In addition to the powers conferred and duties imposed upon the Governor by the Constitution, are those which the General Assembly has seen fit to provide by statute, and it is through these that the greater portion of the actual duties of this office arise, as well as most of the appointive power of the Governor. As Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, it seems appropriate that he should appoint the Adjutant-General, and the twelve other members of his military staff

There are certain state offices not created by the Constitution whose chief incumbents are nominated by the Governor, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate appointed. Such are the Commissioner of Insurance, Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs, Commissioner of Labor Statistics, Inspector of Workshops and Factories, Chief Mine Inspector, State Fire Marshal, Chief Examiner of Stationary Engineers, State Pension Claim Agent, and Chief Engineer of Public Works.

Numerous commissions, such as the Canal Commission, Shiloh Battlefield Commission, and Fish and Game Commission, containing from two to seven members each, with terms varying from one to five years, have been created by law. Here vacancies are constantly occurring, which are filled by the Governor, and frequently he is called upon, when the General Assembly provides for some new commission, to appoint an entire board.

The Governor is ex-officio the President of the State Board of Charities, composed of six members, who are appointed for a term of three years. This Board exercises a general supervision of the public institutions, and is of valuable aid to the Governor in overseeing the numerous large state properties.,,There are thirteen benevolent, two penal and two corrective institutions in this state.,,Each of these is managed by a board of trustees composed of six members appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, for a term of five years.

Recurring to the duties of this office, we find the Governor, of necessity, a busy man. The actual duties of the office occupy much of his time, while the constant and pressing demands made by the general public leave him few spare moments.

He must examine and approve or veto all bills passed by the General Assembly, issue requisition papers, investigate applications for pardons, commutations and reprieves, certify under the Great Seal of the State as to the official character of numerous state and county officials; upon application commission notaries public and commissioners of deeds, and, with few exceptions, commission all elective officers, both civil and military. He must attend board meetings, counsel heads of departments, maintain a general supervision of all great state institutions, examine, approve and sign numerous state papers, hear and dispose of complaints against individuals and institutions, and keep a constant watch over the affairs of state. All of this entails the keeping of numerous records, the assorting and filing of many papers and constant attention to a large correspondence. To aid him in his work the Governor has a Private Secretary, three clerks and a messenger.

THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

WARREN G. HARDING,
Lieutenant Governor.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR WARREN G. HARDING.

Publisher of the "Star," Marion, Ohio.

But few men in Ohio public life have made the rapid stride in general favor and esteem that has marked the career of Hon. Warren G. Harding. One of the leading Republican editors of Ohio and a member of the Senate in the 74th and 75th General Assemblies of Ohio, he is already at the front in party thought and leadership and other honors await his beck and call. In his capacity as Lieutenant Governor of Ohio, Mr. Harding was presiding officer of the Senate of the 76th General Assembly and in all sessions of the last three legislatures he was among the men who dictated policies on questions of interest to the State and he was always consulted on matters of party action.

Lieutenant Governor Harding is a native of Morrow County, born at Corsica on the 2d of November, 1865, and secured his education at the old Ohio Central College at Iberia. In 1882 he taught school and afterwards began the study of the profession of law, but being enamored of the newspaper business, became a writer for the press. Warren G. Harding entered public life in the summer of 1899, when he was nominated senator from the Thirteenth District, composed of the counties of Logan, Union, Marion, Hardin, and was elected by a big majority. In 1901 Senator Harding broke the one term rule of the Thirteenth District that had been in vogue for half a century. His eloquence brought him the honor of presenting the name of Senator J. B. Foraker for a second election to the United States Senate.

At the Republican convention in June, 1903, in Columbus, Senator Harding was elected by acclamation for the office of Lieutenant Governor and his election followed in November of the same year.

His style of delivery is forcible, his arguments are convincing, his impromptu wit is unerring and his statistical knowledge and memory are wonderful.

He was married to Florence M. King, a highly educated and accomplished lady and a fitting helpmate to her distinguished husband.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

LEWIS CASS LAYLIN.

Lewis Cass Laylin, Secretary of State, was born in Norwalk, Huron County. His father, John Laylin, was a soldier in the war of 1812, and served under Colonel Lewis Cass.

He was graduated from the Norwalk high school in 1867, and in 1869 he was elected superintendent of the public schools of Bellevue, and was unanimously re-elected for five successive years.

He was admitted to the bar March 13, 1876, and in 1879 he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Huron county, and held that office seven years.

In 1887 he was elected Representative to the 68th General Assembly, and in 1889 he was re-elected and received the unanimous support of the Republican minority for the speakership of the House of the 69th General Assembly. In 1891 he was renominated by acclamation by the Republicans of Huron County, and was again re-elected. On January 4, 1892, he was chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives of the 70th General Assembly.

At the Republican state convention of 1900 he was nominated by acclamation as candidate for Secretary of State, and at the November election of that year he was elected to that office by a plurality of 69,311. He was unanimously renominated for a second term at the state convention of 1902, and at the election following he was re-elected by a plurality of 90,465. In 1904 he was renominated by acclamation for a third term, and his plurality at the election in November was 230,389, being the highest plurality ever given in Ohio for the head of the state ticket.

He has served as member and chairman of the Huron county Republican central and executive committees, and also as member of the Republican state central and executive committees.

He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, is a past master of Bellevue lodge, No. 273, F. and A. M., and a past eminent commander of Norwalk Commandery, No. 18.

On November 3, 1880, Mr. Laylin was married to Miss Frances L. Dewey, the youngest daughter of Hon. John Dewey, late of Norwalk. They have three sons, Clarence Dewey, Robert Weyburn and Lewis Fairchild.

The Secretary of State.

The Department of State is one of the most important divisions of the executive branch of the state government.

Under the Constitution of 1802, the Secretary of State was appointed by the General Assembly, and the duties of the office consisted mainly, to use the words of the old Constitution, in keeping a "register of all official acts and proceedings of the Governor."

The office, however, under the Constitution of 1851, was made elective, and elevated to the dignity of a department; and by virtue of that Constitution, and subsequent legislation thereunder, some of the most important executive and administrative functions of the state government are devolved upon this office.

The Secretary of State is made by law the custodian of the acts of the General Assembly, and under his supervision the same are printed and published, and by him all exemplifications of the same are required to be authenticated, and all commissions issued by the Governor to be countersigned.

In this office also, under general statutes, all incorporations are required to be created. Recent legislation, requiring domestic and foreign corporations to file annual reports and imposing a franchise tax based upon capital stock, which the Secretary of State is required to collect and pay into the state treasury, makes this department one of great consequence and importance to the state.

The Secretary of State, by virtue of his office, is a member and the Secretary of the State Sinking Fund Commissioners, President of the Board of Printing Commissioners, member of the Decennial Board of Apportionment for legislative purposes, member of the State Board of Appraisers and Assessors, and of the State Building Commission.

He is also, by virtue of his office, made State Supervisor of Elections, and State Supervisor and Inspector of Elections, and as such has the power of appointment and removal of the members of the boards of Deputy State Supervisors of Elections in the various counties; is required to collate and publish the election laws of the state; to determine the arrangement of the ballot, and prepare and furnish forms and instructions to the various county boards of elections; to receive and file certificates of nominations, or nomination papers for presidential electors and state officers; to hear and determine objections or other questions as to the validity of such papers; to decide upon the validity of all nomination papers of a county, district, sub-division of the district or circuit, when the county, district or circuit board, authorized to pass upon these papers, fails to decide; and a decision of the Secretary of State upon these questions is final.

THE AUDITOR OF STATE.

WALTER D. GUILBERT.

Walter D. Guilbert was born in Guernsey county, Ohio, of French-Irish ancestors, and was reared on a farm. His great-grandfather on the maternal side settled in Maryland about 1750 and played an active part in the Revolutionary War. He was wounded several times, and at the battle of Brandywine only escaped capture by the thoughtfulness of his comrades, who carried the wounded man to a swamp and securely hid him until the British had withdrawn. The father of Mr. Guilbert came to this country from France when a youth and settled in Guernsey county.

The subject of this sketch was educated in the public schools and at Wenona Academy, Illinois. He was twice elected Auditor of Noble county, Ohio, and proved himself a most capable official. In 1888 he became chief clerk in the Auditor of State's office, continuing in that position until 1896, when he succeeded to the important office of Auditor of State, having been nominated by the Republican party and elected in the fall of 1895. In his career as a public officer, Mr. Guilbert is a genial, patient and painstaking official, combining with these virtues an earnest intention to perform his duties in such a manner as to insure the best results for the people of Ohio. It is no flattery to say that his manner of transacting the business of his department has made him one of the most popular men who ever occupied a position in the state capital. He was renominated unanimously in 1899 and elected by an increased plurality for a second term. In 1903 Mr. Guilbert was unanimously chosen by his party and was elected by an increased majority for a third term on which he entered in January, 1904. Mr. Guilbert has been active in the affairs of his party, having served as chairman of his county committee for a number of years, and as a member of the state executive committee. He was a delegate to the national Republican convention in 1888 and also in 1904.

Mr. Guilbert was married February 5, 1868, to Miss Mary L. Jordan, of Noble county. They have a family of three children, two sons and one daughter. He is connected with a number of secret and social organizations, being a Mason, a Knight Templar, a member of the Mystic Shrine, of the I. O. O. F., of the K. of P., and I. O. R. M.

The Auditor of State.

DUTIES OF THE AUDITOR.

The Auditor of State is elected every four years, and is the chief accounting officer of the State. No money can be paid into or out of the State Treasury except upon his warrant. He is custodian of all field notes, maps, records, documents, papers and implements of every description relating to or used in the survey of the public lands within the State, and is required by law to keep a record of deeds executed by the Governor. He is required to prepare all forms and instructions for county officers, and county officials are required, by law, to use such blanks and obey such instructions. He is required to audit all requisitions, vouchers and claims against the State, and pass upon the validity and correctness of the same before issuing his warrant on the State Treasury for payment. He is required to direct suit to be brought against delinquent revenue officials, and look after and see to the collection of all claims in favor of the State. He may remit illegal taxes or penalties and direct that tax duplicates be corrected.

The work in the office has been greatly increased since the present auditor went into office as chief clerk in 1888 by reason of the determination to add to the revenues of the State by traffic and excise taxes, which should meet the growing needs of the State government, and forever prevent an increase in the common burden of taxation upon private individuals and small property holders. The work of putting various revenue acts in operation fell upon this department as follows:

In 1889 the liquor traffic tax act giving the state a portion of the tax was passed and put in operation. In 1896 this act was amended increasing the tax, which now yields as the state's portion over one million dollars annually.

In 1893 what is known as the Nichols law, taxing express, telegraph and telephone companies, was passed and put in operation, which yields to the state and counties annually more than $30,000.00.

In 1894 an act levying an excise tax on gross receipts of express companies, was passed, and put in operation, which brings into the State Treasury about $12,000 annually. In 1902 this law was repealed and express companies included in the excise law of 1902.

In 1894 an act taxing sleeping-car companies was passed and put in operation, which brings into the State Treasury $5,500 annually.

In 1896 a law was passed taxing freight line companies, which brings into the state $8,000 annually.

In 1896 an act levying an excise tax on the gross receipts of all public corporations (electric light, gas, natural gas, pipe line, water works, street railroads, railroads and messenger or signal companies). In 1902 this law was amended so as to include suburban or interurban railroad, telegraph, telephone, express and union depot companies, and the tax increased to one percent on the gross receipts, which yielded last year for state purposes the sum of $1,432,000. In 1904 this law was amended to include water transportation companies and heating or cooling companies.

In 1902 an act was passed creating a Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Offices, of which the Auditor of State is Chief Inspector and Supervisor.

In 1904 an act was passed, known as the "Direct Inheritance Tax Law," providing for a tax of two percent on legacies in excess of three thousand dollars. It is made the duty of the Auditor of State to collect this tax.

COMPTROLLERS OF THE TREASURY.

THE office of Comptroller of the Treasury was established in 1859, as an intermediate check between the Auditor of State and the State Treasury. Warrants issued by the Auditor were not payable at the Treasury until countersigned by the Comptroller or his proper representative, whose books were practically duplicates of the books kept in the office of the Auditor and Treasurer. The office was abolished in 1877, General Wilson being then in charge. The following list gives the names and terms of service of the several incumbents:

W. B. Thrall, 1859-1862; Joseph H. Riley, 1862-1865; Moses R. Brailey, 1865-1871; William T. Wilson, 1871-1877.

Office abolished in 1877.

WADE H. ELLIS.

Wade H. Ellis was born in Covington, Kentucky, both his paternal and maternal ancestors coming from Virginia; his father's grandfather, William Ellis, from Fauquier County and his mother's father, Christopher Blackburn, from Caroline County. Christopher Blackburn's maternal grandfather was Captain James McPike, who served under Col. Howard and Gen. Little and later under the command of Gen. Lafayette in the revolutionary war.

Mr. Ellis attended the public schools of Covington, Hughes high school and Chickering Institute in Cincinnati, and later graduated from Washington and Lee University at Lexington, Va. Here he studied law, receiving the debater's medal, the law scholarship and the honors of his class. He began the practice of law in Cincinnati, but in 1894 discontinued for a time his professional work to become the managing editor of the Cincinnati Tribune, an independent Republican newspaper. In 1896 the Tribune being consolidated with the Commercial Tribune, Mr. Ellis was made managing editor of the new paper, and continued in that capacity throughout the memorable campaign of 1896, and until July, 1897, when he resigned to return to the practice of law, having been appointed First Assistant Corporation Counsel of the city of Cincinnati. In this latter capacity he served nearly six years, with two administrations, resigning January 1, 1903, to resume private practice.

When Governor Nash called the extraordinary session of the 75th General Assembly in the summer of 1902, to pass a uniform municipal code, made necessary by the sweeping decisions of the Supreme Court of Ohio against special legislation, he invited Mr. Ellis to draft the law, which was presented to the legislature and subsequently passed October 22, 1902. Later, Mr. Ellis published the "Annotated Edition of the Ohio Municipal Code." On June 17, 1903, he was unanimously nominated by the Republican state convention for Attorney General, and elected in November of that year by the overwhelming majority which the whole ticket received.

In 1894 Mr. Ellis was married to Miss Dessie Corwin Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Chase, of Cincinnati.

THE OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL.

THE 76th General Assembly passed an act making many and important changes in the organization, powers and duties of the Attorney General's Department, greatly increasing its usefulness and influence. The Attorney General, by this act, is now made the chief law officer of the state and no state officer or the head of any department is authorized to employ any other counsel. The Attorney General is empowered to appoint a First Assistant, who may act in his place during his absence, a Second Assistant, a Chief Clerk, (in addition to the stenographer, and messenger in the office) and such special counsel in State cases as he may deem necessary for the conduct of the legal business of the State.

The work of the Attorney General's office has greatly increased since the first Attorney General, Henry Stanbery, was chosen in 1846, until it is now one of the busiest and most important departments of the State. Besides representing the State in all cases before the Supreme Court, where the docket shows a rapidly increasing number of such cases, as well as before the Circuit and Common Pleas Courts throughout the State, the Attorney General is the legal adviser of all the State officers, departments and institutions. In addition to this he is a member of numerous state boards established at various times by the General Assembly which require continuous attention. Among these boards are the following: 1, State Board of Appraisers and Assessors for Express, Telegraph and Telephone Companies; 2, State Board of Appraisers for Sleeping Car Companies; 3, State Board of Appraisers for Freight Line Companies; 4, State Board of Appraisers and Assessors for Electric Light, Gas, etc.; 5, State Board of Appraisers and Assessors for Appointing Boards of Review; 6, Board of Equalization for Railroads; 7, Annual State Board of Equalization for Banks; 8, State Board of Tax Remission; 9, Sinking Fund; 10, Emergency Board; 11, Printing Commission; 12, Paper Commission; 13, Fee Commission; 14, Board of University Lands; 15, Board to Appoint Agents to Prosecute Claims vs. U. S. Government; 16. Board of Appeals under the Willis Law.

THE STATE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS.

THE State of Ohio, in 1827, opened for public use a system of canals which connected the waters of Lake Erie on the north, with those of the Ohio River on the South, by two inland waterways which traversed the State in its eastern and western divisions. The eastern system was generally known as the "Ohio" canal, and extended from the Cuyahoga River at Cleveland to the Ohio River at Portsmouth, tapping in its route directly or by branches, the valleys of the Cuyahoga, Tuscarawas, Muskingum, Licking, Hocking, and Scioto Rivers, and forming waterways between the cities of central and eastern Ohio. This canal system necessitated the building of 308 miles of public works, over a route which varied in height above the lake level from 395 feet at Akron locks, only 35 miles from Cleveland, to 317 feet at Licking Summit, and falling 96 feet below the level of the lake as the canal enters Portsmouth, 308 miles to the south.

The western system known as the "Miami and Erie" canal, is 245 miles long, extending from Toledo to Cincinnati, and piercing the western tier of counties.

The act to provide for navigable canals was passed by the Twenty-third General Assembly, February 4, 1825. Work was begun in the same year, and was continued until the reservoirs were completed in 1842. The following figures are of interest.

LAND GRANTS MADE BY CONGRESS TO AID IN THE CONSTRUCTION OF CANALS IN THE STATE OF OHIO.

1st. Date of Grant, March 2, 1827. Object—To aid in opening canal to unite at navigable points the Wabash River with Lake Erie (so far as the same is in the State of Ohio.) Grantee—State of Indiana, thence to State of Ohio, by joint resolution of State of Indiana approved February 1, 1834. Number of acres—292,223.51.

2d. Date of grant, May 24, 1828. Object—To aid in extending Miami Canal from Dayton to Maumee River. Extent—Quantity equal to one-half of five sections in width on each side of said canal. Grantee—State of Ohio. Acres—438,301.32.

MIAMI AND ERIE CANAL.

The distance from the Ohio River to the Loramie Summit is 100 miles, and the lift 512 feet. There were formerly 53 locks south of the Summit, but in 1863 ten were cut off at Cincinnati. From the north end of Loramie Summit to level of Lake Erie the distance is 123 miles, the number of locks 52, and fall 395 feet. Cost of construction, $5,920,200.41.

The distance from Lewistown Reservoir to State Dam across great Miami River at Port Jefferson is $23\frac{3}{4}$ miles. Between this point and Lockington, the Sidney Feeder, $13\frac{1}{4}$ miles in length, was constructed at a cost of \$392,258.32.

The St. Mary's Feeder and Loramie Feeder are $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles, 3,361 feet in length respectively.

The total cost of construction of the Miami and Erie Canal system was $8,062,680.80.

OHIO AND ERIE CANAL.

The north end of Portage Summit is 35 miles from lake level in Cuyahoga River and has 42 locks.

The Summit level is 9 miles long, 395 feet above Lake Erie, 491 feet above Ohio River at Portsmouth, and 968 feet above the Atlantic Ocean.

Distance from south end of Summit to Dresden side-cut 102 miles, number of locks, 29; fall, 238 feet; from Dresden Junction to mouth of Muskingum River at Marietta, 91 miles, fall, 154 feet; from Dresden Junction to Licking Summit 31 miles, locks 19, rise 160 feet; from south end of Licking Summit to Ohio River at Portsmouth 116 miles, locks, 53, fall, 413 feet. Cost of construction, $4,695,203.69.

The Walhonding Canal extends from Rochester to Roscoe, distance 25 miles, locks 12. Cost, $607,268.99.

SIZE OF CANALS.

The Ohio, Hocking, Walhonding, and Miami and Erie Canal from Cincinnati to Dayton, were constructed 40 feet in width on top water line, bottom 26 feet, depth 4 feet; Miami and Erie Canal from Dayton to Junction 50 feet top, 26 feet bottom, depth 5 feet; Junction to Toledo 60 feet top water line, 46 feet bottom, depth 6 feet.

The size of locks is 90 feet in length of chambers, with 15 feet clear width between walls, as originally built.

COST OF CONSTRUCTION.

The entire cost of construction of the canals, including reservoirs and feeders, was $14,340,572.59, besides material aid from private individuals and corporations in donations of land, right of way, and moneys. The estate has received by sale of the lands granted by the general government for canal purposes, $2,257,487.32. The expenditures for the maintenance of the Ohio canals in repairs and cost of collections up to July 1, 1904, has amounted to $12,066,686.13. The receipts from actual earnings for the same time have amounted to $18,003,352.34, leaving a net credit to the canal of receipts over expenditures for maintenance account of $5,936,666.21.

The Public Works at present comprises 581 82-100 miles of navigable canals, about 30,000 acres of reservoir area, besides their feeders, and the navigable rivers of the state.

ABANDONMENT.

In 1894 the General Assembly ordered the abandonment of that part of the eastern system which was known as the Hocking Canal, 56 miles, and in 1896, 19 miles of the "Walhonding" Canal.

LEASE OF THE PUBLIC WORKS.

On the second day of June, 1861, the Public Works of Ohio were leased by the act of the Legislature, passed May 9, 1861, for twenty thousand and seventy-five dollars ($20,075.00) per annum. Said lease continued in force until December 1, 1877, at which time the lessees abandoned the Public Works and by appointment of the Superior Court of Montgomery County they were placed in the hands of a receiver until May 15, 1878, at which time the State Board again took possession of the Public Works of Ohio.

The State Board of Public Works.

The expenditures by the Board of Public Works for superintendence and repairs ceased with the transfer of the canals to the lessees. All expenditures during that time were for the settlement of prior claims, awards of damages, expenses of the office of the Board, expenses incurred in the appraisal of personal property sold to the lessees, and the payment of outstanding indebtedness provided for by the act "making appropriations for the maintenance of the Public Works," passed May 13, 1861.

Under the law authorizing the lease of the Public Works of the State, C. S. Hamilton was appointed by the Governor, Paul Weatherby by the Board of Public Works, and John J. Isham by the lessees, to appraise the personal property of the State, which the lessees were required by said act to purchase. The value of the property appraised by them and transferred to the lessees amountd to fourteen thousand one hundred and seventy-three and 64-100 dollars ($14,173.64.)

THE COMMISSIONER OF COMMON SCHOOLS.

EDMUND A. JONES.

Hon. Edmund A. Jones, State Commissioner of Common Schools, is a typical New Englander. He was born at Rockville, Mass., February 11, 1842. His ancestors were natives of the same state, his great-grandfather having been born at Medway, Mass., about the middle of the eighteenth century. His father and grandfather were both teachers in their native state of Massachusetts, the former reaching the age of eighty-four years at the time of his death in 1899.

Mr. Jones received his early education in the common schools, and, after further preparation for college at Mt. Hollis Academy, in 1860 entered Amherst College. After completing his sophomore year in that institution, he offered his services in defense of his country, and was assigned to Company B, Forty-second Massachusetts Regiment of Infantry. His regiment was sent at once to join Gen. Banks' command at New Orleans. In the first battle in which he was engaged, at Bayou La Fourche, in June, 1863, he was seriously wounded. In the following month, after his colonel had recommended him for promotion because of meritorious service, he was honorably discharged. In the fall of the same year, 1863, he re-entered Amherst College, from which institution he received the degree of A. B. in 1865, and the degree of Master of Arts in 1868. Both before and after his military service, he was president of his class in college, having this honor at the time of his graduation.

Mr. Jones' career as a teacher began in Illinois in 1865, where he taught in an academy, to the principalship of which he had been promoted before leaving for Ohio in 1869.

In October, 1869, he accepted the superintendency of the city schools at Massillon, which position he occupied for four years. He then assumed control of the schools at Marietta for a period of two years. His work at Massillon had been so satisfactory to the people of that city that they induced him to return. Faithfully and efficiently for the last twenty-nine years has he served that city, whose people were only willing to release him to accept the honors of the office to which he has been elected by the people of the state. For when the city of Cleveland, in 1889, offered him increased salary to come to that city, Massillon promptly met the offer and retained him in the position he had filled so long and so acceptably to the patrons of her schools.

Mr. Jones enters upon the duties of the office with the confidence and respect of the entire teaching force of the state. His experience as an institute instructor throughout the state, and his excellent service as a member of the state board of school examiners, has given him a large acquaintance, and has won him hosts of friends, all of whom unite in wishing him the highest measure of success in his administration of the educational affairs of the state.

The Commissioner of Common Schools.

OHIO'S EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM.

The educational system of Ohio has, from its inception, been strictly democratic in its nature, the management and support of the schools being left almost entirely in the hands of the residents of the various school districts.

The state is divided into districts, classified as city school districts, village school districts, special school districts and township school districts. The schools are governed by boards of education, selected by the electors of the various districts. In 1894 the electoral franchise for the election of school officers was conferred upon women and this law still continues in force. The number of members in boards of education in city school districts is now fixed at not less than two nor more than seven elected at large, and in cities in which the population reaches 50,000 or more, not less than two nor more than thirty elected from sub-districts, and in village, special and township school districts the boards consist of five members elected at large. Prior to 1892 the sub-district schools were in reality governed by a board of sub-directors consisting of three members, one of whom was elected as member of the township board, but in that year the board of sub-directors was abolished and the entire authority conferred upon the township board. This did not give entire satisfaction, consequently, in 1898, the board of sub-directors was re-established, but with the power of recommendation only, final action by the township board being necessary. In 1904, by the passage of the Harrison school code, the present system was brought into operation.

The school funds are derived from the income from school lands set apart by the National and State governments for educational purposes and by state and local taxes, the state contributing about one-eighth of the total amount.

The state commissioner of common schools has supervision of the school funds to the extent of appointing examiners in cases where misapplication or fraud in the management of the same make it necessary.

The following statistics from the annual report of the state commissioner for the year ending August 31, 1903, will give some idea of the magnitude of the educational work being accomplished in this state at the present time.

The expenditures of the public schools for the year 1854 were from the State School Fund $1,113,089.02; from the School and Trust Funds $112,463.65; from the School District Library Fund $55,904.45; from Local Levies $980,000.00—in all $2,266,457.12. For the year ending August 31, 1903, the expenditures of the public schools aggregated $16,740,004.09. In 1854 the enumeration of youth of school age aggregated 816,408; for 1903 it reached 1,243,791. The number of school houses in 1854 was reported as about 10,300, estimated as worth $3,704,720.90; while the present number is 13,115, worth $50,006,648.00. In 1854 there were reported 57 high schools employing 71 male and 63 female teachers, there being 57,649 pupils enrolled. In 1903 there were 845 recognized high schools with 1,479 male and 773 female teachers, there being 57,649 pupils enrolled.

In addition to the enrollment in the public schools it is estimated that 50,000 pupils are being educated in parochial and private schools. There are 36 colleges and universities with 1,200 instructors and 8,148 students. This does not include professional schools, normal academies, et cetera, of which the state has its full proportion.

STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

There have been a number of changes in the law relating to the state board of school examiners. When first enacted in 1864 the board consisted of three members who were appointed by the state commissioner. Since 1883 the number has been fixed at five. The term is five years and ends on August 31. The following have served on the board since its creation: Marcellus F. Cowdery, Thomas W. Harvey, Eli T. Tappan, Israel W. Andrews, William Mitchell, Theodore Sterling, John Hancock, Thomas C. Mendenhall, Andrew J. Rickoff, Alston Ellis, Henry B. Furness, John B. Peaslee, William W. Ross, Charles R. Shreve, Charles L. Loos, A. B. Johnson, Henry M. Parker, William G. Williams, Elmer S. Cox, Charles C. Davidson, Marcellus Manley, Charles E. McVay, Thomas A. Pollock, E. E. White, W. J. White, E. A. Jones, R. W. Stevenson, Edward T. Nelson, James W. Knott, J. C. Hartzler, L. D. Bonebrake, J. P. Sharkey, Charles Hauptert, C. W. Bennett, J. D. Simkins, W. W. Boyd, W. H. Meck, M. E. Hard, W. H. Mitchell, C. C. Miller and Arthur Powell. The last five named are the present members of the board.

SCHOOL-BOOK LAWS.

The first law relating to the use of text books in the schools of Ohio was passed April 22, 1885. It required boards of education to adopt text books and prohibited any change in the same within five years, except by a three-fourths vote. A provision was also made authorizing boards to provide free text books.

On the 28th day of April, 1890, an amendment to this law was passed providing for a school book board, composed of the Governor, State Commissioner of Common Schools, Supervisor of Public Printing, and two persons to be appointed by the Governor. This board was authorized to pass upon all books used in the schools and to fix a price upon the same not to exceed eighty per cent. of the publisher's wholesale list price, and in case no satisfactory books could be secured the board was authorized to receive bids from publishers and authors for furnishing text books, and report the result of the same to the next session of the General Assembly for action thereon.

On May 4, 1891, the last-mentioned law was repealed, and a new law enacted changing the membership of the "State School Book Board" to the Governor and Secretary of State with the State Commissioner of Common Schools as secretary. The principal provisions of the former law were retained, with further provisions in regard to publication of text books by the state and a reduction in the maximum price to seventy-five per cent. of the wholesale list price. The law now in force was passed April 22, 1896, making the State Commissioner of Common Schools a member of the State School Book Commission together with the Governor and Secretary of State. The main provisions of the former law were retained, the method of enforcing the law and carrying the same into effect being simplified.

Under this law the schools of Ohio are provided with good text books at a reasonable price and boards of education have the power of providing free text books if they so desire.

THE DAIRY AND FOOD COMMISSIONER.

HORACE B. ANKENY.

Horace Ankeney, ~~successor~~ successor to Honorable J. E. Blackburn as Dairy and Food Commissioner, like his predecessor, was born in a log house. The date was February 11, 1850; the place, Beaver Creek Township, Greene County, Ohio.

After completing the common schools, his father, a believer in higher education, sent him to Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, where, in 1872, he took his A.B. degree with honor and later received the degree of A.M. in course.

A lover of country life, he went back from college to the farm and has given the best energy of his life towards the uplifting and benefiting of his own immediate community.

First teaching a couple of years the higher branches in the graded school near by, he afterwards became a member of the Township Board and served in that capacity for twenty years. Township supervision and the Township High School soon followed his entrance to the board and Beaver Creek Township, although a purely country district, furnishes now each year from six to twelve pupils as matriculates to some college or university. Sharing an interest also in higher education as well as common schools, he served as Trustee of Heidelberg University, from 1885 to 1900, and of Miami University (Oxford, Ohio), from 1887 to 1900, being compelled to resign the latter upon taking his seat as a member of the 74th General Assembly.

After serving in the 74th and 75th General Assemblies, his friends encouraged him and led the way for his candidacy and election to the position which he now holds, being nominated at the Republican convention in Cleveland, in June, 1902, and elected the November following.

Though a practical farmer, he shared some of his time with bank directors and stockholders of manufacturing interests. In 1883 he consented to become a candidate for Infirmity Director, to which office he was elected, and served a couple of terms. Noting the lack of uniformity in the administration of the poor laws, he set to work to have the matter remedied, and falling through a special act of the legislature, privately published the first collation and annotation of these laws, but was permitted later to see a similar work done by the State Board of Charities under a special act of the legislature.

A believer and encourager in good citizenship, he has always faithfully supported the church to which he belongs, viz.: the Reformed Church in the United States and their institutions, serving continuously since 1887 as Trustee and Treasurer of her Theological Seminary (Heidelberg) located at Tiffin, Ohio.

THE ADJUTANT-GENERAL.

A. B. CRITCHFIELD.

THE department of the Adjutant-General is, as its name implies, the headquarters of the National Guard of Ohio, of which the Governor is Commander-in-Chief. Under the law, the Adjutant-General is appointed by the Governor for a term of two years, with the grade of Brigadier-General, and upon him also devolve the duties of Quartermaster General. He has two assistants, each with the rank of Colonel—the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General. To the Assistant Adjutant-General is assigned the supervision of all affairs of the department pertaining to organization, inspection, discipline, and all similar work pertaining to the Adjutant-General's department proper. The Assistant Quartermaster-General has charge of all ordnance and quartermaster's stores and of the military property of the state, and supervises the affairs of the department pertaining to property, transportation, and annual returns to the War Department. Both assistants operate under the immediate direction of the Adjutant-General who is in control of the military department of the state.

The Adjutant-General is also Superintendent of the State Capitol buildings and grounds.

THE STATE INSURANCE DEPARTMENT.

ARTHUR I. VORYS.

THE State Insurance Department was established by the Act of March 12, 1872. Prior to that time, insurance companies were regulated by the Department of the State Auditor, under the Act of April 15, 1867. The Bureau of Building and Loan Companies was added to the department May 1, 1891, and subsequently Bond Investment companies. All insurance companies, operating in Ohio, are required to annually submit statements, reporting their financial condition on December 31, and other information required by law and the regulations of the department. No insurance company and no agent of non-Ohio companies is permitted to transact business, unless duly licensed by the department. Licenses expire annually, and, if compliance with the law is shown, the licenses are usually renewed.

As a comparative statement of general interest, the following figures disclose the extent of the business transacted in Ohio and supervised the first year of the department, 1872, and the last year, 1903, viz.:

In 1872—Sixty-seven life insurance companies and associations wrote in Ohio risks aggregating $30,187,044.00, receiving premiums of $4,493,- 260.70, and paid losses of $1,481,538.87. One hundred and thirty-eight insurance companies and associations other than life wrote risks aggregating $378,690,031.37, receiving premiums of $4,530,743.75, paying in losses, $1,609,295.81.

In 1903—Sixty-eight life insurance companies and associations (other than fraternal) wrote risks in Ohio aggregating $149,090,197.00, receiving premiums aggregating $22,678,673.40, paying losses of $8,300,118.13. Sixty-seven fraternal beneficiary associations wrote risks aggregating $51,758,519.00, and paid losses amounting to $2,828,466.37. Three hundred and thirteen insurance companies other than life wrote risks aggregating $1,067,777,885.18, receiving premiums aggregating $14,541,704.31, and paying losses of $7,594,057.10.

In 1873 the receipts of the department were fees aggregating $26,246.71, and the expenses, including salaries, were $9,440.93. While in 1903 the fees paid amounted to $71,581.55, taxes $721,174.90, fire marshal tax, $46,967.44; total received by the department, $839,723.89. The total expenses of the department were $33,468.94, including printing, binding, stationery and supplies procured through the Supervisor of Public Printing and the Secretary of State, and not including disbursements in the Bureau of Building and Loan Associations.

The following persons have served as Superintendents of Insurance, appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, at and during the times indicated:

This bureau originated with those who were connected with building associations and who most thoroughly appreciated the necessity of state supervision.

The work of the bureau is largely that of auditing the annual reports of the associations, pointing out to such associations such practices as may contravene the law and requiring their abandonment; furnishing legal and other advice to such associations; examining such associations as may seem to need it and as the resources of the office admit.

If any association fails to abandon any illegal practice within thirty days after being so notified by the Inspector, or if any association is found to be in an unsound condition and the interests of the public demand its dissolution, such facts are communicated to the Attorney-General, whose duty it is to institute the proper proceedings to revoke the charter of such association and wind up its business.

The building association interests of Ohio now amount to more than a hundred million dollars.

The Deputy Inspector, by virtue of an act passed in April, 1898, is also Supervisor of bond investment companies.

MARK SLATER.

Mark Slater, Supervisor of Public Printing, was born at Dayton, Ohio, August 9, 1864, where he resided until his appointment by Governor Nash, May 1, 1901. His father, Calvin T. Slater, was an Englishman, and his mother, nee Angeline Emiot, was of French extraction, born and raised in Canada. All of his adult life, Mr. Slater has been a devotee of the art preservative, his first employment being in the United Brethren Publishing House, in Dayton, where he was engaged 15 years. He afterward had in charge the printing for the National Cash Register Company at Dayton, then embarking in business on his own account, in a job printing office, where he was engaged at the time of his appointment. He is a member of the Typographical Union No. 57.

Mr. Slater is a true blue Republican and has been an active factor in party management in Dayton and Montgomery County ever since reaching his majority. He was a member of the Republican Committee in his county four years, and has belonged to the Garfield Club of Dayton ever since its inception. He served as Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee for two years and now represents the Third District on that committee.

On February 25, 1892, he married Miss Lottie Aveyard, and two daughters have been the result of that union—Gladys, aged eight years, and Charlotte, aged three. Mr. Slater is a first-class official and a popular gentleman. He unites all the elements of political success.

THE SUPERVISOR OF PUBLIC PRINTING.

THE Department of Public Printing consists of a board of Commissioners of Public Printing which is composed of the Auditor of State, the Secretary of State, and the Attorney-General, and a supervisory department, which is managed by an officer called the Supervisor of Public Printing, who is appointed by the Governor for a term of two years.

In the early history of the state, the Public Printer was elected by the General Assembly, generally on the recommendation of the Committee on Public Printing, which was charged with the duty of canvassing for bids and recommending as its candidate the party presenting the most favorable terms or most favorable conditions for the execution of the work.

The office of Supervisor of Public Printing was created by the General Assembly in the year 1860, the appointing power being vested in the Commissioners of Printing, who appointed L. L. Rice to the office. In the year 1864, the law was so changed as to vest the appointment of the Supervisor in the Governor, who appointed W. O. Blake as such officer.

STATE BINDERY.

The State Bindery was organized in the year 1867 by the Supervisor of Public Printing and the Trustees and Superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, for the benefit of the unfortunate deaf mutes of that Institution.

The Supervisor is charged with the superintendence of the State Bindery, which is located on the grounds of, and largely operated by pupils of, the Institution for Deaf Mutes, in Columbus. He is also given executive authority in the oversight of the printing done under the several state contracts, and must see that the work is properly done and promptly delivered. He must keep a record of all the work done by the two branches of state printing and state binding, and submit an annual report to the Governor covering the business done by these departments.

STATE PRINTING.

The contracts for state printing are let by commissioners every two years by competitive bids, which are duly advertised. There are seven classes of printing, which are defined as follows:

First Contract—All bills for the General Assembly and such resolutions and other matters as it may order printed in bill form.

Second Contract—Journals of the Senate and House of Representatives.

The Supervisor of Public Printing.

Third Contract—All reports, communications, etc., printed in pamphlet form, except bulletins of the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

Fourth Contract—General and Local laws and Joint Resolutions.

Fifth Contract—All blanks, circulars, etc., for the executive departments not printed in pamphlet form.

Sixth Contract—Reports of the Secretary of State, Inspector of Building and Loan Associations and Commissioner of Labor Statistics.

Seventh—Reports of the auditor of State, Commissioner of Common Schools, Superintendent of Insurance (Life and Fire) and State Board of Agriculture.

The state binding is done by day labor, chiefly, as has been stated, by the pupils or ex-pupils of the Institution for Deaf Mutes.

The number of persons so employed during the year is about forty.

THE COMMISSIONER OF RAILROADS AND TELEGRAPHS.

J. C. MORRIS.

Mr. J. C. Morris, Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs, was born in Youngstown, Ohio, August 18, 1857, and was educated in the public schools of that city. But while yet a boy he secured employment in a local grocery store and continued in that employment until his nineteenth year, when he began railroading. He continued in this vocation until he was appointed Chief Inspector in the office of the State Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs, faithfully performing the duties of this appointment until the 16th day of March, 1901, at which time he was appointed Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs.

During all this long period of railway service—26 years in all—he was in the employ of the Erie Railway Company, a fact that speaks well for the character of the service he rendered.

He is a married man, having been married to Miss Emma Morris of Youngstown, Ohio, on April 24, 1878. They have four children, all boys. Mr. Morris is a Mason, a K. of P., and a member of the Order of Railway Conductors.

The Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs.

THE DEPARTMENT OF RAILROADS AND TELEGRAPHS.

The Department of the Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs was created by an act of the Fifty-seventh General Assembly passed April 5, 1867, which required the appointment of the officer within fifteen days after the passage of the act, and prescribed his duties. He has a general police authority over roads operating in Ohio, and is required to give careful attention to the construction, operation and maintenance of the roads and their equipment so far as these matters relate to the safety and general welfare of the public. The following extract from the last report of the Commissioner, is a tribute to the friendly readiness of the railroad companies to safeguard the public, as well as an indication of the watchfulness of the department:

The railroads of Ohio have never been in a better physical condition than at the close of the present year. One hundred and twenty-six trestles, having an aggregate length of sixty-seven thousand, nine hundred and thirty-four feet or twelve and eighty-seven-hundredths miles, have been filled and abolished. Large sums of money have been spent in betterments, the road bed materially improved, light rails replaced by rails of greater weight and modern steel bridges taking the place of wooden structures. It is unnecessary to suggest that this will greatly increase the safety of the traveling public.

Eight thousand, eight hundred and seventy-one more people were employed by the railroads of Ohio during the year last passed than during the previous year. In the year 1902 the railroads gave employment to seventy-five thousand, one hundred and twenty persons.

Wonderful activity has been manifest during the year in the matter of construction of electric railroads and a large amount of capital is now invested in such enterprises. In so far as I have been able to observe, roads of this kind have been well constructed. At the present time electric railroads are not required to report to any Department of the State, except a report of gross earnings to the Auditor of State, and I would recommend appropriate legislation requiring such roads to make an annual report of their operations and financial condition and to authorize a police supervision over them for the protection of life and property.

From a financial standpoint the railroads of Ohio have enjoyed a year of unprecedented prosperity. The gross earnings from operations within the state are, for the first time, in excess of one hundred million ($100,000,000.00) of dollars. The net receipts were in excess of thirteen millions, five hundred thousand ($13,500,000.00) dollars, insuring to the stockholders a reasonable return for the capital invested.

The Commissioner of Railroads and Telegraphs.

There are a total of one hundred and seventy-four interlocking machines now in operation in Ohio for the purpose of protecting crossings, at grade, of steam railroads. Of this number, twenty have been installed during the year and the general condition of those previously put in operation has been much improved by rearrangement and reconstruction.

THE BUREAU OF LABOR STATISTICS.

MICHAEL D. RATCHFORD.

Commissioner of Labor Statistics Michael D. Ratchford, the subject of this sketch, was born in Clare, Ireland, in 1860. Migrating with his parents to Stark County, Ohio, some ten years later, he attended the public schools there until he reached his twelfth year, at which age he entered the mines where he labored for more than twenty consecutive years. His education, however, was principally acquired by attending evening school, and by careful home study during the earlier years of his occupation in mining.

Mr. Ratchford, although mainly conservative in his views upon the labor question, was an active trade unionist, and as such he realized the growing needs of a thorough organization of mine workers, and labored unceasingly to that end. He was elected to and served in the office of President of the Massillon, Ohio, miners, 1890-92; General Organizer, 1893-94; President Ohio Miners, 1895-96; President of the United Mine Workers of America, 1897-98. It was while serving in the chief executive office that he established and put into practice a working-day of eight hours; instituted mutual relations and an annual wage contract between mine workers and operators through which strikes have since been averted; and made uniform the conditions of mining throughout the bituminous coal fields.

He was appointed by President McKinley September 7, 1898, as member of the National Industrial Commission created by Congress, where he served for nearly two years, resigning the same to accept the office of Commissioner of Labor Statistics of Ohio, to which he was appointed by Governor George K. Nash, April 25, 1900, and reappointed April 25, 1902.

Mr. Ratchford is unwavering in his devotion to the Republican party, and as such has ably discussed the issues for which his party stands in many states of the Union during national and state campaigns.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The Commissioner of Labor Statistics is appointed by the Governor by and with the advice and consent of the Senate for a term of two years. The Chief Clerk and office force of the Bureau are appointed by the Commissioner with the consent of the Governor. The superintendents and clerks of the five Free Public Employment Offices—Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Dayton and Toledo, which are under the direction and supervision of the Bureau, are also appointed by the Commissioner in the same manner for a term of two years.

The Bureau, under the law—Sec. 308 of the Revised Statutes—collects, arranges and systematizes all statistics relating to the various branches of labor in the state, and especially those relating to the commercial, industrial, social, educational and sanitary conditions of the laboring classes.

THE INSPECTOR OF MINES.

GEORGE HARRISON.

George Harrison, Chief Inspector of Mines, was born in Greenhead, Northumberland County, England, April 30, 1846; and went to work in the mines at the age of eight years and passed through all the stages of labor connected with mines from trapper boy up to superintendent and manager. Was a trade unionist from boyhood, and having removed to Durham County in 1863, was an active worker in the establishment and maintenance of the Durham Mines Union, and for many years was one of its representatives and a member of its Executive Board in the seventies. Came to America in 1880, and located in Bylesville, Guernsey County, Ohio, and has resided in the state ever since. During these years he was connected with the practical mine workers and since 1887, has had charge of the management of mines located in Guernsey, Portage, Mahoning, Jefferson, Jackson and Perry Counties. He was President of the Miners' Union in the Cambridge District for a number of years and a State Organizer and Secretary of the Miners' State Executive Board, and was one of the fearless advocates of conciliation and arbitration in the councils of the miners in the eighties, when the National Federation first assumed great powers. He has always been an active worker in mining matters, and his admonitions were always listened to by that organization which is so powerful in the coal-producing districts of the United States.

From April, 1895, to August, 1903, he was in charge of mining properties in Jackson County, owned by the Wainwright Coal Company, and is still a resident of Wellston of that county. From July, 1903, up to the time he was appointed Chief Inspector of Mines, by Governor Myron T. Herrick, on May 25, 1904, he was associated with W. A. Gosline & Co., of Toledo, Ohio, opening up mining property in Perry County.

The Inspector of Mines.

A REVIEW OF THE OHIO STATE MINING DEPARTMENT.

In the year 1871, owing to a catastrophe occurring in the Avondale Mine, located in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania, in which one hundred and nine persons lost their lives for the want of a second opening, the miners of this state held meetings and signed petitions requesting that laws be enacted to regulate and ventilate mines, and that an authorized official supervisor be appointed. These petitions were presented to the Senate by Senator Woodworth, of Mahoning county, and were referred to a select committee of seven senators from the mining regions of the state. This committee authorized Senator Daugherty to prepare a bill on the subject. Six of the seven senators recommended the passage of the bill, but it was met with persistent opposition from interested parties.

Senator Woodworth thereupon introduced a joint resolution in the Senate, authorizing the Governor to appoint a commission of three competent persons, one or more of whom should be practical miners, to inspect the leading coal mines of the state in regard to ventilation, means of ingress and egress, and all other matters affecting the lives and health of the miners; and also to inquire into the cause of strikes and report to the Governor, for the use of the Legislature, the facts found in the premises, recommending such legislation as in the judgment of the commission the facts might demand. Governor Hayes appointed a board composed of the following members: Charles Reemelin, of Cincinnati; B. F. Skinner, of Pomeroy; and Andrew Roy, of Glen Roy, Ohio. This board was on duty four months. In the month of January of the following year (1872) the report of the commissioners was laid before the Legislature. Senator Jones, of Trumbull county, chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining in the Senate, introduced the bill for the ventilation and inspection of mines at this session, which, although passing the Senate by a unanimous vote, failed to secure a constitutional majority in the House, and a substitute by Representative Conrad, of Portage county, was made a law. This substitute contained all the provisions of the Senate bill, except as to the official supervision of the mines by the state. Owing to the fact that it failed to provide for the inspection of mines, its precepts and provisions were disregarded by nearly every mine owner in the state. Accordingly Governor Hayes, in his next annual message to the Legislature, called attention to its defects, and urged the Legislature to so amend the law as to provide for authorized official supervision; otherwise it would continue to be for the most part inoperative. Mr. Sterling, of the House, introduced a bill supplementary to and amendatory of the law, as enacted, providing for a state inspector of mines, and prescribing his duties, but this failed to become a law.

The Inspector of Mines.

However, during the early part of the session of the Legislature, two bills were introduced in the House of Representatives for the inspection of mines, one by Mr. McLain, of Trumbull county, the other by Mr. Baker, of Perry county. The McLain bill was amendatory to the act in force, and had the same object in view as the bill introduced by Mr. Baker, but the Baker bill, containing the whole act, was adopted in committee as being simpler than the other, and it became a law.

On April 6, 1874, Wm. Allen, Governor of Ohio, appointed Andrew Roy, Dell Roy, Ohio, to be the first Inspector of Mines. On April 18, 1881, a law was enacted by the General Assembly providing for the appointment of an assistant Inspector of Mines, and on June 4, of the same year Jacob I. Klein, of Stark county, was appointed to fill that position by State Mine Inspector Andrew Roy, by and with the approval of the Governor.

On April 11, 1884, a bill was introduced in the House, which was subsequently amended by the Senate, and passed in its amended form, creating the office of Chief Inspector of Mines, with an assistant designated as a District Inspector in each district. The state was divided into three districts, and three District Inspectors appointed. This was due to the rapid growth of the mining industry, and the great increase in the number of mines, which in turn, increased the amount of work to be done in the office, making it impossible for the Inspector, with one assistant, to perform these duties in a satisfactory manner.

On March 24, 1888, the General Assembly amended Section 290 of the Revised Statutes, providing for the appointment of five District Inspectors instead of three. Again on April 18, 1892, Section 290 of the Revised Statutes was revised and supplemented by an additional Section, by the General Assembly, which provided for the appointment of seven District Inspectors. This number has been maintained up to the present time. The following is a list of the Chief Inspectors of Mines, and the term of office served by each, since the creation of the department, together with a list of the Deputy Mine Inspectors, and the time served by each:

It might be of interest in connection with the history of the Mining Department to note the following facts: When the Department was first created there were in operation about two hundred mines. The statistics received for the year 1903 disclose the following: Nine hundred and eleven mines in operation, employing forty-one thousand three hundred and ninety-six men; amount of coal produced, twenty-four million five hundred and seventy-three thousand two hundred and sixty-six tons; number of mining machines in use, seven hundred and seventy-four; amount of coal produced by mining machines, fourteen million five hundred and sixty thousand nine hundred and thirty-one tons; tons of fire clay mined, one million five hundred and sixty-seven thousand six hundred and three.

STATE HIGHWAY COMMISSION.

SAM HUSTON.

Sam Huston, the present State Highway Commissioner, was born in Island Creek Township, Jefferson County, Ohio, February 28th, 1850, and spent his early years upon a farm. He was educated in common schools, academy and college, graduating and receiving his diploma in the Scientific and Engineering Course. Served as a member of Board of Education and as Township Clerk. Was elected County Surveyor of Jefferson County in 1885, and re-elected in 1888, 1891, 1894 and 1897, serving from January, 1886, to September, 1901, a period of fifteen years and eight months. The Legislature, during his incumbency, changed the beginning of the official year of the office of County Surveyor from January to September, causing an interim of eight months to which he was appointed by the County Commissioners.

During his service as County Surveyor and Engineer he had charge of the construction of a large number of miles of improved roads in Jefferson County, costing in the aggregate upward of $800,000. One system included 78 miles. Included in the work under his charge was about 120 miles of stone and brick surfaced roads, together with about 30 miles which were graded without surfacing. Mr. Huston has studied, investigated and promoted good roads for thirty years, beginning his work of promotion of good roads in 1874, and in doing so has visited thirty-five states and territories, traveling from Maine to California.

Mr. Huston was appointed State Highway Commissioner June 30th, 1904, by Governor Herrick, for the term ending June 30th, 1908.

State Highway Commissioner.

HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT.

The Highway Department was created by the 76th General Assembly of the State of Ohio, at its regular session, the act being entitled "An act to establish a state highway department by the appointment of a state highway commissioner and assistants, and defining the duties of the office, and to provide for a system of state, county and township co-operation in the permanent improvement of public highways." The act was passed April 18, 1904. On the same day another act was passed "Providing for the operations of the State Highway Department and providing for investigating the chemical and physical character of road making material, etc." The intention of the department is indicated in Bulletin No. 1, issued March 14, 1905.

Section 2 of the bill "To establish a state highway department" provides, that the Highway Commissioner may make inquiries in regard to the best methods of road making throughout the United States. This recognizes that the science of road building is one of advancement, and that the Department of Highways is to be a progressive one, and that it shall keep in touch with whatever is new in road building, and make it available for the benefit of the state. Along the same line is the provision that the Commissioner may "make investigations and experiments in regard to the best methods of road making and the best kinds of road material and investigate the chemical and physical character of road materials."

The Department is to be a school for the dissemination of information to the people of the state as to the needs and developments in the science and practice of road building, and in carrying out the evident intent of the Legislature, the Commissioner of Highways expects to take part in meetings and conventions in the interest of good roads throughout the state, and aid local authorities to the economical and effective expenditure of the funds at their command for road construction and maintenance.

The work of the Department will not in any manner interfere with, nor supersede the local authorities in their work of road construction and maintenance under former laws, but hopes to co-operate in a friendly way and to mutual benefit.

The second purpose of the acts of the Seventy-sixth General Assembly is to provide that the State Highway Department should have the direction of the construction and future maintenance of such roads as might be built under any state appropriation for aid, or from any appropriation from the federal government.

The Department is organized as follows:

Commissioner.....	Sam Huston.....	Steubenville.
Chief Clerk.....	F. W. Burdell.....	Columbus.
Stenographer.....	Miss Hannah Jones.....	Columbus.

THE INSPECTOR OF WORKSHOPS AND FACTORIES.

J. H. Morgan, present Chief Inspector of the Department of Workshops and Factories, was born in Wales, February 14, 1862. With his parents he came to this country in 1869, locating at Newark, Ohio. Attended the public schools until fourteen years of age, when he went to work in the glass factory. Two years later removed to Cleveland, where he worked in the sheet rolling department of the Cleveland Rolling Mill Co.; removed to Bridgeport in the autumn of 1885, and in 1890 removed to Cambridge, where he still resides.

A sheet and tin roller by occupation, he always took an active interest in labor organizations; has been national vice-president and national trustee of the A. A. of S. I. and T. W. In 1895 he was elected Stae Senator to represent the 19th District in the Seventy-second General Assembly. On December 1, 1901, was appointed Chief Inspector of Workshops and Factories.

The department originated from the urgent appeals of organized labor throughout the state to the General Assembly, and its purpose is to save life and limb by ordering safeguards to be thrown around all dangerous machinery and looking after sanitary conditions in workshops and factories and ordering fire escapes on such shops where necessary, and causing all owners of buildings used for the assemblage of people to supply them with proper means of egress and fire protection.

The act of 1884 creating the Department of Workshops and Factories, provided for the appointment of one inspector by the governor, but did not specify the term of office or make any provisions for office room. Henry Dorn, of Cleveland, was appointed Inspector, and entered on the duties of his office April 14, 1884, establishing headquarters at Cleveland. April 29, 1885, the act was amended creating the office of Chief Inspector, and providing for the appointment of three District Inspectors, and locating the department in the State Capitol. Henry Dorn was appointed Chief Inspector, serving from April 29, 1885, to April 29, 1889.

W. Z. McDonald, of Akron, was appointed Chief Inspector April 29, 1889, and served one full term to April 29, 1893. March 23, 1892, the law was amended empowering the chief inspector to appoint eight additional District Inspectors. Mr. McDonald was reappointed for a second term and served until June 12, 1893, when removed.

E. M. Slack, of Columbus, the chief clerk, was placed in charge of the department, as acting Chief Inspector, June 12, 1893, and served until December 7, 1893, in that capacity.

J. W. Knaub, of Dayton, was appointed Chief Inspector to fill the vacancy occasioned by removal of W. Z. McDonald, December 7, 1893, and served until April 29, 1897; reappointed for a term of four years, term ending April 29, 1901, and served until December 1, 1901, when the present incumbent was appointed.

April 27, 1896, a law was enacted providing for the inspection of bakeshops and empowering the Chief Inspector to appoint two Bakeshop Inspectors, making total number of District Inspectors thirteen.

The act creating and governing the department makes it the duty of the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to appoint the Chief Inspector, whose term is four years.

The act also empowers the Chief Inspector, with the approval of the Governor, to appoint all District Inspectors, whose term of office is three years.

It is the duty of the Chief Inspector to give his entire time and attention to the duties of his office, to direct and supervise the work of his District Inspectors and to make such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the law, as will be for the best interest of the service.

It is the duty of the District Inspectors to give their entire time and attention to the duties of their office; to visit all shops and factories in their respective districts; to inspect all manufacturing, mechanical, electrical, mercantile art and laundering establishments, printing, telegraph and telephone offices, railroad depots, hotels, memorial buildings, tenement and apartment houses, halls, school houses, colleges, academies, seminaries, churches, theatres, opera houses, hospitals, medical institutes, asylums, infirmaries, sanitariums and children's homes, for which purpose the State is divided into thirteen inspection districts, equalized as nearly as possible.

It is the duty of the two Bakeshop Inspectors to inspect all bakeshops in the state as to their sanitary condition, etc., the state being divided into two districts for that purpose, known as the Northern and Southern.

The present working force now consists of one chief inspector, thirteen district inspectors, two bakeshop inspectors and four clerks, as follows:

THE CHIEF EXAMINER OF STEAM ENGINEERS.

WM. E. KENNEDY.

William E. Kennedy, Chief Examiner of Steam Engineers, is an Ohio boy, born in Cincinnati, Ohio, Hamilton County, in 1862, and has always been a resident of that city. He attended the public schools of Cincinnati. At a very early age, he left school, and found employment in one of the largest machine shops in Cincinnati, where he worked for years. He has held some very important positions in one of the largest ice manufacturing concerns in the country, and for ten years was Chief Engineer at the Hunt Street Pumping Station, Cincinnati Water Works, which very responsible and lucrative position he resigned September 26, 1903, to accept the position of Chief Examiner of Steam Engineers for the State of Ohio, tendered him by Governor Nash.

Mr. Kennedy has a large circle of friends throughout the state, and is a member of several engineering organizations, and as such had much to do with the securing of necessary legislation for the amending of the Engineers' License Law, during the last session of the General Assembly. He is one of the Directors of the Young Men's Blaine Club, of Cincinnati, and takes an active interest in the affairs of his home city.

The State Examiner of Steam Engineers.

The law creating this department was passed March 1, 1900, and amended March 13 and April 30, 1902, and March 3, 1904, and provides for better protection of life and property against injury or damage resulting from the operation of steam boilers and engines by incompetent engineers and others; and provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to operate, or cause to be operated, a stationary steam boiler or engine, in the State of Ohio, of more than thirty horsepower, without a duly licensed engineer in charge. Any person who desires to act as a stationary engineer is required to make application to the district examiner for a license so to act, upon a blank furnished by the examiner, providing he has had not less than one year's experience as a fireman or oiler, and if he passes the required examination upon the construction and operation of steam engines, boilers, pumps and hydraulics, a license is granted him to have charge of, or operate, any steam plant. The fee for license is $2.00, and licenses are renewed yearly at a cost of $2.00, providing they are not sooner revoked for intoxication or other sufficient cause. Any person dissatisfied with the action of any district examiner in refusing or revoking a license, may appeal to the chief examiner, who immediately investigates.

The Governor, with and by the advice and consent of the Senate, appoints a Chief Examiner; and the Chief Examiner, with the approval of the Governor, appoints one clerk and eight district examiners, not more than four of whom shall belong to any one of the political parties. All the examiners are required to be competent and practical steam engineers, and hold their offices for a term of three years from the date of their appointments, and until their successors are appointed and qualified. The Chief Examiner has his office in the State House, where all the records are kept, and he issues such instructions, and makes such rules and regulations as will secure a uniformity of action throughout the different districts. In order to facilitate a thorough and efficient examination of the engineers, the State is divided into eight districts by the Chief Examiner.

It is the duty of the district examiners to notify every person operating a steam boiler or engine, to apply for a license, and to give such person a reasonable opportunity to take the required examination; and any owner, steam user, or engineer, who, after being duly notified, violates any of the provisions of this law, is liable to a fine of not more than $100 nor less than $10. And any engineer who fails to exhibit his license under glass in a conspicuous place in his engine-room is liable to a fine of $5.00. The examiners have authority to visit any and all engine or boiler-rooms of the State, at all reasonable hours.

THE STATE FIRE MARSHAL.

HY. D. DAVIS.

Hy. D. Davis was born in Adams County in 1861 and christened Hyman DeBruin, after a minister of that name who was long venerated in the Ohio Valley. His father moved to Highland County and soon after gave up life in the Civil War.

His life was that of the farmer boy until, at the age of 20, he began reading law with Sloan, Newby & Morrow at Hillsboro, supporting himself and his mother meanwhile by teaching school in winter. After admission to the bar he was elected Mayor of Hillsboro and re-elected twice, making six years' service in that office.

Seven years ago he formed a law partnership with Sidney Vessy, of Cleveland, and a year later became Police Prosecutor, which position he held during three years until a political revolution occurred in that city. One year later he was appointed State Fire Marshal, which office he now holds.

Mr. Davis has always been active in fraternal work, being a member of a number of fraternal orders, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Sons of Veterans, Maccabees, Elks and Fraternal Order of Eagles. He served two terms as member of Board of Grand Trustees of Fraternal Order of Eagles, and was last year chairman of the board.

The State Fire Marshal.

DUTIES OF THE STATE FIRE MARSHAL.

The act which established the office of the State Fire Marshal was passed by the Seventy-fourth General Assembly on the 16th day of April, 1900, and on July 15, Governor Herrick, by the authority given him under this act, appointed Hy. D. Davis, of Cleveland, Ohio, to be the second State Fire Marshal.

Under the provisions of the act it becomes the duty of the Fire Marshal to cause an investigation of all fires which occur in the State, with the object in view of reducing, if possible, the enormous fire waste, lessening the loss to insurance companies, and thereby reducing insurance premiums. It is also his duty to make an investigation of inflammable and other conditions from which fires are liable to originate, and have the same remedied or removed. For many years, on account of the difficulty connected with establishing the crime of arson, very few incendiaries have been punished in the State, the total average per year not exceeding two. Estimating the loss caused by incendiary fires upon the best information to be obtained, the total loss to the people of the State resulting from such fires will amount to from twenty to forty per cent. of the total fire waste of the State each year. The wisdom of the legislature in providing some means of reducing this waste is therefore apparent. To assist the Fire Marshal in carrying out the object of the act, the State was divided by him into twelve districts and a division assistant to the Fire Marshal was appointed for each district, to whom, under the provisions of the law, township clerks, mayors of villages and chiefs of fire departments report all fires occurring in their respective territories. All fires reported as suspicious are investigated by the assistant, and where necessity requires one of the two deputies appointed by the Fire Marshal goes to the scene of the fire and holds an inquest. The testimony of all witnesses who have knowledge of the fire, is taken in writing under oath. If the facts warrant, an arrest is made and the guilty party bound over to the grand jury, indicted and tried for arson. The office is provided with a corresponding clerk and a statistician, whose duties are to keep a complete and classified record of all fires and their causes. The office has already met with unexpected success in the prosecution of incendiaries and a goodly number of fire-bugs who, through the efforts of the office are now in the "Pen," will be prevented for some time from carrying out their nefarious calling of setting fire to buildings for the purpose of securing insurance or for any other motive. Below will be found a complete roster of the employes of the department, together with their postoffice addresses:

THE BOARD OF LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS.

THE Ohio State Library was established by Governor Thomas Worthington in the year 1817. The general assembly which met December 2, 1816, appropriated $3,500.00 as a contingent fund for the Governor of 1817. In the summer of that year Governor Worthington visited eastern cities to investigate the management of state institutions. While in Philadelphia he determined to purchase a collection of books for the establishment of a state library. On his return he authorized the fitting up of a room above the auditor's office, in the south end of the old state office building, then on High Street, immediately south of the avenue to the west entrance of the State House. He deposited therein the books he had selected—509 volumes—the beginning of the State Library. Most of these books are still in the library.

John L. Harper was the first librarian. Changes in this office were frequent till 1824, when Zachariah Mills was appointed. He served eighteen years.

In 1844, the library was placed under a commission consisting of the Governor, the Secretary of State and the State Librarian. The latter was appointed by the Governor. In April, 1896, the law was again changed and the entire management of the library was vested in a board of commissioners appointed by the Governor for a term of six years. They elect the librarian and all the assistants.

The State Library was open originally only to state officers and members of the general assembly. The regulations provided that "the librarian shall open accounts with the Governor, Secretary, Treasurer and Auditor of State, the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the members of the general assembly and their clerks." The privilege of drawing books did not extend beyond the period the legislature was actually in session. As late as 1895 books were loaned only to "members and officers, and ex-members and ex-officers of the general assembly; state officers, and clerks in the several departments of the state government at Columbus, and ex-officers of the same; the Judges of the Supreme Court, of the Supreme Court Commission, of the Circuit Court and the Common Pleas Court; officers and teachers of the benevolent institutions of the State, and of the State University; officers of the Penitentiary; widows of ex-members and ex-officers of the general assembly and of ex-state officers; and clergymen resident of Columbus."

Under such regulations the circulation of the library was, of course, quite limited. In the long period since it was founded many valuable works have been placed on the shelves that were accessible to the general public only for purposes of reference in the reading room of the library. These were sought by those who were engaged in the preparation of some literary work or in the study of some "special science or subject of art." The newspaper files were frequently consulted by editors and reporters, The books had a limited circulation among state officers and their families. Members of the legislature, as a rule, found themselves too busy to read. They made frequent use of the state documents kept in the library.

The first board of library commissioners under the Garfield Act of 1896 was appointed by the Governor in April of that year. The members were Rutherford B. Hayes, J. F. McGrew and Charles A. Reynolds. One of the first acts of this board was to open the library to citizens of the state. The old distinctions in favor of state officials were in large measure removed. Citizens of the state who desire to draw books now do so by furnishing the library board a satisfactory guarantee, or by making application through their local library. Those living in distant parts of the state may borrow books by paying transportation both ways. The books are not sent out indiscriminately. Rare and valuable works are not issued for use outside of the library. Those in the circulating department, however, are issued freely on the same conditions to all citizens.

While it contains works in almost every department of literature, the library is strongest in state publications, government documents, history and its related branches, bound periodicals, and newspaper files. In recent years a systematic effort has been made to add to the early literature relating to the state. The work of collecting has necessarily been slow, but the very substantial progress already made warrants the hope that this may soon become the best reference library in the country in all things pertaining to Ohio.

There are at present (November 15, 1902) 81,876 bound volumes in the State Library. Of these 20,076 are in the

TRAVELING LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

This department was organized in the summer of 1896. A traveling library is a collection of from twenty-five to thirty-five books sent out by the State Library to a reading club, an association of citizens, a board of education or a public library, to be kept three months, with privilege of renewal.

The objects of the department are: 1. To furnish good literature to patrons. 2. To strengthen small libraries. 3. To create an interest in the establishment of new libraries.

The Board of Library Commissioners.

On receipt of a request on the forms furnished by the State Library, properly filled and signed by the members of the club, the officers of a free public library, board of education, or other associations, the books will be shipped. The parties receiving the books must pay transportation both ways.

The conditions under which these libraries are issued are very simple. The organizations to which they are sent obligate themselves for their proper use and safe return. The system has proven very popular. Traveling libraries have been sent out as follows:

 1904—J. F. McGrew, President; Chas. Orr, John McSweeney.

The Board of Library Commissioners.

John Franklin McGrew was born in Steubenville, Ohio, April 3, 1854. He moved to Steubenville in February, 1856; graduated from Wittenberg College, Springfield, in 1873; was admitted to the bar in 1877, and has been in practice since that time, with the exception of two years, during which time he was manager of the Republic Printing Company, of Springfield, publishers of The Republic. He was elected to the Sixty-ninth General Assembly in 1889, as a Republican, and was re-elected to the Seventieth General Assembly. He was appointed Library Commissioner by Governor Bushnell April 22, 1896, for the term of four years and was reappointed by Governor Nash, in April, 1900, for the full term of six years.

Mr. McGrew has taken a very active interest in everything pertaining to the State Library and for a number of years has been President of the Board of Commissioners.

Charles Orr was born at Cedarville, Ohio, January 8, 1858. His parents, John and Henrietta Orr, later moved to Xenia, where he attended the city schools and graduated from the high school in 1875. Later he engaged in the book and stationery business, in connection with which he operated a book bindery and built up an extensive trade. From Xenia he went to New York City, where he was for a time employed in the famous Brentano book store. He then went to Ann Arbor, Michigan, from which city he was soon called to the Case Library, of Cleveland, Ohio, of which he has had charge for the past twelve years. In the spring of 1899 he was appointed on the Board of Library Commissioners to succeed Captain Charles A. Reynolds, who resigned to assume command of his company in the Philippines.

Mr. Orr has spent the greater part of his life in contact with books. He has been active in the Ohio Library Association, which he has served as Secretary and President.

John McSweeney was born in Wooster, Ohio, August 1, 1854. He is the son of the late John McSweeney, the eloquent advocate, whose fame extended beyond the borders of Ohio. He was graduated from the Wooster High School, and at the age of twenty-two from the University of Wooster. Later he studied law in the Boston Law School, and was admitted to the bar in 1879. Soon afterward he was elected City Solicitor of Wooster and served in this position from 1879 to 1883. In the latter year he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Wayne County, a position which he held until 1889. Since then he has applied himself to the practice of law and has built up a large practice. He was appointed by Governor McKinley a trustee of the Ohio Hospital for Epileptics, served through the two terms of Governor Bushnell's administration and was reappointed by Governor Nash. He was appointed Library Commissioner by Governor Nash in April, 1902, for the full term of six years.

Mr. McSweeney has been, not only a hard student, but an ardent lover of literature. He is an excellent judge of books and finds his new position very congenial to his tastes.

Charles Burleigh Galbreath was born in Fairfield Township, Columbiana County, February 15, 1858. His early life was spent on the farm. At the age of seventeen he began teaching school. In June of 1879 he completed a course in the Lisbon High School, and in September of the same year entered Mount Union College, from which he was graduated in 1883. One year later this institution conferred upon him the degree of A. M. He was superintendent of the Wilmot, Stark County, schools from 1883 to 1885, when he resigned to accept the superintendency of the East Palestine, Ohio, schools, where he remained eight years. Although unanimously re-elected for two years more, he resigned to accept a position in Mt. Hope College. While in East Palestine he was for two years editor of The Reveille, now The Reveille-Echo. He was school examiner of Columbiana County from 1885 to 1893. In 1896 he was elected State Librarian by the Library Commission created by the Seventy-second General Assembly. He is a member of the Ohio Library Association, the American Library Association and the National Association of State Librarians. Of the last named organization he was President in 1900.

THE STATE BOARD OF PARDONS.

THE Ohio State Board of Pardons was created by an act of the General Assembly of Ohio, April 11, 1888. The act provided the Governor should nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint four suitable persons having the qualifications of electors, two of whom should be appointed from each of the two leading political parties. Two of the members thereof, appointed from the same political party should serve for one and three years respectively, and two members thereof, appointed from the other political party should serve for two and four years, respectively; and that thereafter the Governor in like manner should appoint a member of said board, of like qualifications and from the same political party as the member whom he succeeds, who shall serve for four years.

The act further provided that the Board should organize by electing one of their number president, and it was made the duty of the executive clerk of the Governor to act as Secretary.

The Board meets regularly on the first Thursday after the second Monday in January, and on the same day every third month thereafter, and at such other times as they may deem necessary.

The Board has formulated rules for the guidance of the applicants, which, together with other blanks, can be secured from the Secretary, at the Governor's office.

All cases presented to the Board are heard by the entire Board, and the cases separately referred to some member of the Board for investigation, who makes a written report to the entire Board at its next meeting; when the report is adopted or rejected, and together with all other papers is transmitted to the Governor for his consideration.

The Board makes an annual written report to the Governor on the first Monday in December of each year, of its actions during the last preceding year, its officers and members, and the names thereof, with a recommendation for such legislation as they think proper in order to carry out more fully the object and purpose of its creation.

Under the constitution and laws, the Governor can not pass upon or grant a pardon until after the case has been submitted to the Board of Pardons, and passed upon by that body, except in cases specifically mentioned in the statutes.

The Board was created for the purpose of relieving the Governor of the task of examining manifold papers and documents, which consumed a large part of his time, to the detriment of other important public business.

The State Board of Health.

The Board held its first meeting in Columbus on April 30, 1886, and organized by electing Dr. W. H. Cretcher President, and appointing Dr. G. C. Ashmun, the health officer of Cleveland, as Secretary.

Dr. Ashmun resigned this position in June, 1886, and Dr. Guy Case, of Cleveland, was appointed as his successor. Dr. Case tendered his resignation July 27, 1886, and Dr. C. O. Probst, of Columbus, was appointed Secretary on the same date. Dr. Probst has continuously filled the position since that time, and is the present Secretary.

The Board first directed its efforts to building up a complete health organization for the entire State. In 1886 the larger cities and a very few villages were the only municipalities that had availed themselves of the provisions of an act permitting them to establish a local board of health.

The Board at once took up the work of increasing the number and improving the efficiency of local boards of health. Within a few years it secured a board of health in all cities and villages.

In 1893 the townships, which up to that time had had practically no protection in health matters, were required to establish boards of health, so that provision is now made for a board of health in every city, village and township, a grand total of two thousand one hundred and twelve such boards.

Sanitary legislation has been secured from time to time enlarging the powers and increasing the duties of both the State and local boards of health.

In furtherance of its work the Board began, in 1897, a systematic examination of the streams in Ohio. Each main stream, with its tributaries, has been carefully examined from source to outlet with a view to determining the source and character of its pollution. Monthly chemical and bacteriological examinations of the waters of these streams, taken at various places on each stream, have been made, and careful gagings and measurements to determine their rates of flow at different seasons of the year. This work is completed for the main drainage system of the State. Five special reports of much value have been published upon this subject.

An act of 1898 authorized the Board to establish a Laboratory "for the examination of public water supplies, the diagnosis of diphtheria, typhoid fever, hydrophobia, glanders, etc., and for the examination of food suspected to be the cause of disease."

The Laboratory has been placed at the disposal of all local boards of health, and much good has already resulted from its establishment.

The Board is frequently called upon to examine the sanitary condition of public institutions and school buildings, to investigate the causes of outbreaks of epidemic diseases, and to assist the local authorities in the abatement of nuisances injurious to health.

The State Board of Health.

Beginning with a Secretary, the working force of the Board has been gradually increased until it now embraces a chief clerk, two stenographers, an engineer, a chemist and bacteriologist and an assistant chemist.

The immense growth of public sentiment in the last ten years in favor of improved sanitary conditions and more stringent measures for the prevention of disease has been due in no small part to the progressive character of the work of the State Board of Health; and we may confidently hope that this enlightened sentiment will gradually lead to a more generous support of health measures, whereby the sum of human happiness and average duration of life may be materially increased.

The State Board has kept in close touch with the local boards and is constantly helping them by aid and advice.

In 1888 a monthly journal was established as a medium of frequent communication between the State and local boards of health. A summary of the weekly reports of contagious diseases, made to the State Board, by the local boards, is published therein, with other original and reprinted matter of interest, or suitable for the guidance or instruction of health officers and members of boards of health.

In 1891 a call was issued for a meeting of the State Board of Health and representatives of local boards of health. About forty delegates were present at this meeting. Annual meetings have been held regularly since; the attendance at the late meetings has been nearly or quite four hundred.

The State Board of Health has endeavored to disseminate among the people plain instructions for the prevention of the dangerous contagious diseases. Suitable pamphlets were prepared, and hundreds of thousands of copies have been distributed. All local boards of health have been supplied with copies of these, and when a contagious disease appears in any community they are urged to distribute the appropriate circular to families having the disease, and to their neighbors.

In 1893 an act was passed providing that plans for all proposed water works or sewerage systems, or for changes or extensions thereof should be submitted to and approved by the State Board of Health. The Board has examined and passed upon about two hundred and fifty such plans. It has been able in this way to protect many communities against the introduction of an impure water supply, and to prevent what in some instances would have been dangerous pollution of sources of existing public water supplies. To this end it has encouraged the introduction of sewage purification plants, of which there are now some twenty-six in the state, and at the present time is especially endeavoring to secure the filtration of public water supplies where pollution is known to exist.

THE CANAL COMMISSION.

I N the year 1887, Hon. Jacob A. Kohler, Attorney-General, called the attention of Governor Foraker and the Board of Public Works to the valuable state property, in the city of Akron, that had been unlawfully taken possession of by individuals and corporations, and shortly thereafter, ten civil actions, against as many different defendants, were commenced to recover state property valued at one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars.

When the succeeding General Assembly convened, the governor recommended that a commission be created to ascertain what lands the State owned; thereupon Hon. J. Park Alexander, of Summit county, introduced a bill, embodying the ideas of the governor and attorney-general, creating "a commission to establish the boundaries and lines of the canals, canal basins, reservoirs, etc., of the State, by actual surveys by metes and bounds, together with maps and plats of the same, and to define and protect the ownership and titles in and to all lands belonging to and connected with said canals."

Subsequently, the duties of the commission were enlarged by adding to its work the duties previously performed by the swamp land commissioner, and providing for the recording of all documents, maps, plats and records in any wise appertaining to the title of any real estate formerly belonging to or now owned by the State.

By the act of the General Assembly passed April 28, 1902, dedicating Buckeye Lake, Indian Lake, Portage Lake and the Celina Grand Reservoir to the use of the public for park and pleasure resort purposes, the management and control of said parks was placed in the hands of this commission, the Board of Public Works and the Chief Engineer of the Public Works, acting as a Joint Board.

Owing to limited appropriation, $1,000.00 per year, the work of the joint board has been confined to the clearing out of stumps and logs dangerous to navigation and to policing the reservoirs during the summer months.

The commission is generally called a "Canal Commission," but should be called a land commissioin, as it has nothing to do with the navigation or management of the canals, and has no relation whatever to the old board of canal commissioners that laid out and constructed the public works of the State.

The Canal Commission.

The duties of the commission are to locate and define the state's property, to recover such portions of it as are found in the unlawful possession of individuals and corporations, to lease such portions of it as are not necessary for canal purposes, to acquire title to swamp lands and to collect the cash indemnity due for such lands when they have been disposed of by the United States.

The original act was passed March 28, 1888, and shortly thereafter Governor Foraker appointed as members of said commission, General William H. Gibson, of Seneca county; Col. Charles F. Baldwin, of Knox county, and Judge Alexander S. Latty, of Defiance county, General Gibson being made president, Judge Latty vice-president, and T. C. Ryan, of Washington county, secretary. Colonel Baldwin resigned after a few months' service, and Hon. R. M. Rownd, of Franklin county, was appointed in his place.

The commission found that there was practically nothing with which to commence their labors. The original surveys and maps of the canals had all disappeared along with the books that showed the awards of damages paid for lands appropriated for canals and reservoir purposes. Fortunately a half dozen of these books were found in a consignment of old paper that had been shipped to one of the paper mills on the Miami and Erie Canal, and were finally restored to the State, where they have been of inestimable value in aiding the recovery of State property.

The first three or four years may be called the period of surveys and discovery. More than twelve hundred miles of transit lines have been run since the commencement of the canal and reservoir surveys, while hundreds of monuments have been planted to perpetuate the lines established for the boundaries of the State property. In addition, the titles to lands owned by the State, at one time and another, aggregating one million two hundred and thirty thousand five hundred and twenty-two (1,230,522) acres, have been recorded in the records of the office.

Twenty-seven volumes of maps have been completed and bound in convenient book form, and others are in process of completion.

These maps when completed will embrace the entire canal system, including the canals, reservoirs, basins, wide-waters, feeders, raceways, water-powers, hydraulics, dams, slack waters, locks, aqueducts, bridges, culverts, bulk-heads, waste-weirs, and in fact nearly every thing pertaining to the public works of the State.

In addition to these, plats have been made of all the swamp lands in the northwestern part of the State. This was necessary in order to determine the indemnity due the State, from the United States, for swamp lands, and the commission has filed claims for swamp land indemnity aggregating $121,601.66, which claims are pending for hearing before the Secretary of the Interior.

The Canal Commission.

While investigating the subject of titles a few years ago, the commission discovered that there were 2,614 acres of land in the Mercer County Reservoir and 80 acres in the Loramie Reservoir that was still owned by the United States, the State of Ohio having by some oversight failed to acquire the title to these lands at the time the reservoirs were constructed.

Parties immediately undertook to locate these lands with military bounty land warrants.

Thereupon the commission filed a protest with the Commissioner of the General Land Office setting forth the injury that would be done the public works of Ohio. The Commissioner of the General Land Office, after a contest lasting nearly four years, rejected the applications.

The commission, after a second attempt, secured the passage of a bill by Congress at its last session granting these lands to the state, thus completing the state's title to its reservoir lands.

In order to recover much of the state's property, tedious and expensive litigation has been necessary, but fully ninety per cent. of the value of property involved in the suits commenced on behalf of the state has been recovered.

The net results to the state from the work of the commission in lands recovered, and lands leased and sold, is approximately $1,200,000.00, and this will be substantially increased if pending litigation results in favor of the state.

The fixed policy of the commission has been to lease the state lands rather than to sell them in order that the state may derive a steady income from the same.

The Canal Commission.

The following is a list of the different canal commissioners who have served on that board from time to time, the date of each commission being some day in the latter part of April:

OHIO FISH AND GAME COMMISSION.

THE Ohio Fish and Game Commission was created in 1886, and is composed of five members, appointed by the Governor, who serve for five years each without compensation, except their actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. The law defines the duties of the Commissioners as follows: "To examine the various rivers, lakes, ponds and streams in the State, or bordering thereon, and to ascertain whether they can be rendered more productive of fish and game, and what measures are required to effect this object, either in restoring the production of fish and game in and about them, or in protecting and propagating the fish which at present frequent and abound in them, or otherwise; and the Commissioners shall carry into effect all measures in this behalf, that they deem necessary, so far as means are placed at their disposal for these purposes; and they shall also inquire into the matter of artificial propagation of fish in the waters of the State, and adopt such plans to test the efficiency of this mode of increasing the quality of edible fish as they think best."

To carry into effect the laws providing for the preservation of game and the protection of land owners from trespass against those who hunt illegally, the Commission appoints a force of wardens, deputy state wardens and special wardens, and by these a large number of arrests and convictions are made each year. Special wardens are appointed for some of the public lakes and reservoirs of the state, and there are also special wardens for Lake Erie.

In the matter of propagating fish the Commission maintains a fine hatchery near London, Ohio, where black bass, marble cat, and crappies are raised and at the proper time are distributed to the public streams and lakes throughout the state. A new hatchery for the artificial propagation of fish for Lake Erie is also maintained at Lakeside, Ohio, Ottawa County. The lake fishing interests being of great magnitude and importance, the work of the Commission in respect to propagating these fish is one of vital necessity. The Commission has accomplished great good in its various endeavors, and there is every reason to believe that the future will be even more productive of satisfactory results.

The present personnel of the Commission is as follows: J. L. Rodgers, President, Columbus; Thomas B. Paxton, Cincinnati; D. W. Greene, Dayton; Paul North, Cleveland, and L. J. Weber, McConnelsville. The Secretary of the Commission is George C. Blankner, of Columbus. The active field work of the Commission, which means the control of all wardens, is under the charge of Mr. J. C. Porterfield, Chief Warden, of Columbus.

THE BOARD OF STATE CHARITIES.

THE Ohio Board of State Charities is composed of six members appointed by the Governor. The law requires that the membership shall be equally divided between the two leading political parties, and fixes the term of office at three years. The members receive no compensation for their services, but their actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties are paid by the State. The Board appoints its own secretary, who is not a member of the Board. It is required to hold quarterly meetings, but special meetings may be held at any time.

It was first established by an act of the legislature passed in 1867, Massachusetts being the only state to precede Ohio in the enactment of such a law. Its organization at that time was due to the efforts of a member of the House of Representatives from Cuyahoga county, Honorable D. A. Dangler, who had the support of the then Governor, Jacob D. Cox. The motive that actuated Mr. Dangler in the introduction of his measure is defined by him as follows: "I availed myself of the opportunity, as a member of the Ohio Legislature, of visiting the state institutions for the purpose of familiarizing myself, as far as possible, with their arrangement. It was after such a visit that I became impressed that the citizens of the great state of Ohio should have a more perfect knowledge of the management of these institutions than was gained by the annual visits of their representatives in the Legislature." In a speech advocating the passage of the bill introduced by him, Mr. Dangler said:

"My objects are, by the agency of a common center and common head, to crystallize those various suggestions tending towards reformation and economy in the present system of management and extend their application to all alike by the same agency; to extract from the systems in use in the European states and countries, such ideas as may be applicable to our peculiar wants and requirements; through the introduction of statistics and analytical records, to assist in the diminution of crime, suffering and sickness, by pointing out the causes, occasion and the source; by the adoption of similar rules and regulations for institutions of a like character, to render their management uniform, harmonious and effective, and by a common standard of qualification for the various offices, prevent the appointment of any but those fully qualified to discharge the various duties with honesty and efficiency."

The Board of State Charities.

In 1872 the Board was abolished, but it was again organized in 1876 under the old law with the additional provision for a salaried secretary. On April 15, 1880, the law was so amended as to provide for a Board of six members, instead of five, the original number.

The Board is required to submit an annual report to the Legislature, setting forth the conditions of the institutions coming under its supervision, together with any suggestions or recommendations it may have to offer relative to their management. Its work is not executive, but is entirely supervisory over the whole system of public charitable and correctional institutions of the state, including those maintained by municipalities and counties. It has authority to require such reports from all institutions supported in whole, or in part, by public funds, as it may deem necessary. All of these institutions now make annual, and some of them quarterly reports to the office of the Board. One of the most important duties devolving upon it is that requiring the submission of all plans for state institutions, jails, children's homes, workhouses and infirmaries to the Board for criticism and approval. The Governor of the State is ex-officio president of the Board, and may, at any time, order an investigation by the Board, or a committee of its members, of any institution over which it has supervisory power.

The Board of State Charities.

SECRETARIES OF THE BOARD.

The Secretary of the Board, in addition to other cities, visits and inspects all the institutions coming under its supervision.

Since its organization in 1867 it has had four secretaries: Rev. Albert G. Byers, M. D., 1867 to 1890; John G. Doren, December, 1890, to April, 1892; Joseph Perkins Byers, son of the first Secretary, April, 1892, to November, 1902; H. H. Shirer, since December 1, 1902.

The present Secretary was born near Dayton in 1872. He graduated from the High School of that city and received the degree of A. B. at Heidelberg University at Tiffin in 1897. At the time of graduation he was elected an instructor at the University and continued in that work until his unanimous election as Secretary of the Board of State Charities.

STATE COMMISSIONER OF SOLDIERS' CLAIMS.

W. L. CURRY.

W. L. Curry was born in Union County, Ohio, June 25, 1839. He is the son of Stephenson Curry, and his grandfather, Colonel James Curry, was an officer of the "Continental Line" in the 4th and 8th Virginia during the War of the Revolution, and was granted, as part payment for his service, one thousand acres of land in Union County and the family settled in that county in the year 1811. Mr. Curry, the subject of this sketch, worked on his father's farm during his boyhood days until he arrived at the age of twenty-one. He was given a good education in the country schools and he also attended a private select school for two or three terms at the old academy in Marysville, the county seat, and taught school in the county four winters. In the fall of 1860 he entered the Otterbein College at Westerville, Ohio, intending to complete a scientific course in three years, and in January, 1861, commenced the study of law. The fall of 1860 ended his school days, as at the breaking out of the war of the rebellion he enlisted in an infantry company in April, 1861, for the first three months' service. At the organization of the company he was elected First Lieutenant and the company commenced drilling at once, but the quota of Ohio was filled before this company was mustered in. He then enlisted in the first call for three years' troops as a private in the First Ohio Volunteer Cavalry. At the organization of the company he was appointed Orderly Sergeant and was promoted successively to Second Lieutenant, First Lieutenant and to the Captaincy of his company, and also served several months as Regimental Quartermaster. Colonel Curry served through the war with his regiment, participating in all of the battles of the Army of the Cumberland, including the Siege of Corinth, Miss., Perryville, Stone River, Chickamauga, Mission Ridge and the campaign of the "One hundred days under fire from Chattanooga to Atlanta."

He was at one time a prisoner of war and was discharged by reason of "injuries received in the line of duty," after a service of three and one-half years at the front.

After the war he engaged in the mercantile business in Union County, until the year 1875, and that year he was elected Auditor of Union County and served as County Auditor three successive terms. On retiring from that office he engaged in the lumber business, and in which he still retains an interest. He served as Assistant Adjutant General of Ohio during both President McKinley's terms as Governor, and also served in the National Guard of Ohio five years as Lieutenant Colonel of the 14th Regiment O. V. I.

His family has been engaged in all the wars in this country since the Revolution and two brothers served through the War of the Rebellion, and one of whom attained the rank of Captain. He has always taken a great interest in military affairs and has written and published the history of "Union County in the War," a history of the "First Ohio Cavalry," and a number of patriotic poems.

State Commissioners of Soldiers' Claims.

PURPOSES OF THE DEPARTMENT.

This office was created by act of the Legislature of Ohio, passed April 12, 1900. W. L. Curry, the present Commissioner, was appointed immediately after the passage of the act and his commission bears date of April 12, 1900. The following extract from the law sets forth the duties required of the Commissioner:

"That for the purpose of preparing and collecting the claims of Ohio soldiers, and their legal representatives, against the government of the United States, growing out of military services, and for the protection and relief of Ohio soldiers, whether in the service or discharged, there be and is hereby established, at the seat of government of the State, an office of Ohio soldiers claims.

"The chief of said office shall be styled the 'Commissioner of Soldiers' Claims,' and he shall be appointed by the Governor.

"It shall be the duty of the Commissioner, on demand, to furnish and give all necessary instructions and advice to soldiers and marines of Ohio, or their heirs, or legal representatives, respecting the claims of such soldiers and marines against the United States for pension, bounty, back pay, or otherwise, by reason of military service, and to collect such claims, and perform all other duties which the Governor may require of him appertaining to the duties of said office.

"The Commissioner shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations, he shall keep a seal of office, and his official certificate shall be received in evidence without further authentication.

"He is required to give a bond in the sum of $10,000 conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty and all claims prosecuted is without expense to the claimant."

The term of office is for two years and the Commissioner holds his office until his successor has been appointed and qualified.

THE BOARD OF MEDICAL REGISTRATION AND EXAMINATION.

THE law providing for the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination was passed on February 27, 1896 (Sections 4403c, d, e, f, and g, Revised Statutes of Ohio.)

The first Board was appointed by Governor Bushnell in March, 1896, and held its first session on March 25, 1896.

The Board consists of seven members representing the different schools of medicine in proportion to their numerical strength in the State, and the members are appointed by the Governor, each for a term of seven years.

The Secretary, who is made executive officer of the Board by the law, is not a member of the Board, but is elected each year by the Board. The law requires that the Secretary shall be a physician in good standing.

The purpose of this department is to regulate the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery in the State of Ohio, and to protect the people of the state from illegal practitioners of the same.

The duties of the department consist of the examination and registration of competent persons for the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery, the regulation of medical colleges and the prosecution of illegal practitioners of medicine, surgery and midwifery.

The department is self-supporting, depending upon the fees collected from the examination and registration of physicians and midwives for its revenue.

The law of February 27, 1896, provided that the Board should issue certificates upon the basis of graduation from medical colleges recognized as in good standing by the Board. On April 14, 1900, an amendment to the law of February 27, 1896 (Sections 4403c-f, Revised Statutes of Ohio), was passed requiring that all applicants for registration in the State of Ohio shall appear before the Board and pass an examination in Anatomy, Physiology, Chemistry, Materia Medica and Therapeutics, Practice of Medicine, Practice of Surgery, Obstetrics, Pathology and such other subjects as the Board may require.

The fee for registration under the provisions of the law of February 27, 1896, was $5.00, and the fee for examination under the present law is $25.00.

The following facts are stated for the information of those desiring to practice medicine or surgery in the State of Ohio:

The Board of Medical Registration and Examination.

1. No person can lawfully practice medicine in the State of Ohio unless licensed to do so by the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination.

2. Certificates entitling the holder to practice medicine and surgery in Ohio are issued only after examination by the Board, except in the following cases:

(a) Applicants who were matriculated on January 1, 1900, in any medical college in the State of Ohio, recognized by the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination, who have graduated since January 1, 1900, and who file their diplomas for registration prior to July 1, 1904, may receive certificates under the Act of February 27, 1896.

(b) The Board may in its discretion dispense with an examination, in the case of a physician or surgeon duly authorized to practice medicine or surgery in any state, territory or the District of Columbia, who may desire to change his residence to Ohio, and who makes application on a form to be prescribed by the Board, accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars, and presents a certificate, or license issued after an examination by the medical Board of such state, territory, or the District of Columbia, accorded only to applicants from states, territories and districts whose laws demand qualifications of equal grade with those required in Ohio; but such examination shall not be dispensed with unless under the law and regulations of the state, territory or the District of Columbia, equal rights and privileges are accorded to physicians and surgeons of Ohio, holding the certificate of the Board, who may desire to move to, and practice in such state, territory or the District of Columbia.

3. Examinations will begin on the second Tuesday of June and December, and will continue for three days. Examinations will not be held at any other time except as stated above.

4. Completed applications must be filed with the Secretary of the Board at least ten days prior to the day set for the examination which the applicant desires to enter.

5. A fee of twenty-five dollars must accompany each application.

6. Only graduates in medicine from colleges recognized by the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination are admitted to the examinations.

7. The examination is written and must be in the English language. It includes Anatomy, Physiology, Pathology, Chemistry, Materia Medica and Therapeutics, the Principles and Practice of Medicine, Surgery, Obstetrics, and such other subjects as the Board shall require. The applicant is examined in the Materia Medica and Therapeutics and the Principles and Practice of Medicine, of the school of medicine in which he desires to practice.

The Board of Medical Registration and Examination.

8. Copies of questions which have been used in previous examinations will not be furnished under any circumstances.

9. Persons failing in one examination may be re-examined within one year without the payment of an additional fee.

10. Blanks for application will be furnished by the Secretary upon request.

11. The applicant's diploma must in every case accompany his application papers. After verifying the diploma the Secretary will return it by express at once.

12. All correspondence should be addressed to Dr. Frank Winders, Secretary, Columbus, Ohio.

THE STATE BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS.

THE Seventy-fifth General Assembly amended the law regulating the practice of Dentistry in Ohio. The wholesale registration permitted by the former law is restricted, and only graduates of Ohio colleges up to June meeting of the Board, 1905, and proprietors of dental offices continuously since January 1, 1893, are permitted to register without examination.

The clause in law admitting an under-graduate "to examination during the years 1902 and 1903 who is a legal resident of this State and has been a student of dentistry, under a preceptor, for twelve months prior to the passage of this act" has eliminated its effect, by expiration of stated period; therefore, no under-graduate is eligible to examination.

After 1905, June meeting, everyone who desires to practice dentistry in Ohio must be a graduate of a reputable Dental College and pass the State Board of Dental Examiners, before a certificate of registration will be issued; therefore, our law eventually works into a very effective one.

The registration fee is $10.00; the examination fee $20.00. There have been 3,534 certificates of registration issued since the passage of the former law, which took effect July 4, 1892; however, a great many of these were issued to persons having no intention of practicing in Ohio, but registered because the law was so lax—a diploma and fee of $2.00 was all that was required.

At last meeting of Board the Secretary was authorized to prepare and publish a list giving location of all registered dentists in Ohio, mailing copy to each which will very materially assist in eradicating an illegal element.

Judge Marcus G. Evans rendered a very able opinion sustaining Board in case of Glenn vs. State Board of Dental Examiners. Glenn had brought mandamus proceedings to compel Board to register him under provisions of former law.

THE BOARD OF PHARMACY.

ORIGINALLY created by act of the General Assembly, March, 1884. Object, to regulate the practice of pharmacy in the state of Ohio. Board composed of five members. Term five years.

The term of one member expires each year (March or April).

Appointment by the governor with consent of the Senate. The Ohio Pharmaceutical Association recommends each year five persons from which the governor may appoint one for the vacancy.

The principal executive officer is the secretary, whose office is at the capitol.

This officer is a member of the board and is elected annually by the board.

All persons engaged in the practice of pharmacy in Ohio as proprietors or managers of retail drug stores were registered without examination as pharmacists and received certificates of such registration by reason of their being in such practice when the law was enacted. Those engaged as clerks or assistants under the same conditions were likewise registered and received certificates as assistant pharmacists.

The limit within which any person could take advantage of this provision was three months, and that limit expired in July, 1884. Subsequent to that date all persons are required to pass an examination in order to secure a certificate of registration entitling them to practice pharmacy in Ohio.

Certificates are issued for a period of three years and renewable triennially so long as the holder continues to practice pharmacy in this state.

The renewal fee is two dollars for pharmacist and one dollar for an assistant pharmacist. Examinations are held on the second Tuesdays and Wednesdays of the months of January, May and October, all in Columbus. The requirements for pharmacists' examination are four years' experience in the business of a retail apothecary, and for an assistant pharmacist two years' like experience. Credit on this requirement is given for time spent in receiving instruction in a recognized college of pharmacy, but under-graduates do not receive credit for college work on pharmacists' examination. For the first grade the applicant must be 21 years of age, and for the second, 18 years of age.

The examination fee for pharmacist is five dollars, and for an assistant two dollars. No additional charge for registration or certificate. Original certificates issued for three years.

The Board of Pharmacy.

Every pharmacy, or retail drug or chemical store must be under the immediate supervision of a registered pharmacist. Assistant pharmacists may sell or compound drugs, medicines or poisons only in a store which is in charge of a registered pharmacist. The board is charged with the duty of enforcing the statute.

The act of 1884 was repealed April 21, 1898, and a new one enacted in its place. The provisions of examination and registration (as outlined above) are those embodied in the later act. The status of the board was not changed.

The expenses of the board are paid from the fees and penalties arising from renewal fees, examination fees, and the penalties arising from fines in prosecutions. Receipts are paid into the state treasury and expenses paid on warrant issued by the Auditor of State.

THE BOARD OF LIVE STOCK COMMISSIONERS.

W. W. MILLER, SECRETARY.

DR. PAUL FISCHER, VETERINARIAN.

ACCORDING to a law passed May 7, 1902, the Ohio State Board of Agriculture constitutes the State Board of Live Stock Commissioners. This Board appoints a veterinarian, who is subject to its rules and regulations, and, in certain cases, when deemed advisable, additional veterinarians may be temporarily appointed.

This Board is delegated with power to prescribe rules for carrying into effect and enforcing all the laws of the state with reference to protecting live stock and exterminating disease, and is authorized to, and does, co-operate with the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture. The scope of the Board's work is entirely administrative in character, the object being not to treat disease, but to prevent its spread and provide means for eradication. Prevention is brought about, as far as possible, by enforcing the laws forbidding the transportation of diseased animals through the state, and by regulating the sanitary condition of stock-yards and railway cars and other conveyances used for transporting animals; and also the condition of buildings and public and private premises where live stock may be quartered.

The shipments of Southern cattle infested with ticks, the carriers of Southern cattle fever, are carefully guarded and regulated. Under the rules and regulations of this Board, Southern cattle, which are liable to convey Southern cattle fever (Texas fever) to native cattle, must be shipped in distinctly placarded cars and unloaded in special pens provided for that purpose. Cars and other conveyances used for transporting such cattle must be thoroughly disinfected, according to prescribed methods, before they can again be used for transporting other animals or merchandise of any kind. In this way the spread of Southern cattle fever can be kept under absolute control.

When dangerously infectious or contagious diseases break out their further spread is checked by enforcing strict quarantine regulations. In enforcing these regulations and in receiving information regarding outbreaks of dangerous diseases the co-operation of live stock owners and transportation companies is of the greatest value, in fact without such co-operation no effective work can be done.

The Board of Live Stock Commissioners.

Certain widespread diseases and others of a very malignant nature receive particular attention. The introduction of diseases at present not existing in the United States, but which might at any time be introduced with imported animals, such diseases, for instance, as contagious pleuropneumonia in cattle and foot and mouth disease in cattle, swine and other animals are guarded with the greatest caution, since their introduction would mean incalculable losses to individuals and their extermination an enormous cost to the country. When in the opinion of the Board of Live Stock Commissioners it is necessary to prevent the further spread of any dangerous, contagious, or infectious disease, to destroy certain affected or exposed animals, such animals, after being examined by the state veterinarian and pronounced affected with the disease in question, may be ordered destroyed. For animals thus destroyed the owner receives a certain compensation from the state. Claims under this provision must be approved by the Board of Live Stock Commissioners, reported by this Board to the Governor, and by him communicated to the legislature with the recommendation, if the matter is approved by him, that the proper appropriation be made to pay such claims. Thus far this provision has been applied to glanders in horses and mules, and rabies (hydrophobia) in swine.

Animals affected with rabies, southern cattle fever, sheepox, mange, or any other dangerous, infectious or contagious disease, the spread of which can be controlled by isolation of the infected animals, are strictly quarantined until all danger of communicating the disease has passed. The cost of the quarantine is always borne by the owner of the quarantined animals.

Shipments of live stock into the state and cars or other conveyances carrying such live stock, are subject to inspection by the State Veterinarian whenever this is necessary to enforce any of the rules and regulations of the Board. The State Veterinarian is the authorized person to issue certificates of health for animals intended to be shipped to other states requiring such certificates.

Special plans for controlling tuberculosis in cattle and swine and for reducing the losses occasioned by hog cholera are being introduced; literature relating to these subjects is from time to time issued by the State Veterinarian and distributed to all applicants who may be interested.

SELWYN N. OWEN.

Member State Board of Arbitration.

Selwyn N. Owen was admitted to the bar in 1862, and began practice in Fremont, Ohio. In 1863 he removed to Bryan, Ohio, where he soon entered upon a large and remunerative practice in Northwestern Ohio.

In 1876 he was elected to the Common Pleas bench and re-elected in 1881. In 1883 he was elected to the Supreme Court of Ohio, where he served for nearly six years, four years of which time he was Chief Justice of that court, retiring in 1889. He at once entered upon a successful practice and in 1893 he was appointed to a membership of the State Board of Arbitration and was made its chairman, in which capacity he is still serving. In 1897 he was appointed by Mayor Samuel L. Black, Director of Law of the city of Columbus, and served for two years. He is a Democrat in politics and will be 67 years old on July 5, 1903.

NOAH H. SWAYNE.

Member State Board of Arbitration.

Governor Charles Foster was succeeded by Noah Haynes Swayne, a son of Judge Noah H. Swayne of the United States Supreme Court and Sarah Ann Wager of Harper's Ferry, Virginia. He was born in Columbus, Ohio, November 30, 1847. He prepared for college at Phillips Academy, Andover, Massachusetts, and graduated from Yale in the class of 1870. He is a member of the bar of the State of Ohio and is senior member of the firm of Swayne, Haynes, Fuller and Tyler, of Toledo, Ohio. He served one term in the Legislature, having been a member of the 65th General Assembly. In 1900 he was Presidential Elector and in 1903 he was nominated as Elector at Large from the State of Ohio, by the Republican convention, held in the summer of that year. He is President of the Toledo City Library Board and has occupied a number of similar positions. He was married March 16, 1886, to Miss Frances, daughter of the late J. B. Sickles, of St. Louis, Missouri.

JOSEPH BISHOP.

Member State Board of Arbitration.

Joseph Bishop was appointed by Governor McKinley to represent labor on the State Board of Arbitration, and upon the organization of the Board, May 29, 1893, he was elected Secretary and has filled that position ever since. He is the acting member of the Board and the only one who devotes his entire time to the work. All routine business passes through his hands and the policy pursued in labor controversies is in the initiatory stage left to his judgment.

Mr. Bishop was born at Buford, South Wales, June 9, 1839. His father was an iron worker and emigrated to America in 1840, locating at Pittsburg, Pa. Here, Joseph attended the public schools until he was thirteen years old at which age he started to work in the rolling mill. In 1859, he took an active part in organizing the United Sons of Vulcan, or Puddler's Union, the first organization of iron workers in this country. He continued to work at his trade of puddling and his activity in the union until the breaking out of the Civil War, when he enlisted in Company B, 13th Pennsylvania Volunteers. At the close of the three months' service he re-enlisted in Company B, 102nd Pennsylvania Regiment, and was commissioned First Lieutenant. At the close of the war he returned to Pittsburg and resumed his vocation. At the National Convention of the United Sons of Vulcan, held at Philadelphia, in August, 1874, Mr. Bishop was elected National President, which office he held for three years, and during which time he established the first yearly scale of wages for the iron workers of America. He formed the plan of consolidating the various iron workers' unions into one organization. The result of this effort was the formation on August 4, 1876, of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers of the United States. He served as its President until 1881, when he retired from office and again went to work in a rolling mill continuing there until 1885, when he removed to Columbus.

Mr. Bishop was appointed a member of the State Board of Arbitration by Governor McKinley in April, 1893, re-appointed by Governor Bushnell in 1896 and 1899, and again re-appointed by Governor Nash in 1902.

THE STATE BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

THE State Board of Arbitration was organized May 29, 1893, under an act of the previous session of the General Assembly of Ohio, Governor McKinley having appointed as members of such board the Hon. John Little, ex-member of Congress, from Greene County; the Hon. Selwyn N. Owen, ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio, and Joseph Bishop, a representative of the Trades Unions, both of the latter from Franklin County. Mr. Owen was elected chairman of the Board and Mr. Bishop secretary, and these officers have served uninterruptedly by re-appointment and re-election. Mr. Little died October 18, 1900, and in his stead the Governor appointed Mr. R. G. Richards, of Steubenville, a former Lieutenant-Governor of Ohio. On February 20, 1902, Mr. Richards tendered his resignation having previously been elected to the Common Pleas bench. The vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Richards was filled on May 10th, when the Governor appointed George W. Crouse, of Akron, to serve the unexpired term. Mr. Crouse served until the end of the term, April 9, 1903, when he was succeeded by ex-Governor Charles Foster, of Fostoria. Mr. Foster died January 9th, 1904. The vacancy thus caused was filled by the appointment of Hon. Noah H. Swayne, of Toledo. There have been no other changes in the board since its creation in 1893. It has acted as arbitrator in a number of serious difficulties between employers and workmen. Its most important work, however, has been along the line of mediation and conciliation. In many instances what might have been serious trouble has been checked in its incipiency through the prompt and conciliatory officers of the board.

STATE GEOLOGISTS.

THE First Geological Survey of Ohio was authorized in 1837, and work was begun in that year by W. W. Mather, who published in 1838 the results of the field work done by himself and assistants in 1837 and 1838. From 1839 to 1869 the work stood in abeyance.

The second Geological Survey was undertaken during the year 1869 by Legislative authority with Prof. John S. Newberry in charge, and was prosecuted by him till 1882 by which time seven volumes had been published. These volumes were devoted chiefly to the scientific side of the subject; the economic side on which the popular interest chiefly centered was delayed.

Partly owing to this delay Professor Edward Orton, who had been working on the Geological corps since 1869, was promoted to the position of State Geologist. He immediately took up the economic reports bringing them out in three principal volumes and a number of smaller publications.

In 1889, at the request of Professor Orton, a third organization of the Survey was made by which it became a permanent bureau with instructions to present annual reports. But one report was submitted strictly according to the terms of this law. From 1893 to 1899 the work stood in abeyance, no appropriations being made, though the office existed at least by title.

In 1899 on the death of Edward Orton, his son Edward Orton, Jr., was appointed, and is still in office. A fourth series of publications has been begun, and one volume distributed.

The roster of State Geologist is therefore:

W. W. Mather.....	1837-1839
John S. Newberry.....	1869-1882
Edward Orton.....	1882-1899
Edward Orton, Jr.	1899-

THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

A BRIEF HISTORY.

DURING the year 1875, an archæological society was formed at General Brinkerhoff's home, in Mansfield, Ohio. The society, through the efforts of General Brinkerhoff, received an appropriation from the Legislature of two thousand five hundred dollars, to be expended in making an exhibit at the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia. Prof. John T. Short, of the Ohio State University, was secretary of the society, and it flourished under his secretaryship until his untimely death (November 11, 1883), when the society became dormant and practically inoperative. Governor Hoadley, who took an active interest in all matters pertaining to the archæology and history of the State, upon his accession to office conferred with Mr. A. A. Graham and suggested a revival of the old society. A meeting for the purpose of carrying into effect this suggestion was convened at the Secretary of State's office, on the twelfth day of February, 1885, and it was decided to extend to all persons in the State interested in the formation of such a society, an invitation to meet on the twelfth day of March following, at Columbus, Ohio. In response to the circulars sent out, some sixty gentlemen, from all parts of Ohio, representing the various departments of scholarship, convened on the day specified, in the Library Room of the State Capitol. The meeting having been called to order by Hon. S. S. Rickley, the Hon. Allen G. Thurman was made President, and Mr. A. A. Graham elected Secretary. This convention continued in session for two days, and resulted in perfecting an organization known as The Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society, which was duly incorporated on the 13th day of March, 1885. The articles of incorporation succinctly set forth the purposes and aims of the society, as follows:

1. The name of such corporation shall be The Ohio State Archaeological and Historical Society.
2. Said corporation shall be located and its principal business transacted at the City of Columbus, County of Franklin, and State of Ohio.
3. Mr. A. A. Graham occupied the office of secretary from the organization of the society, March 13, 1885, until December, 1893, when ill health compelled him to remove West. He died in Albuquerque, N. M., in February, 1896.

Mr. E. O. Randall was elected assistant secretary in December, 1893, to act as secretary in the absence of Mr. Graham. At the annual meeting of the trustees February 20, 1894, Mr. Randall was elected associate secretary, and February 19, 1895, was elected secretary, which office he has since held.

WORK OF THE SOCIETY.

The society has an Archæological Museum in Orton Hall, Ohio State University, in which there is a collection of 50,000 specimens of the relics and antiquities of the Mound Builders and later Indians. It has a valuable library numbering hundreds of volumes pertaining mainly to the history of Ohio. The Society publishes each year an annual volume of material concerning the history, archæology and biography of the state. It has published eleven such volumes, averaging 400 pages to the volume, also an Archæological History of Ohio. The Society is the custodian of Ft. Ancient, Warren county, and Serpent Mound in Adams county. Each summer it sends out a corps of explorers for the purpose of examining the prehistoric mounds and making permanent record of the discoveries made therein.

THE STATE AGENT FOR WAR CLAIMS VS. UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

THE office of Ohio State Agent for War Claims was created to properly present and prosecute the claims of Ohio against the general government for money expended in the raising and equipping of Ohio Volunteers entering the service of the United States to aid in the Civil War, 1861-1865. Prior to 1880 the duties of said office was entrusted to the Adjutant and Quartermaster General of the State. Ohio expended on the account of the government during the Civil War in round numbers $6,000,000, and of the large sum this office has collected and returned all save $200,000. For money expended on the account of the Spanish War Ohio has been equally fortunate in the settlement of the claim against the general government—having expended upward of $450,000, all of which has been reimbursed save $17,000 yet unsettled. The appointment of War Claim Agent is made by the Governor. Since 1880 the appointment as agent has been given to W. O. Tolford, and his service has been continuous to the year 1904. Prior thereto he was employed upon similar duty in the office of the Adjutant General of Ohio. His total services as Claim Agent have extended over a quarter of a century.

The following is a list of Soldiers' Claim Agents and Pay Agents for war expenditures on account of the general government:

B. P. Baker, 1862; A. B. Lyman, 1862; James E. Lewis, 1862; J. C. Wetmore, 1862; Hiram Beall, 1863; F. W. Bingham, 1863; R. E. Cox, 1863; Jonathan Cranor, 1863; Weston Flint, 1863; J. C. AN EXECUTIVE TRIBUTE TO THE JUDICIARY OF OHIO.

WHILE engaged in a search through the legislative journals of Ohio for data for the Ohio Hundred Year Book (1901) of which this publication is a continuation, the following expressive paragraph was found in the annual address of Governor Joseph Vance to the General Assembly of Ohio, December 13, 1836:

"I have again and again, whilst on business in the eastern cities, heard our judiciary spoken of in terms that made me proud that I was a citizen of Ohio. 'No collusion or fraud, sir,' says an eminent merchant of one of our eastern cities, 'can stand before your judiciary.' This is the character, gentlemen, that causes capital to seek employment here; this is the character that gives security to our rights, and value to our property; and to these combined causes, are to be attributed a large portion of that flowing prosperity that is felt throughout every portion of our commonwealth."

Ohio was but a trifle over 33 years old as a state when a pioneer governor spoke to a pioneer general assembly in these glowing terms of a pioneer judiciary; in the years since 1836 Ohio has continued to owe to the Judiciary of the state the security and character which attracted attention in the early years of statehood. There are many jewels hidden in those old legislative journals; this is but one of them.

ORGANIZATION.

THE Supreme Court of the State of Ohio as at present constituted consists of six judges who are elected for six years, the term of one judge expiring each year. This court is divided into two divisions of three judges each, the first division consisting of the Chief Justice and the third and fifth judge in the order of the expiration of their terms, and the second division consists of the remaining three.

When the judges comprising either division divide as to the decision in a cause before it, the cause shall be reserved for decision by the full court; and when different causes involving the same question are before the respective divisions at the same time, such causes shall also be reserved for decision by the full court. If the whole court be divided evenly as to the decision in any cause, the judgment of the lower court shall be entered as affirmed, and such decision shall be held to be the law as to all such questions in other causes until overruled by a majority of all the judges. And when the members of the court, in any matter of original jurisdiction, divide evenly on any question or questions therein, the determination of the members with whom the chief justice votes shall be held to be the judgment of the court.

WILLIAM T. SPEAR.

William T. Spear, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, was born June 3, 1834, in Warren, Ohio, from whence came several of Ohio's distinguished judges. His father, Edward Spear, also a judge, was a native of Pennsylvania, of Scotch descent; his mother, whose lineage is traced back to colonial times, came from Norwich, Connecticut. His parents came to Ohio, settling at Warren in the year 1819.

Mr. Spear received a common school education in the excellent union schools of Ohio, supplemented by a most valuable experience at the printer's trade. After serving an apprenticeship upon the "Trumbull Whig and Transcript," published at Warren, he went to New York City, where he was employed in the office of the New York "Herald," and thereafter became a compositor, and later a proofreader, in the publishing house of the Appletons.

The value of the practical lessons thus derived, laying as they did a solid foundation for important duties which he was called upon to perform in after life, can hardly be estimated. Perhaps no pursuit quickens the powers of conception more than the craft of the printer, and especially has the experience herein outlined been of service to the judge in the preparation of judicial opinions. Says one distinguished in the craft: "Herne has uttered a sneer at the husk and shell of learning, but the best bread is made from the whole meal, and includes the 'shorts' and the 'middlings' as well as the fine flour. If every lawyer, physician, and clergyman were to spend six months at the 'case' before entering upon his profession, he would find, even in that short time of labor, a useful and fitting preparation for such literary tasks as may afterwards devolve upon him."

The young printer appreciated his calling, but growing tired of the confinement of the printing office, and having imbibed an ambition for the law, he returned to Warren, and at once began to learn something of the practical side of the profession of his choice, by service as deputy clerk of the Probate and Common Pleas Courts of Trumbull County. He served in these capacities for several years, devoting his spare hours, in the meantime, to the study of law under the direction of Hon. Jacob D. Cox, since Governor of Ohio, but then of the Trumbull County bar, later Dean of the Cincinnati Law School, and father of many lawyers. This preparation was followed by a course in Harvard Law School, where Mr. Spear was graduated in 1859. Being thus equipped by reason of his practical theoretical training, and ready to enter the field of contest, and having returned to Warren, where he was admitted to the bar of Ohio, he at once became a member of the firm of Cox & Ratliff. Later he was associated in practice with Hon. John C. Hutchins, now of the Court of Common Pleas of Cuyahoga County. In 1871 he was elected Prosecuting Attorney for Trumbull County, serving two terms, and Solicitor of his native city for two terms; and for several years he was engaged in the practice with C. A. Harrington, Esq., the firm enjoying a lucrative business. Soon after laying down the duties of those minor positions, Mr. Spear was elected Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, the duties of which office he entered upon in 1878. He was re-elected at the expiration of his first term, but did not complete the second term, because of his election to the Supreme Court, which occurred in 1885. He has since been three times elected to succeed himself as a member of the Supreme Court, became Chief Justice in 1892, 1897 and 1904; and was renominated to succeed himself upon the Supreme Bench, for the fourth time by the Republican state convention in May, 1904.

WILLIAM Z. DAVIS.

William Z. Davis was born in the village of Loydsville, Belmont County, Ohio, June 10, 1839. He is of Virginia descent. His father, Dr. Bushrod Washington Davis, was a native of Loudon County, Virginia, and descendant of the revolutionary stock in the Old Dominion. His mother nee Miss Harriet Hatcher, of Belmont County, was also a member of a Virginia family. He was educated in the public schools and in private academy; has been a life-long student, and was for many years a member of the American Microscopical Society, withdrawing only because pressure of business duties interfered with scientific experiment; served out a three months' enlistment in the 4th Ohio Regiment, during the civil war, and afterwards served in the 96th Ohio Regiment, until physically disabled and honorably discharged during the Vicksburg campaign; in the meantime was admitted to the bar; and after coming out of the military service, and upon regaining his health he entered upon the practice of the law; almost from the beginning was recognized as a leader at the bar, and enjoyed a large practice, extending into all the state and federal courts. The suggestion of his name for the office of Judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio was received with remarkable enthusiasm by lawyers of all political parties throughout the state; was nominated by the Republican party in June, 1899, as its candidate for that office, and was elected in November of that year, up to which time he had never held an elective office. On the 10th day of January, 1900, he was appointed by Governor Nash to fill a vacancy on the Supreme bench caused by the resignation of Judge Joseph P. Bradbury, who had resigned the day before; on February 9, 1900, he entered upon the regular term for which he had been elected in the preceding November. Previous to his election to the Supreme Court Judge Davis never served upon the bench; he has, however, already been accredited high rank among the Supreme Judges of Ohio. His opinions are conspicuous for their conciseness and clearness of statement, and their legal ability and soundness. He will enter upon his first term as Chief Justice on the 9th of February, 1905.

JOHN A. SHAUCK.

John A. Shauck was born on a farm near Johnsville, Richland County, Ohio, March 26, 1841; descendant from German stock; ancestors on his father's side emigrating from the fatherland and settling in America before the American Revolution. He obtained his early education in a private school and the public schools of Johnsville. In 1866 he graduated in the classical course from Otterbein University, Westerville, Ohio. He attended the law school of the University of Michigan, graduating from the same in 1867. He entered upon the general practice of the law at Dayton, Ohio, continuing the same until 1884 when he was elected upon the Republican ticket to the Second Circuit Court. He was re-elected Judge of the Circuit Court in 1889. At the Republican convention held in Columbus, June, 1894, Judge Shauck was nominated for the office of Supreme Judge. He was elected in the following fall and took his seat February 9, 1895, to serve for a full term of six years. Judge Shauck was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio in 1900, during which year he was re-elected for the full term of six years ending February 9, 1907. He will be Chief Justice for the second term beginning February 9, 1906.

JAMES L. PRICE.

James L. Price is a native of Carroll County, where he was born near the village of New Hagerstown. He is the son of Benjamin and Nancy Price, who lived to a ripe old age.

His early years were spent on the farm. After the advantages of the common schools he acquired a thorough academic education, and while preparing for the study of the law, taught one term of common school in Harrison County, near Adena, and a second term at New Hagerstown, after which his law studies were pursued in the office of Eckley & Shober, at Carrollton, O. Mr. Price was admitted to the bar at Cadiz, and opened an office in Carrollton, where he practiced his profession until the spring of 1865. He was elected and served one term as Prosecuting Attorney and at its close moved to Van Wert, a thriving county seat in the then new northwestern section of Ohio, where he formed a partnership with Judge I. D. Clark, which relation continued for about two years.

In 1868 he was elected Prosecuting Attorney of Van Wert County, and served three terms in succession. In the rising northwest, which was then in its transient stage, he acquired a large practice, extending into the surrounding counties. Seeing the rapid growth of Lima, its fine railroad facilities, and its promise of a great business future, Mr. Price removed to that city in the year 1883, where he has since resided.

In 1894 the Republicans of the Third Judicial circuit ventured to nominate a candidate for judge of the circuit court, and while it was then and always since has been, strongly Democratic, they succeeded in electing Judge Price by over 3,900 plurality.

The six years' service on the circuit bench was a large contributing factor in his nomination for Judge of the Supreme Court. He was elected on the Republican state ticket in November, 1901, and took his seat in the court February 9, 1902, succeeding Thad. A. Minshall, Esq., whose term expired on that day.

WILLIAM B. CREW.

Judge William B. Crew was born at Chesterfield, Morgan County, Ohio, April 1, 1852; educated in public schools and at Westtown College, Penna. (a college under the management of the Society of Friends); admitted to the bar by Supreme Court of Ohio, 1873; graduated from the Ohio State and Union Law College, Cleveland, Ohio, in 1874; elected Prosecuting Attorney of Morgan County, 1876; elected member of Ohio legislature, 1889; elected Judge of Court of Common Pleas for the 1st Subdivision of the 8th judicial district of Ohio 1891; re-elected 1896 and again re-elected 1901; nominated for Judge of Supreme Court of Ohio by Republican state convention held at Cleveland in May, 1902; appointed by Republican state convention held at Cleveland in May, 1902; appointed by Governor Nash July 19, 1902, to fill vacancy on Supreme Court bench caused by death of Judge Marshall J. Williams. He was elected both for the long and short terms, in November, 1902, and will complete his present term of service in February, 1909.

AUGUSTUS N. SUMMERS.

Augustus Neander Summers was born in Shelby, Richland County, Ohio, June 13, 1856. He is one of nine children born to the Rev. Daniel Summers and Louisa Hine, his wife. He graduated from Wittenberg College, at Springfield, in 1879; was admitted to the bar in 1881; elected city solicitor of Springfield in 1885, and re-elected in 1887 and 1889; was elected one of the judges of the Circuit Court for the Second Circuit, in 1894, and re-elected in 1900; was elected one of the judges of the Supreme Court in 1903 and entered upon the discharge of the duties of the office February 9, 1904. Judge Summers was married to Miss Nellie Thomas, daughter of the Hon. John H. Thomas, of Springfield, in 1887. They have three children, two sons and a daughter.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE SUPREME COURT.

PRELIMINARY ORGANIZATION.

THE JUDGES OF THE TERRITORIAL COURTS OF THE NORTHWEST TERRITORY. (1787-1802.)

THE first judicial system to be inaugurated in that part of the United States which is now known as the State of Ohio was that put in operation by the "Ordinance of 1787" by which the "territory northwest of the River Ohio" was set apart as a separate governmental unit, and a form of local government provided for it by the Congress. By a reference to Section 4 of the ordinance, which is printed in Part One of this volume, it will be seen that it was provided that there should be "appointed a court, to consist of three judges, any two of whom to form a court, who shall have a common law jurisdiction, and reside in the district, and have therein a freehold estate, in five hundred acres of land, while in the exercise of their offices; and their commission shall continue in force during good behavior." These judges, with the governor, were to select from the civil and criminal laws of the original states such laws as they deemed suitable for the territory, and were given the power to promulgate such laws, and to enforce them, until they should be amended or repealed by a general assembly to be later organized according to the provisions of the ordinance under which they were appointed.

In accordance with this provision of the Ordinance, Congress did, on the 16th day of October, 1787, elect as judges for the Northwest Territory: Samuel Holden Parsons, John Armstrong, and James Mitchell Varnum.

In the place of Mr. Armstrong, who declined the appointment, Congress appointed on the 19th day of February, 1788, Mr. John Cleves Symmes.

The first Territorial Judges (in 1787-8) were therefore, Samuel Holden Parsons, James Mitchell Varnum, John Cleves Symmes.

The salaries of the judges were fixed by Congress in an act bearing the date October 8, 1787, at $800 per annum.

President George Washington, in a message to the Senate of the United States, bearing the date of New York, August 18, 1789, nominates to be judges of the Northwest Territory "in accordance with the law re-establishing the government of the Northwest Territory," Samuel Holden Parsons, John Cleves Symmes, and William Barton.

Mr. Barton, who was appointed vice Judge Varnum, who had died the preceding February, himself declined the appointment, and on the 8th of September the Senate completed the reorganization of the court by confirming the nomination of George Turner, an associate justice. The court thus constituted in 1789, and acting under the Constitution of the United States, consisted of the Honorable Judges Samuel Holden Parsons, John Cleves Symmes, George Turner.

Judge Parsons, then Chief Justice, was drowned in November, 1789, while returning from a treaty with the Indians of the Western Reserve, and the President nominated as his successor on the bench, Rufus Putnam, of Marietta, whose nomination was promptly confirmed.

The court as thus organized with Judges John Cleves Symmes, George Turner, Rufus Putnam, served from 1790 to 1796, when Judge Putnam was appointed to the office of Surveyor General by President Washington, who, in the same message to the Senate, nominated Joseph Gilman to the Judgeship thus made vacant. The nominations were confirmed.

In 1798 Judge Turner resigned and was succeeded by Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., whose appointment was confirmed February 12, 1798. The court as thus constituted, consisting of Judges John Cleves Symmes, Joseph Gilman and Return J. Meigs, Jr., continued to serve until the admission of the state into the Union in 1803, and therefore, until the organization of the Supreme Court of Ohio. This Court (of the Northwest Territory) held its session alternately at Detroit, Vincennes, Cincinnati and Marietta.

NOTE 1.—It is worthy of notice in this connection that the Territorial Government was set up by Congress in October, 1787, but that the first settlement in Ohio occurred on the site of the city of Marietta in the following April (1788). In the absence of the Governor, and Judges, who were to form the law-giving power, and until their arrival, Col. Return J. Meigs, Sr., drafted a code of regulations on common foolscap, which he tacked to the blazed trunk of a large oak, where it was read and endorsed by all the settlers. History does not record a single infraction of those rules. The Governor, with a majority of the court, arrived at Marietta two months later, and set up the official government of the Territory.

NOTE 2.—Upon the admission of the state into the Union in 1803, and the dissolution of the Territorial Court, Congress by an act passed in February, 1803, provided that a District Court for the District of Ohio, to consist of one judge, should be established at Chillicothe.

NOTE 3.—By an act of May, 1800, the original Northwest Territory had been divided into eastern and western divisions, and an additional court created for the Indiana or western division, at Saint Vincennes, the court for the eastern division remaining at Chillicothe.

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO UNDER THE FIRST CONSTITUTION (1802-1851).

UNDER the Constitution of 1802 the number of Supreme Court Judges was the same as under the Territorial form of government, three, with the power vested in the general assembly to authorize the selection of an additional judge at its discretion.

The tenure of office was fixed at seven years, or such part thereof as the judge was well behaved. The salaries of the judges were fixed at not to exceed one thousand dollars per annum.

Under these provisions of the constitution and the laws, the General Assembly elected on April 2, 1803, as the First Supreme Court of the State of Ohio, Samuel Huntington (then the Senator from Trumbull County), Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., (then a member of the Territorial Court), and William Spriggs (of Jefferson County).

With this establishment of a Supreme Court in Ohio, a search of official records discloses the following to have been the personnel of that court which has reflected a lasting honor on the judiciary whose representatives they were, and on the state to whom they paid affectionate fealty.

1803—Samuel Huntington, Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., William Spriggs.

1804—Samuel Huntington, Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., William Spriggs.

Judge Meigs resigned December, 1804, to accept commission in the U. S. Army as Colonel and Commander of the Department of the Missouri.

1805—Samuel Huntington, Daniel Symmes (vice Meigs), William Spriggs.

1806—Samuel Huntington, Daniel Symmes, William Spriggs (to April).

Judge Sprigg resigned in April and was succeeded by Senator George Tod, of Trumbull County, who was appointed to the vacancy by Governor Tiffin—and was afterward elected to the seat by the General Assembly, January 1, 1807.

In 1807 the Supreme Court consisted of Judges Samuel Huntington, Daniel Symmes and George Tod.

In 1808 Judge Symmes resigned (January 9) and was succeeded by William Spriggs (February 13). Return Jonathan Meigs, Jr., having been declared ineligible to the office of Governor of Ohio, to which he had been elected the previous October, was elected an additional Judge of the Supreme Court on the 13th of February by the joint session of the General Assembly which also elected his colleague, Mr. Sprigg, to succeed Judge Symmes, who had resigned to accept the presidential appointment of Registrar of Land at Cincinnati. Owing to these changes the court, after February 13, was composed of Judges Samuel Huntington, William Sprigg, George Tod, R. J. Meigs, Jr.

The membership of the court remained as above until in December, when Judge Huntington resigned to become Governor of Ohio. He was inaugurated December 12. The House of Representatives had preferred charges early in the same month (December) against Judges Huntington and Tod, of the Supreme Court, and Judge Calvin Pease, presiding judge of the Common Pleas Court of the 3d District, for having, by certain decisions, set aside the act extending the jurisdiction of justices of the peace. Governor Huntington was not tried on these charges, but his associates were brought before the Senate, sitting as a High Court of Impeachment, and were acquitted.

In 1809, Judge Huntington having become Governor, and Judge Meigs having resigned to become United States Senator from Ohio, the Governor, in the message announcing these vacancies on the bench (January 31) recommends the abolishment of the fourth judgeship for the reason that it creates two courts of two judges each, which sitting at different parts of the state in riding the circuit, tend to disagreement in decisions, and consequent confusion. Despite this recommendation of the Governor, the Legislature elected (February 17) Thomas Scott (Chief Clerk of the Senate) to succeed Judge Huntington, and Thomas Morris (a member of the House of Representatives) to succeed Judge Meigs as an additional Judge. This created a court of four members, including Judges William Sprigg, George Tod, Thomas Scott and Thomas Morris.

Judge Morris failing to qualify as judge, the General Assembly abolished the additional judgeship the following session (1810).

In 1810, the first period of seven years having expired under the state constitution of 1802, the General Assembly, on February 10, met in joint session of the two houses and elected a new Supreme Court which served without interruption until 1815. This court consisted of Thomas Scott (to succeed himself); William W. Irwin, of Fairfield County; and Ethan Allen Brown, of Hamilton County.

In 1816 the General Assembly was called upon to elect successors to Judges Scott and Irwin who had resigned, and accordingly met in joint session on the 17th day of February, and elected to the Supreme Court,

Historical Sketch of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

Messrs. Jessup N. Couch, of Ross County; John McLean, of Warren County; and an additional judge in Calvin Pease, of Trumbull County.

The Supreme Court was thus increased to four members: Ethan Allen Brown, Jessup N. Couch, John McLean, and Calvin Pease.

In 1817 the re-election of Judge Brown to succeed himself continued the membership of the court as constituted the previous year, and this membership was unbroken until the resignation of Judge Brown in December, 1818, to become Governor of Ohio. On the 30th day of January, 1819, the General Assembly elected Peter Hitchcock, of Geauga County, to the vacancy thus created.

From 1819 to 1821 the judges of the Supreme Court were: Jessup N. Couch, John McLean, Calvin Pease and Peter Hitchcock.

In 1821, the death of Judge Couch led to the election of Jacob Burnett, of Hamilton County, one of the conspicuous figures in the Territorial Council and in the early history of Ohio, as his successor. The court thus constituted, being again changed in 1822 by the resignation of Judge McLean, Charles R. Sherman, of Fairfield County, was elected to succeed him on the 11th day of January, 1823, at which election the General Assembly also re-elected Judges Pease and Burnett.

From 1822 to 1829 the Judges of the Supreme Court were: Calvin Pease, Peter Hitchcock, Jacob Burnett and Charles R. Sherman.

In 1828 Judge Burnett resigned (December 11) and as his successor the General Assembly elected (February 6, 1829) Joshua Collett, of Warren County. The judges for 1829 being Calvin Pease, Peter Hitchcock, Charles R. Sherman, and Joshua Collett.

In 1830 the General Assembly elected the following judges of the Supreme Court: January 30, Elijah Hayward, vice Judge Pease, term expired; February 1, John Milton Goodenow, vice Judge Sherman, deceased; the court thus consisting of Judges Peter Hitchcock, Joshua Collett, Elijah Hayward and John Milton Goodenow.

During the summer of 1830 the court was divided into two sections, sitting in separate localities in the state (under an act of the previous winter), but the illness of Judges Goodenow and Hayward, who finally resigned before the close of the year, deprived the Miami River counties and those of central Ohio of the usual court. An attempt to hold a special session in Columbus, in October, resulted in the coming together of but two of the judges, who, deciding that they were not a quorum of the court and could neither sit as a court or legally adjourn, agreed to "separate," which they did, and nothing was done with the fifty cases on the docket. (See Governor's Message.) Henry Brush was appointed by the Governor during the year 1830 to succeed Judge Goodenow, resigned; no appointment being made to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation (November 6) of Judge Hayward.

Historical Sketch of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

In December, 1830, the Supreme Court Judges were: Peter Hitchcock, Joshua Collett, Henry Brush, and one vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Hayward.

On the 18th of December the General Assembly elected a successor to Judge Hayward in the person of Ebenezer Lane, of Huron County, and on the 29th of the month elected John C. Wright, of Jefferson County, to succeed Judge Brush, who was not a candidate before the General Assembly. Judge Lane took his seat at once; Judge Wright, on the adjournment of the legislature.

In 1831 and 1832 the membership of the Supreme Court remained: Peter Hitchcock, Joshua Collett, Ebenezer Lane, and John C. Wright.

Judge Hitchcock's term expiring on the 5th of February, 1833; there was a spirited contest in the General Assembly over the election of his successor. The election being ordered for the 16th of December (1832), on that day the assembly met in joint session, but after casting seven ballots, on all of which Reuben Wood, of Cuyahoga County, led, with Judge Hitchcock second and Benjamin Tappan third, the session dissolved without an election and the Senate returned to its chamber. The assembly was called together by another resolution on the next day (17th), and after twelve more ballots, Reuben Wood was declared to have been elected by a majority of one vote.

Several days later the correctness of the count was challenged by a joint resolution and an investigation of the count was ordered, but the title of Judge Wood to his seat was not disturbed by this agitation.

The court for 1833-1835 was composed of Judges Joshua, Collett, Ebenezer Lane, John C. Wright and Reuben Wood.

On February 2, 1835, the Governor reported the resignation of elected, on the fourth ballot, ex-Judge Hitchcock, at that time Senator from Geauga County and Speaker of the Senate, to succeed him. In this contest, Senator Anthony, of Clark County, was Judge Hitchcock's principal competitor for the Judgeship and was (March 6) elected to succeed him as Speaker of the Senate. Judge Hitchcock resigned as Speaker on that day.

From March, 1835, to February 10, 1836, the court consisted of Judges Lane, Wright, Wood and Hitchcock.

Frederick Grimke, of Ross County, was elected on January 30, 1836, to succeed Judge Collett, whose term expired on the 10th of February. By the re-election of Judge Lane for the period of seven years from the 18th day of December, 1837, and of Judge Wood, in 1839, the court as constituted in 1836 continued without interruption until 1842, viz.: Ebenezer Lane, Reuben Wood, Peter Hitchcock, and Frederick Grimke.

Matthew Birchard, of Trumbull County, was elected by the General Assembly on January 15, 1842, to succeed Judge Hitchcock, whose term expired in February of that year, and Nathaniel C. Reed, of Hamilton County, was elected on the 5th of March, to succeed Judge Grimke, resigned. The court thus constituted, from March, 1842, to December, 1844, was composed of Judges Ebenezer Lane, Reuben Wood, Matthew Birchard, and Nathaniel C. Reed.

In December, 1844, the term of Judge Lane expired. He was promptly re-elected by the General Assembly on the 5th of the month, but remained on the bench only during the session of the court in Bank, when he resigned. His successor was elected on the 27th of the same month (December), in the person of ex-Judge Peter Hitchcock. The action of the General Assembly in re-electing Judge Lane to succeed himself in 1836 and 1844 was, with the exception of the re-election of Judge Wood, in 1839, contrary to the usual refusal of the assembly to grant consecutive terms to the members of the Supreme Court.

The members of the Supreme Court in the years 1845 and 1846 were Judges Reuben Wood, Matthew Birchard, Nathaniel C. Reed, and Peter Hitchcock.

On the 15th day of January, 1847, the General Assembly elected Edward Avery, of Wayne County, to succeed Judge Wood (term expiring), although the Judge was a candidate for re-election. From February, 1847, to February, 1849, the membership of the court was: Judges Matthew Birchard, Nathaniel C. Reed, Peter Hitchcock, and Edward Avery.

On the 22d day of February, 1849, the General Assembly elected as members of the Supreme Court: Rufus P. Spalding, of Summit County, for seven years from March 5, to succeed Judge Reed, resigned; and William B. Caldwell, of Hamilton County, for seven years from March 7, to succeed Judge Birchard, term expired.

The court for 1849-1850, consisted of Judges Hitchcock, Avery, Spalding, and Caldwell.

The last change in the court prior to the enforcement of the present constitution of Ohio was occasioned by the resignation of Judge Avery, and the election of his successor in the person of Rufus P. Ranney, of Trumbull County, on the 17th of March, 1851. The court served as thus constituted until "the second Monday in February, 1852," when the official term of the new officers elected under the constitution began. The membership of the court from February, 1851, to February, 1852, was Judges Hitchcock, Spalding, Caldwell, and Ranney.

JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF OHIO UNDER THE CONSTITUTION OF 1851

The constitution of 1851 contains the following provisions for the continuance of the authority of the Supreme Court:

SEC. 11. Schedule. Suits pending in the Supreme Court in bank shall be transferred to the Supreme Court provided for in this Constitution, and be proceeded in according to law.

The personnel of the Supreme Court of Ohio has been, consecutively, as given below for the years named:

1852. On the 9th day of February, 1852, the then Supreme Court, which had been elected by the General Assembly under the old constitution, and consisting of Judges Peter Hitchcock, Rufus P. Spalding, William B. Caldwell, and Rufus P. Ranney, passed out of existence, and a new court, elected by the people of Ohio at the previous election in October, came on the bench in the persons of Judges William B. Caldwell, of Hamilton County (re-elected); Rufus P. Ranney, of Trumbull County (re-elected); Thomas W. Bartley, of Richland County; John A. Corwin, of Champaign County; and Allen G. Thurman, of Ross County.

On the organization of the court, the judges drew lots for the length of their terms, the lot resulting: For one year, Judge Caldwell; for two years, Judge Bartley; for three years, Judge Corwin; for four years, Judge Thurman; and for five years (the length of the regular term under the new constitution), Judge Ranney. Judge Caldwell was re-elected in 1852, and Judge Bartley was re-elected in 1853, so the court remained as installed in February, 1852, until December, 1854, with the following membership: Judges Caldwell, Ranney, Bartley, Corwin, and Thurman.

1854-1855. Judge Corwin resigned in December, 1854, and was succeeded by Robert B. Warden, of Franklin County, who was appointed to the vacancy and served until February 9, 1855, when he was succeeded by Joseph R. Swan, of Franklin County, who was elected to the seat.

Judge Caldwell also resigned in the December term of 1854, and was succeeded by William Kennon, of Belmont County, who was appointed to fill the vacancy and then elected at the October election, 1854, to succeed himself.

The court for the year 1854 consisted of Judges Caldwell, Ranney, Corwin, Bartley, and Thurman, until the second division of the December term; and of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Thurman, Warden, and Kennon, from that time until February 9, 1855.

1855-1856. Judge Swan took his seat on the bench as the successor of Judge Warden and Judge Corwin (as explained above) on the 9th day of February, 1855, the court consisting of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Thurman, Kennon, and Swan.

Historical Sketch of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

1856. Judge Kennon served to the adjourned session in March, 1856, as did Judge Thurman; the terms of each expiring at that time. They were succeeded by Judges Jacob Brinkerhoff, of Richland County, and Charles C. Convers, of Muskingum County, who had been elected the previous October. Judge Convers resigned in May on account of ill health, never having taken his seat on the bench; he was succeeded by Ozias Bowen, of Marion County, who was appointed to fill the vacancy and elected to succeed himself in October following.

The court from February 9 to May 15, consisted of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, and Convers; and From May 15 to February 9, 1857, of Judges Ranney, Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, and Bowen.

1857. Josiah Scott, of Butler County, was elected to succeed Judge R. Ranney, in October, 1856, and took his seat February 15, 1857, the court being composed of Judges Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, Bowen and Scott.

1858. Milton Sutliff, of Trumbull County, was elected in October, 1857, to succeed Judge Bowen, and took his seat February 9, 1858, the court consisting of Judges Bartley, Swan, Brinkerhoff, Scott, and Sutliff.

1859. William V. Peck, of Scioto County, was elected in October, 1858, to succeed Judge Bartley, and took his seat February 9, 1859, the court consisting of Judges Swan, Brinkerhoff, Scott, Sutliff, and Peck.

Judge Swan, then Chief Justice, resigned in November, and William Y. Gholson, of Hamilton County, who had been elected in October to a seat in the court, was appointed to succeed him. He took his seat November 8, and entered on his regular term the 9th of February, 1860.

The members of the court from November, 1859, to February, 1863, were Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Sutliff, Peck, and Gholson.

Judge Brinkerhoff was re-elected in 1860, and Judge Scott was re-elected in 1861.

1863. Ex-Judge Rufus P. Ranney was elected in October, 1862, to succeed Judge Sutliff, and took his seat on the 9th day of February, 1863; the court from this date to December 12th consisting of Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Peck, Gholson, and Ranney.

On the 11th of December, 1863, Judge Gholson resigned, and Horace Wilder, of Ashtabula County, was appointed for his unexpired term. Judge Wilder was elected to succeed himself in October, 1864. Hocking Hunter, of Fairfield County, was elected to succeed Judge Peck in October, 1863, and took his seat on February 9, 1864, only to resign the same day.

William White, of Clark County, was appointed to the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Hunter, and was elected in October, 1864, for the unexpired term.

Luther Day, of Portage County, was elected in October, 1864, to succeed Judge Wilder, and took his seat February 9, 1865.

The membership of the court during the years 1863-1865, was therefore:

December 12, 1863, to February 9, 1864: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Peck, Ranney, and Wilder.

February 9, 1864: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Ranney, Wilder and Hunter.

February 10, 1864: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Ranney, Wilder, and White.

February 9, 1865: Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, Ranney, White and Day.

Judge Ranney resigned on the 23d of February, 1865, and his successor was appointed in the person of John Welch, of Athens County, who was elected in October following for the unexpired term.

February 23, 1865, to February 9, 1871, the court was composed of Judges Brinkerhoff, Scott, White, Day and Welch.

February 9, 1871. George W. McIlvaine, of Tuscarawas County, who had been elected in October to succeed Judge Brinkerhoff, came upon the bench and the court was thus composed of Judges Scott, Welch, White, Day and McIlvaine.

February 9, 1872. William H. West, of Logan County, elected to succeed Judge Scott, came upon the bench, the court then consisting of Judges Welch, White, Day, McIlvaine, and West.

Judge West resigned in 1873 and was succeeded by Walter F. Stone, of Erie County, who was appointed by the Governor, and elected in October to fill the unexpired term. He in turn resigned in September, 1874, and was succeeded by George Rex, of Wayne County, who was appointed by the Governor, and then elected by the people to fill the unexpired term of Judge West.

The re-election of Judge Welch in October, 1872, of Judge White in October, 1873, and the election of William J. Gillmore, of Preble County to succeed Judge Day in October, 1874, led to the following changes in the personnel of the court in the years named:

In 1873 the court was composed of Judges White, Day, McIlvaine, West, Stone and Welch.

In 1874 of Judges Day, McIlvaine, Stone, Rex, Welch, and White.

In 1875 of Judges McIlvaine, Rex, Welch, White, and Gillmore.

In 1876 of Judges Rex, Welch, White, Gillmore, and McIlvaine. Judge McIlvaine was re-elected in October, 1875.

Historical Sketch of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

In October, 1876, W. W. Boynton, of Lorain County, was elected to succeed Judge Rex, and took his seat February 9, 1877, and in October, 1877, John W. Okey, of Franklin County, was elected to succeed Judge Welch.

Judge White was re-elected in October, 1878, and in the following year William W. Johnston, of Lawrence County, was elected to succeed Judge Gillmore. Judge McIlvaine was re-elected in October, 1880, and in November, 1881, Judge Boynton resigned, the Governor appointing as his successor for the unexpired term until the next February, Nicholas Longworth, of Hamilton County, who had been elected for the full term of five years, a month before the resignation of Judge Boynton.

The personnel of the court from February 9, 1877, to February 9, 1882, was as follows:

February 9, 1880-1881: Judges McIlvaine, Boynton, Okey, White, and Johnson.

February 9, 1882-1883: Judges Okey, White, Johnson, McIlvaine, and Longworth.

Judge Okey was re-elected in October, 1882, but the resignation of Judge Longworth and the death of Judge White, both occurring in March, 1883, created a number of changes in the court in that year. John H. Doyle, of Lucas County, was appointed by the Governor to succeed Judge Longworth, and took his seat in the court on the 10th day of March. Martin D. Follett, of Washington County, was, however, elected to fill the vacancy in October, and qualified on the 8th day of December, Judge Doyle retiring. Judge White, who had served in the court for over 19 years, died on the 12th day of March in the same year, and William H. Upson, of Summit County, was appointed by the Governor as his successor. He took his seat on the 14th of March, but Selwyn N. Owen, of Williams County, having been elected in October for the unexpired term, qualified on the 8th of December, Judge Upson retiring.

The court during this year (1883) was composed of the following membership:

February 9 to March 9: Judges White, Johnson, McIlvaine, Longworth and Okey.

Historical Sketch of the Judges of the Supreme Court.

March 10 to March 12: Judges White, Johnston, McIlvaine, Doyle, and Okey.

March 14 to December 7: Judges Upson, Johnson, McIlvaine, Doyle, and Okey.

December 8 to February 9, 1884: Judges Owen, Johnston, McIlvaine, Follett, and Okey.

February 9, 1884, to February 9, 1885: Judges Johnson, McIlvaine, Okey, Follett, and Owen.

February 9, to July 25, 1885: Judges McIlvaine, Okey, Follett, Owen, and Johnson (re-elected).

August 20 to December 15, 1885: Judges McIlvaine, Atherton, Follett, Owen, and Johnson.

December 16, 1885, to February 9, 1886: Judges McIlvaine, Follett, Spear, Owen and Johnson.

The death of Judge Okey on the 25th day of July, 1885, created a vacancy in the court which was filled by the appointment of Gibson Atherton, of Licking County, who took his seat on the 20th day of August. The October elections resulted in the election of William T. Spear, of Trumbull County, to fill the unexpired term of Judge Okey, and he qualified and took his seat on the 16th day of December, Judge Atherton retiring. At the same election Thaddeus A. Minshall, of Ross County, was elected for the full term of five years to succeed Judge McIlvaine, and these two members of the court have, by repeated re-elections by the people, been continued on the bench of the Supreme Court to the present time. Judge Johnson resigned November 9, 1886, and Franklin J. Dickman, of Cuyahoga County, was appointed to fill the vacancy until the next general election. He took his seat November 16. In October previous, Marshall J. Williams, of Fayette County, was elected to succeed Judge Follett. In 1887 Judge Spear was re-elected for a full term and in 1888 Joseph P. Bradbury, of Gallia County, was elected to succeed Judge Owen. Judge Dickman was re-elected in 1889, Judge Minshall was re-elected in 1890 and Judge Williams in 1891. In the elections of 1892, under a new law, by which the membership of the court was increased from five members to six, and the terms of office from five years to six, two members of the court were elected in the persons of Judge Spear for the long term of six years and Jacob F. Burket, of Hancock County, for five years. Judge Bradbury was re-elected in 1893; John A. Shauck, of Montgomery County, was elected in October, 1894, to succeed Judge Dickman. From 1894 to 1899 the sitting judges were re-elected to succeed themselves without exception, and consequently no changes occurred in the personnel of the court. In November, 1899, William Z. Davis, of Marion County, was elected to succeed Judge

Bradbury, who resigned January 10, 1900, a month before the expiration of his term. Judge-elect Davis was appointed to succeed him, and thus went on the bench a month earlier than the time for which he had been elected. In November, 1900, Judge Shauck was re-elected and entered on his present term February 9, 1901. The personnel of the Supreme Court of Ohio for the period between February 9, 1886, and February 9, 1901, (a period of fifteen years) was, therefore:

February 9, to November 9, 1886: Judges Owen, C. J., Follett, Spear, Johnson, and Minshall.

November 10, 1886, to February 9, 1887: Judges Owen, C. J., Follett, Dickman, Spear and Minshall.

February 9, 1888, to February 9, 1889: Judges Owen, C. J., Dickman, Minshall, Spear and Williams.

February 9, 1899, to February 9, 1890: Judges Minshall, C. J., Dickman, Spear, Williams and Bradbury.

February 9, 1890, to February 9, 1891: Judges Minshall, C. J., Williams, Spear, Bradbury, and Dickman.

February 9, 1891, to February 9, 1892: Judges Williams, C. J., Spear, Bradbury, Dickman and Minshall.

February 9, 1892, to February 9, 1893: Judges Spear, C. J., Bradbury, Dickman, Minshall and Williams.

February 9, 1893, to February 9, 1894: Judges Bradbury, C. J., Dickman, Minshall, Williams, Burket, and Spear.

February 9, 1894, to February 9, 1895: Judges Dickman, C. J., Minshall, Williams, Burket, Spear, and Bradbury.

February 9, 1895, to February 9, 1896: Judges Minshall, C. J., Williams, Burket, Spear, Bradbury and Shauck.

In November, 1901, James L. Price, of Allen County, Chief Justice of the Circuit Courts of Ohio, was elected to the Supreme Court to succeed Judge Minshall, and took his seat February 9, 1902. Chief Justice Williams died in July, 1902, and on the 19th of the month Governor Nash appointed to the vacancy Judge William B. Crew, of Morgan County, who was the candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court on the Republican State ticket, and who was in November, 1902, elected to succeed himself for the full term.

In November, 1902, Judge Augustus N. Summers of the Circuit Court was elected to succeed Judge Jacob F. Burket, who retired February 9, 1904.

The personnel of the Supreme Court from February 9, 1901, to date of publication, was as follows:

THE SUPREME COURT COMMISSIONS.

THE power of the General Assembly to assist in disposing of the work before the Supreme Court of Ohio by the formation of "Supreme Court Commissions" (Section 21, Article IV), has been invoked twice since the adoption of the present Constitution of Ohio. The appointment of the members of this commission has been vested in the Governor in both instances.

THE COMMISSION OF 1876.

On the 2d day of February, 1876, the Governor appointed as such Supreme Court Commission, to serve for three years, Josiah Scott, of Crawford County; William W. Johnson, of Lawrence County; D. Thew Wright, of Hamilton County; Richard A. Harrison, of Franklin County; Henry C. Whitman, of Hamilton County; and Luther Day, of Portage County. Mr. Harrison refused to accept the appointment and Thomas Q. Ashburn, of Clermont County, was appointed in his stead, and took his seat on the bench on the 16th of March, 1878.

This commission sat until the 2d day of February, 1879, as an auxiliary to the Supreme Court, and assisted in bringing up the docket which had fallen far behind the reasonable time for trial.

THE COMMISSION OF 1883.

In 1883, the Governor again appointed a commission of five members under an enabling act of the General Assembly, and this commission began its work on the 17th day of April, 1883, and continued on the bench for the period of two years. The commission of 1883 consisted of Moses M. Granger, of Muskingum County, C. J., Geo. K. Nash, of Franklin County; Franklin J. Dickman, of Cuyahoga County; Charles D. Martin, of Fairfield County; and John McCauley, of Seneca County. This commission adjourned April 16, 1885.

OFFICERS OF THE SUPREME COURT AND LAW LIBRARY.

ELLIOT HOWARD GILKEY.

MARSHAL OF THE SUPREME COURT AND LAW LIBRARIAN.

The Supreme Court of Ohio before its adjournment in June, 1904, elected Elliot Howard Gilkey, of Franklin County, to be Marshal and Librarian of the court to succeed himself, he having been promoted to that office from the position of First Assistant Librarian the previous October, to fill the unexpired term occasioned by the death of Frank N. Beebe.

Mr. Gilkey was born in Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, February 8, 1857, the son of Sheldon Elliot Gilkey and Emma Roberts Gilkey, both of New England parentage. The father entered the Union army and was shot to death in the battle of "The Wilderness," May, 1864, leaving the son an orphan at the age of seven years. He was admitted to the Ohio Soldiers' Orphans' Home at Xenia in January, 1870, from Cleveland, and discharged in June, 1874, after having been permitted to serve two winters as a page in the Ohio Senate. His election as Journal Clerk in the Senate in 1876 at the age of eighteen years led him to select Columbus as the scene of his future efforts, both to secure employment and to win the friends which are so necessary to the success in life of any man. No man is sufficient unto himself; the man most utterly alone is he who in midst of a great city knows within his own soul that he merits no friends; Crusoe on his island is in Paradise in comparison. Leaving school at the age of 17, from the necessity of graduation from the Home on reaching the age limit, Mr. Gilkey was prevented from pursuing an education beyond the Senior High School year. After leaving the Home he spent the summer of 1874 in private study in Cleveland, preparatory to entering the law school at Ann Arbor, a plan which was reluctantly abandoned from stern necessity. It was the failure to succeed in this ambition which led him to come to Columbus and seek the Journal Clerkship in the Senate in 1876, to which reference has been made. His subsequent education has been obtained by private study out of business hours. He has read law as a matter of general information, but has never taken the full course necessary to admission to the bar; he expects to do this, both as a further qualification for the duties now imposed upon him and for its educational attractions. He is a lover of books and of book making. In 1900 he was selected to get out a revision of the Manual of Legislative Practice in the General Assembly; and also to compile the centennial edition of the Ohio Hundred Year Book, the compilations and historical sketches of the latter being later reprinted in the series of which this volume is a part. While engaged in this work the former Marshal and Librarian of the Supreme Court expressed a desire to secure his services as First Assistant Law Librarian, and following this unsolicited and unexpected expression of semi-professional appreciation, successful application to the Judges of the Supreme Court was made for the appointment which was received July 1, 1901. His election to succeed Mr. Beebe after three years' service in the department is taken as the highest endorsement of his fitness for the work.

Mr. Gilkey was married January 24, 1884, to Miss Florence Virginia Reed, of Springfield, Ohio, and they have three children. The family residence is on North Broadway.

Officers of the Supreme Court and Law Library.

The Marshal of the Supreme Court is also librarian of the Law Library of the Supreme Court; he is the chief executive officer of the court, is under bond for the care and safekeeping of all the books, furniture and property of the department, and is the crier of the court and the officer in charge of all the rooms, halls and offices assigned to the department. (Sections 423-4 R. S. of Ohio.) The duties of Law Librarian consume practically all of the Marshal's time, and for this reason his office is located in the library rather than adjacent to the court rooms.

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE SUPREME COURT LAW LIBRARY.

The law books forming a part of the State Library were taken to the rooms assigned for the use of the Supreme Court and Law Library in the present Capitol building as soon as said rooms were ready for occupancy. There are no data obtainable showing just when this change was made, but it was about 1858. At this time the number of volumes could not have exceeded a couple of thousand. In 1866, a count showed about 2,500 volumes. The Library was first in charge of the messenger of the Supreme Court, who was assigned the duty of librarian.

At this time there were two officers of the Court—a crier and messenger. Owing to the illness of the messenger during the greater portion of the year of his service, the crier of the court acted as librarian, and furnished an assistant who was compensated under an arrangement with the messenger. In 1867, an act was passed providing for the appointment of a law librarian, taking effect February 9, 1867, and the positions of crier and messenger of the Supreme Court were abolished, the law librarian being made ex-officio crier of the court, said crier to furnish an assistant.

Historical Sketch of the Supreme Court Law Library.

For a number of years the listing of the volumes being added to the Law Library were taken as part of the State Library, and the State Library figures given of the number of the volumes enrolled included all those which had been set apart as the Law Library of the Supreme Court and additions thereto. This was discontinued early in the seventies, and the first record kept, showing additions to the Law Library were made in 1873. From this time on more attention was given the subject of books, and in 1875 the library had grown to nearly four thousand volumes. In 1880, when the first catalogue was made, the library contained about seven thousand five hundred volumes, and at the time of this writing (March 1, 1901) the library counts out a little over twenty thousand volumes.

The first Messenger and Librarian was Richard Riordan, who served about two years. He was succeeded by Herman Ruess, in 1860, who served until February 11, 1866. James H. Beebe was Acting Crier of the Supreme Court, appointed by the Supreme Court April 6, 1865, and re-appointed February 11, 1866, at which time he took charge substantially of the Law Library. On February 16, 1867, a law was passed creating the office of Law Librarian, who, ex-officio, should be the crier of the court. James H. Beebe served in this capacity until his death, July 12, 1880. Frank N. Beebe, who had been serving as an assistant to his father, was appointed Law Librarian, and succeeded his father in charge of the department, July 13, 1880, and served continuously until his death September 27, 1904.

The present incumbent was promoted from Assistant Librarian October 3, 1903, to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Beebe's death, and served out the unexpired term. He was re-elected and installed in charge of the department for the full term of three years, July 1, 1904.

Reporter of the Supreme Court.

HISTORY OF THE OFFICE OF THE SUPREME COURT REPORTER.

February 23, 1816, the State Legislature for the first time (14 O. L., 310) made recognition of the necessity on the part of the Supreme Court for putting in permanent form and properly preserving its opinions accompanying its decisions. January 20, 1823, the legislature amended (21 O. L., 9) the previous act and provided "That the said judges shall appoint a Reporter who shall report all decisions made at said sessions in Columbus and such other important decisions as he may be directed by said judges to report, and cause the same to be published as soon as may be conveniently done after such session."

After the adoption of the new constitution (1851) the General Assembly enacted, section 8, chapter 32 (S. & C., 379) that the Supreme Court should appoint a Reporter whose term of office should continue for three years, and giving special directions as to the reports of the briefs of counsel upon the points made and the authorities cited. From time to time thereafter acts were passed by the General Assembly regulating the methods of publications, sale and distribution of the reports. Under existing legislation the Reporter is appointed by the judges of the court for a term not to exceed three years, at a stipulated salary. The reports are published as a private enterprise by the publisher upon a contract made in behalf of the state by the reporter, form and style of the volume and retail maximum price to the public being determined by statute. Neither the state nor the Reporter has any pecuniary interest in the reports.

Since the creation of the office fourteen different appointees, including the present incumbent, have discharged the duties of Reporter for the Court.

Up to the time of the adoption of the Constitution of 1851, the official Reporters of the Supreme Court were appointed by a joint resolution of the General Assembly notwithstanding section 6 of the law enacted by the legislature January 20, 1823, which reads: "That the said judges (Supreme) shall appoint a Reporter, who shall report all decisions made at said sessions in Columbus and such other important decisions as may be directed by said judges to report, and cause the same to be published as soon as may conveniently be done after such session." (21 O. L., 9.) Under the present Constitution, the reporters have been appointed by the Supreme Court, and serve during the statutory term of three years.

The names of the reporters, together with their terms of service, and the "State or Ohio State Reports" issued by them is given in the following tabulated statement:

Mr. Emerson is but 41 years of age, but is a young man of wide experience in court affairs and of well known capacity. He is specially fitted for the position which he is now holding and his three years' administration of the office of Clerk of the Supreme Court has given universal satisfaction throughout the state. He was renominated for a second term June 18, 1904.

THE COURTS OF COMMON PLEAS.

REGARDING these courts the Constitution of 1802 contained the following provision:

ARTICLE III, SECTION 3. The several Courts of Common Pleas shall consist of a President and Associate Judges. The state shall be divided, by law, into three circuits: there shall be appointed in each circuit a President of the courts, who, during his continuation in office, shall reside therein. There shall be appointed in each county not more than three nor less than two Associate Judges, who, during their continuance in office, shall reside therein. The President and Associate Judges in their respective counties, any three of whom shall be a quorum, shall compose the Court of Common Pleas; which court shall have common law and chancery jurisdiction in all such cases as shall be directed by law: provided, that nothing here contained shall be construed to prevent the Legislature from increasing the number of circuits and Presidents after the term of five years (et seq.).

THE COURTS OF COMMON PLEAS SINCE 1851.

THE Constitution of 1851 contained the following provisions by which the state was permanently subdivided into Common Pleas Districts, and these again divided into three subdistricts each, and the election of the Judges of these courts vested in the people of the subdivision instead of in the General Assembly as heretofore.

Article, 4, Section 3. The State shall be divided into nine Common Pleas Districts of which the county of Hamilton shall constitute one, of compact territory and bounded by county lines, and each of said districts, consisting of three or more counties, shall be subdivided into three parts of compact territory, and bounded by county lines, and as nearly equal in population as practicable; in each of which one Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for said district, and residing therein, shall be elected by the electors of said subdivision. Courts of Common Pleas shall be held by one or more of these Judges in every county in the district, as often as may be provided by law; and more than one court, or sitting thereof, may be held at the same time in each district.

Article 4, Section 4. The jurisdiction of the Courts of Common Pleas, and of the Judges thereof, shall be fixed by law. (See Const. 1802, Art. III, §§ 3, 4, 5, 6.)

The first election for Judges under the new Constitution was held on the second Tuesday of October, 1851. The term of the old Judges and Clerks was extended by Section 4 of the Schedule, to the 2d Monday of February, 1852, at which the new Judges began their terms of office.

THE PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES FROM OHIO.

DURING the first half century of her existence, the new state furnished but one President of the United States, but he a man typical of the "Ohio spirit" and a popular leader of civilizing influences throughout the new Northwest. In the latter half of the century or, since the close of the civil war, every successful candidate for the Presidency upon the Republican ticket; in fact, every man save one, who has been elected to the Presidency from 1864 to 1901; every President since Lincoln, excepting only Grover Cleveland of New York, has been a resident, or a former resident of Ohio. Two of the number died in office: William Henry Harrison and James A. Garfield. Every one of the illustrious group had won their spurs on the field of battle for the Union, and had sharpened their lances in the halls of the Congress of the United States and were men of wide statesmanship and national reputation prior to their elevation to the highest office in the gift of the American people.

The country has signally honored Ohio in selecting her sons to guide the destinies of the Great Republic; Ohio has given of her best and truest whenever and wherever possible to give. The name of him who now sits President of this Republic from Ohio, is not the least among the number of men thus elevated in public duty, conspicuous figures before the world. (See note.)

SENATORS OF THE UNITED STATES FROM OHIO.

THE representation from Ohio in the Senate of the United States began with the election by the General Assembly, in joint session in the hall of the House of Representatives, Chillicothe, on the first day of April, 1803, of two senators from Ohio in the persons of John Smith of Hamilton County, and Thomas Worthington of Ross County. The term of Senator Worthington expired on the 4th of March, 1807, and to succeed him, the General Assembly in the January preceding, elected Governor Edward Tiffin. By a resolution of December 20, 1806, the Assembly requested Senator John Smith to "either resign his seat in the Senate of the United States, or to proceed at once to his post." The resignation followed in 1808, and Judge Return J. Meigs, Jr., of the Supreme Court, was elected to succeed him and was also re-elected to succeed himself, in a joint session of the two houses of the Assembly held on the 12th day of December, 1808. Senator Smith had served with distinction as a member of the territorial legislature, and is highly spoken of by the venerable Judge Burnett in his Notes on the Northwest Territory. His resignation was brought about by his supposed sympathy with the conspiracy of Aaron Burr.

Thomas Worthington was returned to the senate by the General Assembly in 1810 to succeed Senator Meigs, who had resigned to accept the office of Governor of the state.

With this beginning of her representation in the councils of "the highest legislative body known in history," Ohio has since been represented in that body by men who have stood for the best and broadest type of aggressive Americanism. The membership in the Senate of the United States from Ohio has been as follows:

REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS FROM OHIO.

THE representation from Ohio in the Congress, is regulated as to localities by the action of the General Assembly, in apportioning the state into congressional districts from time to time on the ratio of population fixed by the Congress for that purpose. From 1803 to 1812 Ohio had but one congressional district and but one representative in the person of Jeremiah Morrow, afterward Governor of the State, and U. S. Senator. From 1813 to 1823 the state was divided into six congressional districts; from 1823 to 1833 there were 14 districts; from 1833 to 1843 there were 19 districts; from 1843 to 1903 the present number, 21. In the following tables which give the membership in the National House of Representatives from Ohio during the first hundred years of statehood, it will be noticed that in the several re-arrangements of the districts which have occurred by legislative authority the numerical numbers have been held in succession by widely separated sections of the state, and that members of Congress who are well-known residents in one locality seem to have represented territory outside their supposed residence district. These apparent discrepancies are caused by the legislative re-arrangement and re-numbering of the several districts from time to time. With this borne in mind, the following tables will be found a convenient record of "the gentlemen from Ohio" who have played no insignificant part in the history of these United States, and many of whom are celebrated figures in general history.

NICHOLAS LONGWORTH, OF CINCINNATI.

Nicholas Longworth, Republican, was born November 5, 1869. He is a son of the late Judge Nicholas Longworth, grandson of the late Joseph Longworth, who endowed the Cincinnati Art School, and great-grandson of Nicholas Longworth, one of the early residents of Cincinnati. Was educated in Cincinnati, entered Harvard University, and was graduated therefrom in 1891. After spending a year at the Cincinnati Law School he studied for a year at the Harvard Law School, and the following year was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School and admitted to the bar.

He was candidate for the legislature in 1897, on the Republican ticket and defeated with the rest of the ticket. Was again a candidate in 1899, and was elected, being one of the three Republicans who were elected to the legislature in that year, the other two being Harry M. Hoffheimer and the Lieutenant-Governor, Carl L. Nippert. Was a member of the Republican state executive committee in the last presidential campaign, and is now a member of that body. Is a member of the Blaine Club and of the Stamina Republican League. Elected to State Senate November, 1901, by 14,000 majority.

Was chairman of the committee on Taxation, and a member of the standing committees on County Affairs, Judiciary, Municipal Corporations, Privileges and Elections, Public Expenditures, Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, and State Buildings.

Was author of the Bond Law to enable municipalities to issue bonds in conformity with the decisions of the Supreme Court relative to classification; of the law providing a method for voting on constitutional amendments and of a number of measures relating to taxation.

Shortly after the close of the regular session of the General Assembly was appointed by Governor Nash, together with the Honorable Wade H. Ellis, now Attorney General of Ohio, to draft the new municipal code and introduced that measure at the extraordinary session of the General Assembly called by the Governor. Was chairman of the conference committee to adjust differences between the House and the Senate; was nominated for Congress from the First District of Ohio during the extraordinary session and elected by fifteen thousand plurality; was a member of the Republican state executive committee the following year and chairman of the speakers' bureau. Is a member of the committee on Foreign Affairs and Pensions in the national House of Representatives; is the member from Ohio on the Republican congressional committee and a member of the executive committee of that body; was nominated for Congress on May 7th without opposition.

Amos Henry Jackson, Republican, of Fremont, was born in Delaware County, New York, near the village of Franklin, May 10, 1847; in 1854 moved with his parents to Gibson, Steuben County, N. Y., where he attended the village school until 1862, when the family moved to a farm near Corning, N. Y., where he worked with his father until 1866. About this time he was seized with the spirit of the day among lads of his age, "a burning desire to go west;" and having up to this time managed to accumulate about $500, taking this fund with him he started across the continent landing first in St. Louis. While waiting for a train at this point he fell asleep in the railroad station and when he awoke he found himself minus his roll of cash, which prevented him from going farther west and compelled him to take employment at whatever he could find. For a time he found work on some bridge building, but soon after started out for himself in the street-vending business, which he continued to follow very successfully until 1882, when he engaged in the manufacture of muslin and flannelette garments for men, women and children, with factories at Fremont, Sandusky, Tiffin and Clyde, Ohio; is president of the Jackson Knife & Shear Company, of Fremont; was elected mayor of Fremont in 1897, and re-elected in 1899, serving two terms; was married November 28, 1872, to Miss Mary Sharp, of Fremont, and they have three daughters; was elected to the Fifty-eighth Congress, receiving 22,496 to 22,169 for James A. Norton, Democrat, 441 for Hewson L. Peeke, Prohibitionist, and 402 for Charles R. Martin, Socialist Labor. In this Congress he served on the committee on Patents, and the committee on Manufactures.

POPULATION OF OHIO BY COUNTIES DURING AND AT THE CLOSE OF THE FIRST CENTURY OF STATE HISTORY.

(Compiled from the Twelfth Census of the United States.)

THE first census of that part of the United States which is now the State of Ohio, was taken in 1800, under the government of the Northwest Territory. For purposes of comparison by decades, the census of 1800 is treated as though it was under the present government, but it should be remembered that the "Wayne County" of 1800, is not identical with the "Wayne County" of 1900, but was the early century name for Northwestern Ohio and the State of Michigan. It should also be remembered that in 1800 Hamilton County covered the whole western part of the present state up to the present site of the city of Lima; that Trumbull, Jefferson, and Washington Counties covered the territory from the present site of Ironton on the Ohio river up the Ohio river and almost to the lake; that the central part of Ohio from the river to Upper Sandusky comprised the counties of Adams, Ross, and Tuscarawas, with the northwestern quarter of the present state joined with Michigan, under the name of Wayne County. The State of Ohio was organized by the adoption of its first constitution at Chillicothe, November 29, 1802.

Population of Ohio by Counties, Etc.

The population of the state in 1900 is 4,157,545 as compared with the population in 1890 of 3,672,316, representing an increase during the last ten years of 485,229, or 13.2 percent. This rate of increase is slightly less than that for the decade immediately preceding, when it was 14.8 percent, although the numerical increase is somewhat greater. During the earlier decades of the century the state increased in population rapidly, but the greatest numerical increase (581,564) occurred in the decade from 1830 to 1840. Since 1850 the development of the state in population has been comparatively steady.

The population of Ohio in 1900 is more than ninety-one times as large as that given for 1800, the census taken two years before it became a state.

The total land surface of Ohio is, approximately, 40,760 square miles, the average number of persons to the square mile at the censuses of 1890 and 1900 being as follows: 1890, 90.1; 1900, 102.0.

†Decrease.

Population of the Principal Cities of Ohio, 1810-1900.

All of the above named cities received marked accessions to their population during the last ten years, preceding the census of 1900, those having increased by the largest percentage being Toledo, 61.9 percent; Akron, 54.8 percent; Cleveland, 46.1 percent; and Columbus, 42.4 percent. Largest numerical gains during the decade are found in Cleveland, Toledo and Columbus. With a single exception in one decade each of these cities has increased in population steadily, but the rate of growth has been irregular and has shown no uniform trend of change. For Cincinnati, Cleveland and Springfield, however, that rate since 1870 has steadily declined, a change in harmony with the usual tendency of large urban centers.

THE OHIO CAPITOL BUILDINGS.

THE Capitol Buildings of the State of Ohio stand in the principal square in the city of Columbus, in a park containing over ten acres of well cultivated lawns and native forestry, on land which was given to the state by the proprietors of the town site, in 1812. The name "Columbus" was selected for the town and bestowed upon it by the General Assembly at a later date.

The illustrations on the frontispece give some idea of the style of building but fall far short, in dignity and point of finish, of doing justice to either the old Capitol Building or the new Department of Justice.

The original "State House," erected by the grantors of the public grounds on condition that Columbus—then unsettled—should be chosen for the Capital of Ohio,—was a series or row of brick buildings on High street, beginning at State street and running north along the present property to a point about halfway to the present west entrance to the "State House yard." These structures were burned Sunday morning, February 1, 1852. The old Capitol Building, as it is now called, was begun in April, 1839, and was partially completed and dedicated in January, 1857. The corner stone was laid July 4, 1839. The building was finished in 1861 and was a useful rendezvous for troops gathering for service in the Union Army during the Civil War. The Department of Justice Building was built under an act of the 73rd General Assembly, adjoining the old Capitol at the terrace on the east. It thus occupies the Third street front of the Capitol grounds and, being of similar architecture to its predecessor, adds to, rather than detracts from the simple beauty of the structure.

As an illustration of the advance in structural science a comparison of the two methods of building is interesting. The original structure was begun in 1838, and finished in 1861. Deducting for time consumed in numberless interruptions, the time actually spent in the building of it, was fifteen years; the cost $1,360,000; the labor was that of idle convicts from the Penitentiary; the material, dressed limestone from state quarries west of the city. The new building was authorized in 1898; corner stone was laid February 16, 1899, and on the 1st of September, 1901, the several departments assigned to this building are taking possession of their beautiful quarters. The exterior of the new building is of dressed limestone; the trusses are of steel. The actual time of building was three years, the cost $450,000, and the foot-space of public offices equal to about one-half that of the main building. The old building is 304 feet in its longest dimensions (north and south) and 184 feet wide (east and west, covering about two acres of ground. The height from the ground to outside pinnacle of the central dome is 128 feet; from floor of the rotunda to the eye of this dome is 120 feet; from floor of the rotunda to the upper skylight is 136 feet. The diameter of the rotunda floor is 64 feet 5 inches and the floor contains 4,892 pieces of marble. The cupola surrounding the dome (which was never completed as originally designed) is 75 feet in diameter. There are 53 rooms in the Capitol Building. The new Department of Justice or Law Building is 220 feet north and south by 100 feet east and west and contains three full stories and a clear story on the east side. The rotunda is finished in marble and tastefully decorated, with an architectural effect said to be unequalled in the west. The building contains 55 rooms and was primarily intended, as the name implies, to house the Supreme Court, the Clerk of the Court, the Supreme Court Library, and the Attorney General's department. These departments occupy practically all of the second and third floors, the first story being devoted to the departments of Agriculture, Health, Insurance and Public Works.

THE OHIO STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

THE Ohio State Board of Agriculture was created by an act of the General Assembly, passed February 27, 1846. The Board consists of ten members, two being elected each year for a period of five years. The office of the Board—Department of Agriculture—is in the State House, the Secretary being the chief officer. The Secretary, Assistant Secretary, Veterinarians, Inspectors, Chemists, Statisticians, Librarians and clerks constitute an official force of more than twenty people, constantly on duty.

The department has an extensive agricultural library of about seven thousand volumes, and through regular exchanges, receipt of government documents, gifts, purchases, etc., it is rapidly growing. These books and documents are available for reference to all who wish to use them.

The annual Ohio State Fair is conducted under the management of the Board. The first fair was held in Cincinnati, October 5-7, 1850, and a fair has been held each year since that time, except 1888, when the Ohio Centennial took its place. From 1850 until 1874 the fair was held in the principal cities of the state, the cities offering the greatest inducements, in the way of financial aid, securing it. In 1874 the Board concluded to establish the fair permanently and centrally at the Capital of the state. The grounds of the Franklin County Agricultural Society (now Franklin Park), were rented until 1886, when the fair was transferred to grounds just north of the city, which the Board had purchased three years previously. These Fair Grounds, which contain one hundred and fifteen acres, have been beautifully ornamented by lakes, trees, shrubs, etc., and fine buildings have been erected for the various classes of exhibits, at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars.

The live stock buildings are the largest and best in the country. The horse building is three hundred and thirty-two feet square and will accommodate over five hundred horses; and in addition to this, there are barns provided for speed and fancy horses. The cattle, sheep, and swine buildings are a little smaller than the horse building, but are similar to it in all details and have ample accommodations for immense exhibits.

These structures are brick and stone, with slate roofs. Broad, clean walks extend through all the buildings, and visitors can view the animals in their stalls and pens, with the same degree of comfort that is experienced in passing through the buildings wherein are exhibited the displays of manufactured articles, merchandise, art, etc.

The Ohio State Board of Agriculture.

The State Fair has increased each year since being established on permanent grounds, until now it is recognized as a great Industrial Exposition, and important State Institution. To meet the annually increasing demands of exhibitors, additional buildings have been required and supplied, and many new departments have been created to systematize the exhibits and give ample educational facilities. The annual exhibitions are conducted strictly along educational lines, and the people are thus benefitted and the various industries of the state increased and strengthened.

In 1880 the system of crop reporting was inaugurated by the Board, with a corps of about eight hundred volunteer reporters, reports being made quarterly; since that time the number of correspondents has about doubled, the scope of the work has been enlarged and for a number of years the publication has been issued monthly.

In 1881 a law was passed by the General Assembly charging the Secretary of the Board with the duty of licensing the sale of commercial fertilizers in the state, and also sampling and analyzing the same, and publishing the results for general distribution. This work has been successfully pursued by the secretary and the results have been very satisfactory, both to consumers of commercial fertilizers and to manufacturers of the same. The work has grown gradually, from small beginnings, until now a very large business is done and a considerable force is employed in the inspection, chemical analysis, etc.

In the winter of 1880-81 the Board entered upon the work of holding farmers' institutes, and twenty-seven successful meetings were held that winter. The number increased gradually until 1889-90, when sixty-two meetings were held. During the winter of 1890-91 the General Assembly, recognizing the value of farmers' institutes to the agriculturists of the state, passed a law making liberal provision for their support, thus enabling the Board to largely increase its work in this direction. In 1890-91 one hundred and twenty-four institutes were established and held by the Board; each season since the demand for institutes has increased quite beyond the means provided.

On May 7, 1902, the General Assembly passed an act creating the Ohio State Board of Agriculture the Board of Live Stock Commissioners. The Board organized, by selecting the same officers as those serving the State Board of Agriculture, and appointed Dr. Paul Fischer, of Columbus, State Veterinarian. The work of the Division was entered upon at once and has been actively prosecuted since.

The General Assembly enacted a law on May 10, 1902, transferring the work of inspecting nurseries and orchards from the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station to the Department of Agriculture. The work was taken up promptly. Mr. A. F. Burgess was appointed Chief Inspector and several Assistant Inspectors were also appointed; all being actively engaged in the work of the Division at the present time.

In 1904 the General Assembly enacted a law to "regulate the sale of commercial feed stuffs in Ohio," which law makes it the duty of the Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture to inspect and analyze commercial feed stuffs, to issue license for their sale, publish a report of analyses, and prosecute for violation of the law.

LIST OF MEMBERS OF THE OHIO STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE FROM THE ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD TO DATE.

(NOTE.—The law creating the State Board of Agriculture, passed in 1846, provided for fifty-three members and named them. The act was amended in 1847, reducing the number of members to ten. Five members were elected each year for a term of two years until 1898, when the law was so amended as to provide for the election of two members each year for a term of five years.)

OHIO AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION AT WOOSTER.

THE Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station was established by an act of the General Assembly, passed April 17, 1882; its object being, as recited in this act, "for the benefit of the interests of practical and scientific agriculture, and for the development of the vast agricultural resources of the State." The station never had any organic connection with the State University, but it was at first located at that institution, a few acres of land being set apart for its use and the Professor of Horticulture in the University being made its first Director, this office being transferred to the Professor of Agriculture at a later date.

In 1887 the National Congress passed an act now known as "the Hatch act," appropriating $15,000 annually to each state and territory for the establishment of Agricultural Experiment Stations, these stations to be organized in connection with the colleges which had been or might be established under what is popularly known as the "agricultural college act of 1862," except that, in states which had previously established agricultural experiment stations separate from such colleges, permission was given to devote the appropriation to such separate stations.

This course was followed in Ohio, and the experiment Station was re-organized, Charles E. Thorne being made Director, and the major part of the University farm being assigned to the use of the Station.

The rapid growth of the City of Columbus around the University soon showed that the time must come when its lands would become too valuable to be used for purposes of agriculture, and the permanent and largely increased income now assured to the Station made it seem necessary that it should be so established that its work might be continued indefinitely without interruption. The General Assembly therefore passed an act authorizing the several counties of the state to issue bonds for the purchase of lands and the erection of buildings for the use of the Station and to bid for its location. Several counties immediately took action under this law, and the offer of $85,000, made by Wayne county, was accepted by the Board of Control of the Station; the bonds were sold, several adjoining farms, lying near the city of Wooster, were purchased and the erection of buildings was at once commenced.

A dissatisfied citizen of Wayne county afterward brought suit to contest the constitutionality of the law under which the county had thus bonded itself. The common pleas and circuit courts both declared the law valid, but these decisions were reversed in the Supreme Court, on the ground that the people of that part of the state were taxed for the support of an institution intended for the benefit of the whole state (see Constitution of Ohio), and it was held that the incidental benefits derived from the proximity of the Station were no justification for the extra taxation for its support. This decision seriously interrupted the work of the Station, but after about two years the General Assembly assumed the payment of the bonds and has since made provision for the completion of the buildings necessary for the Station's work. These comprise the Administration Building and Chemical Laboratory, which is built in fire-proof construction of the yellowish sandstone found on the Station farm; a block of greenhouses, 80 x 115 feet, with stone offices in front; a small biological laboratory; four large barns and a number of smaller ones; a fully equipped creamery, and seven dwellings. The Station owns 470 acres of land, in which it has laid about 26 miles of tile drains. It has planted about 20 acres in orchards, in which more than 700 varieties of fruit are now in bearing. It has about 70 pure bred cattle, of six different breeds, and similar flocks of pure bred sheep.

As originally organized, the board of control of the Station consisted of the Governor of the State, three persons appointed by him, and the person whom these should select as the director of the Station. At the request of Governor Nash the 75th General Assembly so modified this law as to relieve the Governor and the director from membership in the board. At the same time the law was so amended as to place the management of the Station distinctly in the hands of the director, subject to general regulations made by the board of control, thus following the practice of the state in the management of all its public institutions.

Under the amended law the Governor appointed as members of the board of control, Hon. Friend Whittlesey, Alva Agee, D. D. White, O. E. Bradfute and D. L. Sampson. This new board organized March 3rd, and at their request the General Assembly transferred the work of orchard and nursery inspection to the State Board of Agriculture, thus relieving the Experiment Station from all police work and leaving it free to devote its energies wholly to scientific research in agriculture.

The work of the Station is now organized in four departments: (1) Executive; (2) Agricultural; (3) Horticultural, and (4) Department of Plant Physiology and Pathology. Within the Executive Department are organized Sections of Entomology and Chemistry, each department and section being in charge of a specialist.

THE ATHENS STATE HOSPITAL.

THE Athens State Hospital was under the process of construction from 1868 until January 9, 1874, when the first patients were admitted. The first two admissions to the institution were Thos. Armstrong and Daniel Fernaw. Mr. Armstrong died within a few months and Mr. Fernaw has been until now an inmate of the institution.

Dr. Richard Gundry was made Superintendent of Construction in June, 1872, and remained Superintendent until the 15th of December, 1876, when he resigned to assume the superintendency of the newly constructed asylum at Columbus. Upon the resignation of Dr. Gundry the superintendency of the institution devolved upon the senior assistant physician, Dr. Thos. Blackstone, now of Circleville, Ohio, who managed its affairs discreetly and faithfully. On the 16th of January, 1877, Dr. C. L. Wilson, of Indianapolis, Ind., was chosen to fill the vacancy. He being declared ineligible by the Supreme Court, Dr. H. C. Rutter was elected by the board of trustees to fill the vacancy. Dr. Rutter was then a resident of Bellefontaine, Ohio. The next superintendent was Dr. P. H. Clarke, of Meigs county. Dr. Holden, of Zanesville, was then appointed to succeed Dr. Clarke. On the 6th of May, 1880, Dr. H. C. Rutter was re-appointed and he resigned his position in February, 1881, and Dr. A. B. Richardson was elected to fill the vacancy. Dr. Richardson resigned the superintendency April 17, 1890, and Dr. W. P. Crumbacker was appointed to the place. Dr. Crumbacker resigned May 19, 1892, and Dr. C. O. Dunlap was appointed. He resigned June 1, 1896, and Dr. E. H. Rorick was appointed to fill his place. While it can be said that the Athens State Hospital never had an inefficient superintendent it will be noticed on the other hand that two of the superintendents (Dr. Gundry and Dr. Richardson) attained a national reputation in their line of work.

The original capacity of the institution was only 572, but by new arrangements and some additions to the buildings the capacity has been enlarged to 813. The greatest number of patients ever in the institution at one time, which has been during the present year, was 1,012. The institution is surrounded by grounds which are both spacious and beautiful, containing walks, drives, gardens, and artificial lakes, abutting on the south bank of the beautiful Hocking river.

The present officers of the institution are: Board of Trustees—Dr. S. B. Lightner, Sabina, President; Virgil C. Lowry, Wm. H. Williams, Columbus; John Kaiser, Marietta, and J. P. Bradbury, Pomeroy. Resi-

THE CLEVELAND STATE HOSPITAL,

THE Cleveland State Hospital, with a capacity of one hundred and two, was opened March 5, 1855, by Dr. L. Firestone, with about fifty patients, whose disabilities required the attention of but one assistant physician. The district consisted of twenty-two counties, embracing about one-third of the state. The institution steadily increased in size and number of patients until September, 1872, when it was almost entirely destroyed by fire. But few lives were lost, however, and the patients numbering some three hundred, were temporarily quartered in the other public institutions of the city and state. An act providing for the re-construction of the building was passed March 18, 1873, and work was begun immediately. It was not completed, however, until January, 1875. Some years later the building was enlarged by the addition of six wards, and in 1893 two convalescent cottages were added, making our present capacity one thousand.

Eighteen hundred and ninety-six and 1897 saw the construction of a beautiful amusement hall on the grounds of the institution. It has a seating capacity of eight hundred, the basement being fitted up with an improved system of bathing, lecture room, tailor shop, barber shop, etc. Religious services are conducted in the hall on Sunday, and a dance, in which both patients and employes participate, on Wednesday night of each week.

In 1897 the congregate dining room was opened, in which six hundred patients are fed three times daily, during which time music is rendered by the orchestra.

As the years rolled by, customs changed and the city built up, the footprints of Time were nowhere more clearly marked than in the State Hospital. From the old-fashioned "Lunatic Asylum" it has slowly but surely developed into one of the most modern and well-appointed institutions of the country. We now have our own electric light plant, ice manufactory, training school for nurses, detention hospital, and in fact all the conveniences and appliances of modern times that tend to further the solving of the great problem of caring for the insane. In the meantime, owing to the rapid increase of the population of both the city and state, and the corresponding increase in the number of insane to be cared for, other institutions of a like nature have been erected in the state, in consequence of which the Cleveland State Hospital district now embraces but six counties, which gives a daily average of eleven hundred patients.

Cleveland township, in which the Cleveland State Hospital is situated, was not at the time of the opening of the institution a part of the City of Cleveland, but constituted what was then a part of the village of Newburgs, an incorporation separate and apart from the city. Since that time, however, Newburgh has been annexed to the city, and at the present time the southern city limit lies quite a distance south of the institution.

The Hospital is situated on an elevated piece of land in the southern part of the township, the grounds occupying ninety-eight acres, the greater part of which is laid out in park. The stately building with its solemn grey stone walls can be seen for several miles, and is a noted landmark.

THE COLUMBUS STATE HOSPITAL.

THE "Lunatic Asylum of Ohio" was organized by Act of the Thirty-fourth General Assembly, passed March 5, 1835, sixty-two years ago, and Samuel Parsons, William M. Awl and Samuel F. MacCracken were appointed Directors.

These Directors selected a tract of land about one mile east and north of the State House, in Columbus, comprising thirty acres. This tract fronted south on what is now East Broad street, and the western boundary was near what is now Washington avenue,

During the next three years they erected a building on these grounds, at a cost of about sixty-one thousand ($61,000) dollars.

The institution accommodated one hundred and twenty patients, and was the first institution for the treatment of the insane organized west of the Alleghenies. A very fair representation of the building is given on the second page, which is a copy of a painting made by an inmate of the asylum, and the original of which is still in the possession of the present Hospital.

On May 21, 1838, William M. Awl, M. D., of Columbus, was elected Medical Superintendent by the Trustees, and the first patient was received on November 30 of that year.

The building was two hundred and ninety-five feet in length and contained one hundred and fifty-three single rooms. The Directors apologized for the apparently extravagant size by saying that it would be required in a few years. Yet it was the only asylum the state then had. Now—1900-1-2—the state has accommodations for more than seven thousand five hundred patients in the several "State Hospitals" at Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Longview, Massillon and Toledo, and every institution is crowded to its full capacity.

Dr. Awl was in charge as Superintendent until 1850, a period of twelve years, when he was succeeded by Samuel H. Smith, M. D. He was succeeded in 1852 by E. Kendrick, M. D., and he by George E. Eels, M. D., in June, 1854. On August 1, 1855, Dr. Richard Gundry, who later became so prominent in the care of the insane in Ohio and the United States, was appointed assistant Physician.

In July, 1856, Dr. R. Hills, of Delaware, was appointed Superintendent. He held the position for several years, and was succeeded by Dr. William L. Peck.

On the evening of November 18, 1868, the asylum caught fire, and was almost wholly destroyed. There were three hundred and fourteen patients in the asylum, and six were suffocated by the smoke before they could be rescued. The others were removed to the asylums at Cleveland, Dayton and Cincinnati, which had been built since this one was organized.

On April 23, 1869, an Act was passed by the Legislature authorizing the re-building of the asylum on the old grounds, and contracts were let September 23, 1869, and work was begun on the foundation October 24th of that year. Winter soon stopped the work, however, and during the ensuing session of the Legislature, on the 18th of April, 1870, a bill was passed authorizing the sale of the old tract and the purchase of a new site to contain three hundred acres of land.

Governor R. B. Hayes, State Treasurer S. S. Warner, and Attorney General F. B. Pond were appointed a Commission to sell the old site and to purchase a new one. They were required to sell the old site at a price not less than $200,000, and to purchase a new site of not less than three hundred acres at a cost of not to exceed $100,000.

The Commission reported in favor of the purchase of three hundred acres from Wm. S. Sullivant, on the high lands west of Columbus and across the Scioto valley, paying therefor two hundred and fifty dollars per acre.

The Trustees took charge of this tract, which is the present site of the Hospital, on May 5, 1870. The site of the old building was determined upon, work was begun under the old contracts, which had been transferred to the new site, and the corner-stone was laid on July 4th of that year.

The institution was finally completed on July 4, 1877, just seven years from the laying of the corner-stone, on July 4, 1870.

The total cost of construction at the time of the opening was $1,520,980.45—at the time of writing (1901) the cost of construction has exceeded $2,000,000.

The first patient was admitted into the new Hospital on August 23, 1877, and this patient is still an inmate of the institution, twenty years later.

The Hospital, as completed, stands on an elevated plateau about three miles west of High street, on the north side of Broad street, facing almost directly east. It consists of a central Administration Building and two wings, of four sections each, and a rear wing. The lateral wings and the Administration Building have a lineal frontage of about 1,200 feet, and the rear wing and Administration Building have a depth of about 800 feet. It is nearly all four stories in height, and the distance around the foundation walls is about one and one-quarter miles. The building, when opened, accommodated eight hundred and fifty-two patients. In the wings for the patients there were four hundred single rooms and one hundred and sixteen associated dormitories for the use of patients. There were twenty-eight wards from 120 to 180 feet in length, and each ward contained bath, lavatory, water-closet, clothing room and two rooms for attendants.

During the last two years the Hospital has added to its capacity two cottages. These buildings are situated in a grove on the hospital grounds just a short distance west of the main institution. Together they will accommodate about 200 or 225 patients.

One of these buildings for the chronic insane was named for Dr. Wm. W. Awl, the first superintendent of an asylum for the insane in the state of Ohio. This building is intended for the treatment of the incurable cases.

"Greer" cottage is situated a short distance west of "Awl" and is named for Hon. H. H. Greer, President of the Board of Trustees of this institution. It is expected to treat only the acute and curable cases in this cottage. At present these cottages are being fitted up and when they are occupied the entire capacity of the hospital will be close to 1,600 patients.

THE DAYTON STATE HOSPITAL.

THE DAYTON DISTRICT comprises ten counties, viz.: Montgomery, Brown, Butler, Darke, Greene, Miami, Preble, Shelby, Warren and Clermont. The Dayton State Hospital was first occupied September, 1855, with a capacity of 162, known as the Southern Ohio Lunatic Asylum. In the year 1875, it was changed to Western Ohio Hospital for the Insane; in 1877, to the Dayton Hospital for the Insane; in 1878, to the Dayton Asylum for the Insane, and in 1894, to the Dayton State Hospital. The hospital is located on a hill southeast of the city of Dayton, adjoining the corporation two miles from the court house. It is on the congregate plan, consisting of the administration building, four stories in height, and the wards on either side three stories in height.

The original building contained six wards, three on either side of the administration building, with a capacity of 164. In 1861, the capacity of the Hospital was increased to 600 by the addition of six wards on each side. In 1891 it was again enlarged by the addition of congregate dining rooms, one on each side, which increased the capacity 170, giving us a total capacity at this time of 770.

The Hospital at this time has a frontage of 940 feet, and is uniformly three stories in height, except the administration building, which is four stories and surmounted by a cupola. The state property consists of about 300 acres, 40 acres of which are in lawn; also four artificial lakes, which are about four acres in extent.

The Hospital is controlled by a board of five trustees, appointed by the Governor, whose tenure of office is five years; the term of one trustee expiring each year.

The annual expenditure for the support of the Hospital is about $150,000.00.

Two detached cottages of 100 capacity each have this year been erected.

THE LONGVIEW STATE HOSPITAL.

THIS Asylum is one of the notable charities of Hamilton county, for which the State of Ohio makes annual appropriations. It is the outgrowth of a combination of circumstances which have determined its peculiar legal status. It has been the subject of more than thirty years of contention, and its history is that of a great political wrong; and an account of its establishment, growth and present condition might not be uninteresting to the general public.

The first asylum for the insane erected in Ohio was built in Cincinnati, under an act of the Legislature, passed January 22, 1821, entitled, "an Act establishing a Commercial Hospital and Lunatic Asylum for the state of Ohio."

By the terms of this enactment the trustees of Cincinnati township were to furnish a site for said institution, containing not less than four acres of land, within one mile of the public landing on the Ohio river, and erect the necessary buildings (which were to be of brick) for the safe-keeping, comfort and medical treatment of such idiots, lunatics and insane persons of this state as might be brought to it for these purposes. The trustees were to receive certain compensation for the care of such patients, to be paid by the county sending the same, if paupers, or by the friends or guardians, if the patients had estates.

In addition, the trustees were required to admit and care for, free of charge, all boatmen belonging to boats owned by citizens of Ohio or to boats of the citizens of other states which provided hospital accommodations to boatmen of this state. They were also required to receive into said institution, and care for, all the paupers of Cincinnati township.

The institution was to be known as "The Commercial Hospital and Lunatic Asylum of Ohio." The state donated, for the purpose of assisting in the erection of said asylum, $10,000 in depreciated or uncurrent bank bills then in the state treasury, from which were realized $3,500 in specie.

The Commercial Hospital and Lunatic Asylum of Ohio was the parent institution from which afterwards sprung the Orphan Asylum, the City Infirmery, the Cincinnati Hospital and Longview Asylum. It was the beginning, on the part of the state, which has led to the establishment of the great benevolent institutions of which every citizen of Ohio is justly proud.

The legislature, on March 7, 1835, authorized the purchase of land for a lunatic asylum, and at the next session authorized the erection of an asylum for the insane on the land recently purchased for that purpose at Columbus. Said institution was to be known as the Lunatic Asylum of Ohio. On March 9, 1838, an act was passed, entitled, "an act to provide for the safe-keeping of idiots, lunatics or insane persons, the management of their affairs and for other purposes," which required all persons found to be lunatics to be sent to the Ohio Lunatic Asylum, and repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provision of said act. Thus the Cincinnati Hospital and Lunatic Asylum of Ohio ceased to be a state institution on March 9, 1838, although the name remained till March 11, 1861, when it was changed to Commercial Hospital of Cincinnati.

The state afterwards built two additional hospitals for the insane, one at Dayton and the other in the northern part of Ohio, and on April 7, 1856, the legislature passed "an act to provide for the uniform government and better regulation of the lunatic asylums of the state and the care of idiots and insane," which divided the state into three districts, known as the Northern, Central and Southern Districts. Hamilton county, together with thirteen other counties, constituted the Southern District, the asylum for which was located at Dayton, but, on March 10, 1857, the legislature passed an act making Hamilton county a separate district for lunatic asylum purposes, and providing for the erection and government of an asylum therein, and that the commissioners shall cause all the insane of the county to be placed in such asylum when completed. The act further provided that the inmates of the asylum be supported and the salaries of its officers paid from "a fund consisting of all the money raised in the county of Hamilton by county tax for the support of idiots, lunatics and insane persons, and of such appropriations as shall be made by the state for the support of curable lunatics in said asylum, equal to the amount annually raised by taxation from the county of Hamilton for the support of lunatic asylums in the state." An act of April 28, 1873, which repealed the provision of the act of 1857, and substituted in its place a law which provided that Hamilton county should receive, for the support of Longview Asylum, a sum which should bear such a proportion to the entire appropriations for the support of the curable insane of the state as the population of Hamilton county bears to the population of the state outside of said county.

The injustice of the law of 1873 has been so apparent that no General Assembly since 1880 has insisted on its enforcement. In the years 1880 to 1883, both inclusive, the legislature appropriated $10,000 each year in excess of the amount due under the statute of 1873. Since 1883 the legislature has wholly disregarded the rule of 1873, and has appropriated to Longview gross sums, in the same manner that appropriations were made to the other asylums.

The Longview State Hospital.

The care of the insane in Hamilton county is an exception to the general system of the state, and for more than twenty years spasmodic efforts have been made on the part of the state to acquire the ownership and control of Longview, and to make it part of the state system, but to no practical end.

A new building to accommodate two hundred and fifty patients has been constructed by the county of Hamilton at an expense of $100,000.00.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LONGVIEW HOSPITAL.

The Board of Directors of Longview consists of five members, two of whom are appointed by the Governor, and one each by the Common Pleas Court, the Probate Judge and the County Commissioners. They hold office for five years, and are not removable except for cause, which gives the board a fixed tenure, and makes it free from sudden political changes.

THE TOLEDO STATE HOSPITAL.

THE Toledo State Hospital is built upon the cottage system. Its plan of construction was a radical departure from the structures then in use for the care of the insane, incorporating the most advanced thought upon the subject. The idea originated with General Brinkerhoff, of the Board of State Charities, who favored the erection of a new asylum in Northwestern Ohio.

The whole question of location and plans was undertaken by a commission, of which Governor Foster was president, Dr. Byers was secretary, and General Brinkerhoff was a member.

This Institution was opened on January 6th, 1888, and had a capacity for 1,000 patients. There are now 1,689 patients in the Institution. When the buildings that are now being remodeled and enlarged are completed there will be ample room for 1,700 patients. There have been admitted in all 3,411 women; 4,048 men. There are 23 cottages, 2 buildings for infirm patients, 2 buildings for disturbed wards and two hospital buildings. The ornamental grounds comprise about 110 acres. There are some 5 miles of drives, about 6 acres of artificial lakes and 300 acres are cultivated for farm and garden.

Dr. H. A. Tobey has been the superintendent of this model institution from the opening in 1888, with the exception of one year, under Governor Campbell, when the institution was superintended by Dr. Tupper.

A large portion of the success of this hospital is due to the efforts of ex-Governor Foster, who, in addition to being a member of the original committee on location of the hospital, was a member of the board of trustees from the day it was opened to patients until the day of his death. It is said of him that when a cabinet portfolio was tendered him at Washington, D. C., that had it come to the question of resigning the trusteeship of this hospital or refusing to become a cabinet officer, he would never have been President Harrison's secretary of the treasury.

THE MASSILLON STATE HOSPITAL.

ON March 31, 1892, was passed a bill authorizing the appointment of a commission to select a site for the building of a new institution, to be known as the Eastern Ohio Insane Asylum, now the Massillon State Hospital. The commission was appointed by Governor McKinley very shortly after the passage of the bill, and consisted of Dr. A. B. Richardson, Columbus; George R. Davis, Wapakoneta, and Dr. C. W. King, Dayton. This commission selected a site two miles south of Massillon, Stark county, Ohio, and on November 30th, same year, the Governor appointed a board of trustees, conformatory with the law establishing the institution. This building board consisted of Rob't Sherrard, Jr., Steubenville; S. J. McMahan, Cambridge; Wm. H. Mullins, Salem; Dr. A. B. Richardson, Columbus; Dr. H. C. Eyman, Cleveland. Under the supervision of this building board a dining-room building, a kitchen and bakery building, a store house, a boiler house, a power house, a carpenter shop, a laundry building, a hospital building, an infirmary building, a superintendent's residence, a steward's residence and seven cottages were constructed.

The institution now has a capacity of 1,450 patients. In 1894 Mr. Mullins resigned and was succeeded by B. F. Perry, of Jefferson. In 1895 Mr. Sherrard died; his place was filled by the appointment of Mr. D. J. Sinclair, of Steubenville. In February, 1897, Mr. Eyman was succeeded by Dr. E. G. Carpenter, of Cleveland, Mr. Sinclair by George D. Copeland, of Marion. In April, 1898, Dr. A. B. Richardson was elected superintendent and Dr. A. B. Howard, of Cuyahoga Falls, was appointed his successor on the board. In October, 1899, Dr. A. B. Richardson resigned his position as superintendent and Dr. H. C. Eyman, of Cleveland, was appointed his successor. In April, 1900, the board was changed from a building board to an operating board with the following members: Mr. S. J. McMahan, Cambridge; Mr. George D. Copeland, Marion; Mr. J. B. Zerbe, Cleveland; Dr. John E. Russell, Mt. Vernon.

THE INSTITUTION FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE BLIND.

THE Ohio Institution for the Education of the Blind was founded by act of the Legislature in 1837. It was fourth in order of establishment in the United States. In 1839 the first building was occupied. This structure cost the state $34,409 and was designed to accommodate sixty pupils. The present house was occupied May 21, 1874. This building cost at first, exclusive of additions, $358,477.92 and was intended to accommodate three hundred pupils. Later additions have been made increasing its capacity. The first year in the history of the institution there were eleven pupils enrolled. Last year there were 339 in attendance. Since the establishment of the institution, 67 years ago, 2,341 pupils have been enrolled.

The cost of maintenance from the beginning to November 15, 1900, was $1,828,390.32. Probably $600,000 have been invested in permanent buildings and improvements, making a total expenditure of about $2,428,390.00.

The average cost to the state for each pupil has been about $1,179.00.

This institution is a School for the Education of the Blind, not an Asylum, and it has been the endeavor of the management of the institution to keep this object before the public and not allow the institution to become an infirmary.

THE INSTITUTION FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE DEAF.

THE Ohio Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb is located at Columbus, Ohio. The first legislation for founding this institution was had in 1827. In 1829 the school was opened in rented property on the corner of Broad and High streets with one pupil. In 1834 the first building on the present site was dedicated and the school transferred to it. From 1862 to 1867 the large and commodious building now occupied was erected and was intended to accommodate three hundred and fifty deaf children, besides officers, teachers and employes. In 1898 and '99 the capacity was increased by the erection of the school building, one of the finest in the world. The total amount of money expended for grounds and buildings is approximately $450,000. Three thousand two hundred and sixty-seven deaf children have been pupils in this school. The attendance is something over five hundred. Forty-one teachers are engaged and seventy officers and employes. The annual appropriations for maintenance are approximately $20,000.

INSTITUTION FOR FEEBLE-MINDED YOUTH.

THIS Institution was established by law April 17, 1857. The preliminary work was commenced in 1840 by Dr. N. S. Townshend, who, while pursuing his medical studies in Paris, became interested in the labors of Seguin, Itard and others in behalf of the class. In 1853 Dr. Townshend, then a member of the Ohio Senate, so interested Governor Medill in the results of his observations and studies abroad, that he devoted a portion of his message to the General Assembly to the subject. That part of the message relating to the subject was referred to a select committee, of which Dr. Townshend was chairman. The committee made a report, detailing what had been done for this class. A bill was then introduced for the establishment of an institution, but did not pass. At the session of 1857, Hon. Herrman Canfield introduced in the Senate a bill to establish an Asylum for Idiots, which passed both Houses and became a law April 17, 1857. Governor Chase appointed William Dennison, Norton S. Townshend and Asher Cook, Trustees. Upon organization of the Board, Mr. Dennison was made chairman; Dr. Townshend, secretary, and Dr. R. J. Patterson, superintendent. The Board rented the buildings on East Main street, now occupied as the "Home for the Friendless." The institution was opened with nine pupils. The number was increased to fifteen at the date of the first report. The rented premises were occupied until 1868, the number of pupils averaging, after the first two years, between forty and fifty. The office of assistant superintendent was created in 1859, and Dr. G. A. Doren was appointed to that position. In 1860, the superintendent, Dr. Patterson, resigned, and Dr. Doren was elected superintendent by the Board of Trustees, and has continued in that position since, now forty-two years.

After closely observing the operations of the institution and their results, the Legislature, in 1864, provided for the permanent establishment of the institution, authorizing buildings upon a suitable site for the accommodation of two hundred pupils. This provision was made during the strenuous days of the Civil War, and was a strong endorsement of the value of the institution, as well as a valued acknowledgment of the performance of duty under the trying conditions of the War. The new buildings were occupied in August, 1868, the number of inmates soon reaching three hundred. The practical value of the institution being demonstrated, additions were made, from year to year, until the 18th of November, 1881, when over six hundred children were accommodated, and when the main buildings were destroyed by fire, happily, without loss of life, or even injury, to any of the inmates, officers or employes. So anxious were parents and guardians that their children and wards should not lose any of the benefits of the institution, that only one hundred of the inmates could be sent to their homes, the balance being crowded into the buildings that escaped destruction. The operations of the institution were conducted, during the three years of rebuilding, at great disadvantage, from want of room and facilities for the proper care and training of the inmates. This was relieved by the occupation of the new buildings in 1884. In this case, fireproof buildings were constructed on the sites of those destroyed by fire, and fireproof outside stairways provided for all buildings that escaped destruction. Other buildings have been added since 1884, until the number accommodated in 1900 was 1,100, when the Legislature, recognizing the duty of providing against the increase of this unfortunate class, by placing them under such restrictions as will prevent them multiplying their kind, provided for a permanent home, where the use of such industrial power as they possess may be exercised in their own support. Authority was given to purchase a farm, not to exceed 1,500 nor less than 1,000 acres in extent, where they are to be kept through life, thus lessening the increase from that source. About 1,200 acres have been secured, where the males of this class will be provided with a home and such employment as will come within the range of their capacities. The employment will be mainly such as furnished by the farm, gardening, stock-raising and horticultural pursuits. The females are to be provided for at the home institution, where they can be better protected, as well as usefully employed in domestic occupations. Buildings are now being constructed to accommodate about four hundred of each sex of the Custodial Class, and, when completed, will restore the old department to its original purpose and duties—"to furnish special means of improvement to that portion of our youth who are so deficient in mind, or have such marked peculiarities and eccentricities of intellect as to deprive them of the benefits of other educational institutions and ordinary methods of instruction."

THE HOSPITAL FOR EPILEPTICS.

THE Ohio Hospital for Epileptics at Gallipolis is the pioneer of its kind in the United States.

The problem of providing proper accommodations for epileptics, especially for those with unsound or defective minds, has engrossed the attention of persons interested in nervous and mental diseases for many years. In Ohio, as far back as 1879, a bill for the establishment of a separate institution for their accommodation and treatment almost became a law, passing one branch of the legislature. Not, however, until 1890 was a law enacted providing for the establishment of a colony for epileptics and epileptic insane. All epileptics resident in Ohio are eligible for admission to this institution, up to the measure of its capacity, each county being entitled to a number proportionate to its population. No discrimination is made on account of mental condition, age or sex.

The buildings, as originally planned, consisted of stone cottages having a capacity of fifty beds each, located symmetrically about a group of executive buildings and connected by tunnels with a central power station, which was to furnish heat and light for all; and a central kitchen and bakery, flanked by two congregate dining-rooms, one for each sex. The whole group, with estimated accommodations for one thousand patients, was planned so compactly as to cover scarcely more than twenty-five acres, leaving the balance of one hundred acres of the original tract for ornamentation and gardens. The wisdom of this plan was seriously questioned, and subsequent experience and events have led to an entire modification of it, so far as practicable. Of the original thirty-six buildings, only thirteen have been built as designed. The location and design of six others was materially changed. One hundred and twenty-five additional acres of land were purchased, and a cottage for the insane constructed at a distance of one-third mile from the original group. Other buildings, projected for the future, are to be much farther away, their precise location depending upon the possibilities in the selection and purchase of land, which may or may not adjoin the tract now owned by the state.

Another tract of one hundred and ten acres of farm land has been purchased, on which a group of cottages will be erected, and in which the husbandmen among the male patients will be accommodated. This land adjoins the sewage-disposal beds of the hospital, and it is intended to utilize the sewage for fertilizing the farm. Recently (1904) another one hundred acres of Ohio River bottom land has been acquired, which brings the institution to an acreage of five hundred and fifty. It is purposed to expand the institution in the future by erecting small, home-like cottages for small and selected groups of patients, leaving the large central cottages with their common kitchen and congregate dining rooms for the accommodation of more advanced cases of epilepsy and for the infirmary class of inmates. A new style of architecture has been decided upon, by which it is believed the monotony of the present symmetrical groups of large stone cottages can be relieved.

A board of construction was appointed in 1890, which consisted of James E. Neal, of Hamilton; John L. Vance, of Gallipolis; George H. Bunnell, of Sidney; Lewis Slusser, of Canton.

The colony was opened for the reception of patients November, 1893. Twelve residence cottages with accommodations for 40 to 80 inmates each, and one combined laundry and cottage with room for 70 patients comprise the central group. A building for infirm women with room for 80 beds has recently been opened. The advanced insane epileptics are cared for in a large 200-inmate building about one-third of a mile from the central group. In process of completion (1904) there are five small, artistic, homelike houses comprising the new Male Colonists' Group, with quarters for 15 to 40 patients each, every house being independent so far as heating facilities, dining-room, and kitchen are concerned. A Farm House for 40 men has been erected in a suitable spot in the midst of the 200 acres of river bottom farm; and a 40-inmate cottage for girls is also nearly ready for occupancy. When all the buildings now under way shall have been completed, the institution will have accommodations for 1,200 patients. Besides the cottages, the hospital comprises one school house; two industrial buildings, each containing eight large, well-lighted and well-ventilated rooms, accommodating twenty-five patients in many of the manual industries followed; one kitchen and bakery building; one ice machine and cold storage building, with a capacity of eighteen tons daily; two large congregate dining-rooms; one boiler, power, and electric light station; one waterworks building, and one administration building. The cost of the buildings up to the time when those under way shall have been completed, will be $605,000.

A pathological laboratory in which researches into the nature, cause, and prevention of epilepsy are carried forward, has been a feature of this institution for the past eight years. Through the scientific studies pursued in this laboratory and published to the medical profession the Ohio Hospital for Epileptics has achieved international fame. The medical profession of Ohio, and of the United States, is deeply interested in seeing this important work encouraged and properly supported, since it is realized that by this method alone can the mysteries as to the nature, cause, treatment, and prevention of epilepsy be solved. The investigations pursued by the scientific staff in this laboratory have already disclosed some very important facts relative to the cause and prevention of epilepsy.

Many of the patients came from almshouses, many from the lower walks of life, and were uncouth in their manners and dress, filthy in their habits, and rude in their conversation. The improvements most noticed by visitors has been the wonderful change in their deportment. The results of the colony regime and treatment as shown by the recovery of suitable cases have been very gratifying. Especially good results have been attained with cases of recent epilepsy, particularly among the children. Hygienic and dietary measures with a regulation of the habits are employed, and strictly medicinal treatment is assigned to a secondary place. The education of the children and youth is carefully looked after in the excellent schools of the colony.

THE BOYS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

THE Boys' Industrial School is Ohio's reformatory for juvenile male offenders. It is six miles south of Lancaster, Fairfield county, on the Hocking Hills. The state owns 1,210 acres of land in this picturesque region, and the boys are taught agriculture and horticulture to the extent of producing all the vegetables and fruit that the institution consumes. The institution is organized on the cottage or segregate system, is not surrounded by walls, and is entirely free from bolts, bars or other suggestions of restraint. It was the first penal institution in America to make the "open system" experiment, and so successfully was it operated that twenty-eight states have used the Lancaster school as a model. There are now 920 boys confined in the school for offenses against the statutes. These boys range in age from 10 to 21 years and are serving indeterminate sentences. When received at the School they are charged with demerits corresponding in number to the nature of the crime. These demerits must be cancelled by exemplary deportment in school and shop, before release. When released, a boy is on parole and can be returned for misconduct at any time before he reaches his majority.

The boys are required to attend school one-half of each day, and are in shop or on the farm the other half. There are many trades schools where the boys are taught useful mechanical knowledge and at the same time contribute to the comfort and support of their fellows. Chief among these trades are blacksmithing, floriculture, tailoring, baking, printing, carpentering, telegraphy, stenography, brickmaking, shoe-making, dairying, cooking, etc. They also operate the steam, cold storage and electric plants, the barn, laundry and poultry plant. A boy band of forty-two pieces is maintained, and the school is organized into a regiment of three battalions, under instructions of a competent military man. Music and physical culture are also features of the training.

THE GIRLS' INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

LOCATION.

THE home is situated ten miles southwest of Delaware, with which it is connected by good pikes and long distance telephone. It is four and one-half miles from Hyatts, six from Powell on the Columbus, Hocking Valley and Toledo Railroad; and eight miles from Arnold on the Toledo division of the Ohio Central Lines. The two latter stations are connected with the home by telephone, and all are easily accessible at all seasons of the year because of the excellent pikes.

FARM.

The farm comprises one hundred and eighty-nine acres on the west bank of the Scioto River. It is beautifully situated in an unusually healthful location. The grounds around the buildings are adorned with shade trees, a large portion of which are of the original growth.

The celebrated White Sulphur Spring furnishes an abundant supply of excellent water which is used for domestic purposes. 11,000 gallons of water per hour flow constantly from a vein more than one hundred feet below the marble basin from which it overflows.

BUILDINGS.

The buildings consist of the Administration, or Central Building, in which reside the Superintendent and family, the Clerk, Director of Music, Superintendent of Schools, Assistant Matron, and a Housekeeper; eight cottages, a school building, and a hospital. The latter is a valuable acquisition to the institution, furnishing commodious quarters for all hospital purposes and complete isolation for inmates affected with contagious diseases. In each cottage an Assistant Matron, Teacher and Housekeeper, with from thirty-five to fifty inmates, reside. Total number of inmates May 15, 1904, 307.

THE OHIO PENITENTIARY.

THE Ohio Penitentiary covers 26 acres within the walls. About two acres outside the prison proper are occupied by offices, the Deputy Warden's residence, store rooms, barn and stables. The prison itself is walled on three sides, the fourth being wholly absorbed by cell houses, offices and the Warden's home. This side presents an imposing front, about 800 feet in length, on Spring street, facing the Scioto river, with the street and outer buildings between it and that stream, and a wide fringe of green lawn before it that in summer is beautified by parterres of flowers and shaded by fine trees. The cell houses and offices form a continuous building from the southeast to the southwest gate, in which are more than 1,600 cells, about 600 of these being provided with beds for two inmates, the remainder being too small to receive more than one each. The Female Department, which abuts on the southeast gate, is somewhat advanced toward the street beyond the frontal line of the main prison, and reaches to the public sidewalk. It contains 46 cells.

The walls are dominated by towers at short distances apart, and of which there are eleven. Within the enclosure is a small manufacturing city, comprising the shops of The Columbus Bolt Works, The George B. Sprague Cigar Co., C. S. Reynolds & Co., The E. B. Lanman Co., The P. Hayden Saddlery Hardware Co., The National Broom Co., The Brown-Hinman & Huntington Co., and the Columbus Hollow Ware Co., all private corporations that contract with the state, through the Board of Managers, for the labor of prisoners, at specified prices for able-bodied and infirm men, respectively, and in many instances paying to the prisoners certain agreed amounts for all work produced beyond an appointed task. The total amount earned by such overwork and paid in to the account of the men who have earned it averages about $2,500 per year. These contracts employ about 1,000 prisoners. In addition to the labor utilized by these enterprises, the state employs about 700 men in the manufacture of the prisoners' clothing, the care of their sleeping quarters, repairs to buildings, the preparation of food, the management of the gas works, the care of the inside park and other grounds, and in the general administration of the mural city with its sixteen hundred (1,600) population. A tour of inspection more than repays the visitors, who come in great numbers. The number of visitors is increasing yearly, as the people realize more and more that an interesting development of modern ideas relative to the protection of society and the reformation of the criminal may be seen in its various phases from day to day. Since 1834, when the present prison was first occupied—or, rather, that rudimentary portion of it that is now known as the West Hall—an army of more than 35,500 prisoners has passed through its portals, as prisoners. The male prisoners, until a few years ago, wore the old regulation striped uniform of the convict. The striped clothing is now used only as a temporary garb of punishment.

The walled city has been swept by pestilence but once in its history. In 1849, the cholera raged here, and 121 prisoners died within twelve months, exacting the life of every third man among the prisoners. Now the death rate has fallen from 55 to 36 in one year.

There is a finely appointed and well equipped hospital on the inside grounds, but it is more scantily inhabited than has been the case for years. Since the present administration has assumed control a reform has been introduced into the Penitentiary that has lessened the number of patients, halved the death rate, and removed the source of a dangerous discontent. That improvement is a change in the dietary, which the present directorate of this great institution has adopted and made a success, showing that economy and humanity go hand in hand. It has saved lives, the cost of medicine, the price of enforced idleness and loss from poor work. It has also contributed much to the improved good feeling and morality of the prisoners.

THE MORAL, RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL WORK of the prison is carried on through the library, Sunday-school, prayer-meetings, Bible classes and preaching services, under the care of the Chaplain, and a night school under the care of a teacher employed from the outside. While the rules of the prison forbid sectarianism, they also provide that a prisoner desiring to have instruction in his particular faith may be accommodated by the Warden. Under this provision Roman Catholic Church services are held by a priest in the Catholic chapel every Sunday morning.

THE PRISON BUILDINGS

are old and inadequate. The cells are of heavy stone walls, that admit but little light and only poor ventilation. What is worse is that the penitentiary is badly located. For several years the subject of disposing of this property, and securing a new sight, in a suburb of Columbus, and erecting new and up-to-date buildings, with sanitary features, has been agitated, but nothing done. It is important that a commission should be appointed to take this matter in hand and push it to a consummation.

The Ohio Penitentiary.

PENITENTIARY BOARD OF MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers of the Ohio Penitentiary consists of five members. Near the beginning of his administration, in February, 1900, Hon. Governor Nash appointed to this high and responsible position the following gentlemen:

HON. AARON WAGONER, of Akron, Ohio, who was a Union soldier in the Civil War, and has had much experience in financial and business administrations, having been Auditor of Summit County, Ohio, and Cashier of one of the banks of Akron. Captain Wagoner is well accredited with being a careful and painstaking financier, and has looked well to the financial interest of the penitentiary since his appointment.

The HON. COLEMAN GILLILAN was also a Union soldier in the Civil War, and since his retirement from the Army has had an extensive business experience and acquaintance, having traveled very widely in his commercial relations. Captain Gillilan's business experience has made him a valuable adviser of the business affairs of the penitentiary, and he shares with the other members of the board the credit of the improved business conditions prevailing in the institution. Captain Gillilan resides at Portsmouth, Ohio.

HON. MCEL DIN DUNN, of Bellefontaine, O., by his well-balanced judgment, and fair discriminating habit of mind, added to his experience as a prosperous farmer and manufacturer, has shown eminent fitness for the responsible office he has filled with advantage to the state since his appointment.

HON. A. J. SHEPPARD, of Zanesville, Ohio, has combined for a number of years with his profession as a lawyer, manufacturing and commercial business. He is familiarly spoken of as the lawyer of the Board, but his eminence as an attorney does not detract from his value as a practical business man.

The HON. HARRY S. GRIFFITH, of Mt. Gilead, Ohio, is the junior member of the Board of Managers, and combines with personal energy that maturity of judgment and careful attention to business which give distinction and success to men of affairs. Mr. Griffith is the editor and publisher of the Morrow County Sentinel, which is one of the leading papers of the state. To these gentlemen is committed not only the management of the business affairs of the Ohio Penitentiary, but the caring for the hundreds of men and women who are continually passing through the prison, and are released under their direction either by discharge or parole. The attention they have given to the welfare of the prison population has secured for them the gratitude of the prisoners. The good judgment of the managers in appointing MR. WILLIAM N. DARBY, WARDEN, was attested by his kindly and careful administration of the affairs of the prison, but in June, 1903, Mr. Darby resigned and Mr. E. A. Hershey became Warden. Warden Hershey is a native of Ohio, and is a practical business man. He has served as Clerk of the Court of Summit County, has been prominently connected with the commercial, banking and political affairs of that county for many years.

The Board, as now organized, is officered by Hon. A. J. Sheppard, President, and Mr. Frank Cook, Secretary. Mr. Cook is a native of Ohio, and when appointed was and still is a resident of Mansfield, Ohio. He is well known throughout the state. Mr. Cook has evidenced capability, devotion and tact in his work as Secretary. He is widely known over the state as an active and intelligent citizen.

L. H. Wells, the Deputy Warden, is very familiar with prison affairs, having been Assistant Deputy Warden under the Coffin Administration. Mr. Wells was an officer in the Union Army in the Civil War, and afterwards discharged efficiently the duties of Assistant United States Marshal in the Northern District of Ohio, and of Sheriff of Hardin County, O.

The Assistant Deputy Warden, Carey A. Long, comes from Highland County, where he was formerly a school teacher, and later Deputy Sheriff, and Court Bailiff. He is accredited as having been active as a member of the Republican Committee of Highland County.

Mr. C. B. Shook, chief clerk of the penitentiary, was the Assistant of his predecessor, and is thoroughly familiar with the duties of his office. He was formerly a teacher, and takes a personal interest in public, as well as prison affairs.

Rev. David Judson Starr, D. D., the Chaplain of the prison, is a native of Ohio, and for many years has been Presiding Elder and pastor of churches in Cincinnati. He has had considerable experience in religious work among all classes of people, having been at one time City Missionary in Cincinnati. The Chaplain is also the Librarian of the institution.

Mr. C. E. Wilcox, the Steward, is a man of experience in mercantile affairs, in which he has acquired abilities for the duties of his office.

Doctor Wells Teachnor, M. D., is the chief physician of the prison, with Doctor John M. Thomas, M. D., and Doctor Byron Palmer, M. D., as his assistants.

Mr. T. M. Brannon, Post-Master of the prison mails, was appointed from Union County, where he had rendered valuable services as County Commissioner, and is a man of public affairs. Mr. Brannon was mainly instrumental in establishing a Children's Home in Union County.

M. E. Fornshell, Superintendent of printing, was appointed from Camden, Preble County, where he was formerly editor of a local paper.

Mr. John Davis, Superintendent of Bertillon Department, is one of the skilled men in his profession. He has in his keeping the measurements, photographs, and historical accounts of those who have been inmates of the penitentiary.

H. B. Robinson, Superintendent of Construction, is a practical mechanic and builder appointed from Summit County.

Mr. James E. Robinson, Superintendent of Subsistence, was appointed to his office after the death of Mr. McAvoy, in June, 1902. Mr. Robinson is a native of Ohio, and was formerly Sheriff of Union County.

Mr. Harry S. Ogle, Superintendent of the State-Shop, has been identified with the administration of the prison for a number of years, in several capacities. He is familiar with the duties of his present position.

Prof. W. P. Donohoo, Superintendent of the Prison Night-School, is from Highland County, where he held several positions in his profession as a school teacher.

THE OHIO REFORMATORY.

THE law creating this institution was enacted April 12, 1884; cornerstone was laid in '86, Hon. J. B. Foraker, Governor. The west wing and administration departments were not completed for occupancy until September 18, '96, when 150 prisoners were brought from Columbus.

The object of this institution is reformatory. Inmates are supposed to be first offenders, are admitted for all crimes except murder in the first degree, between the ages of 16 and 30. Male persons only are admitted. There are three grades: first, second and third. When inmates are admitted they are placed in the second grade; if their conduct justifies at the expiration of six months, they are promoted to the first grade, in which they remain for a second six months, when, if their conduct justifies, they are recommended to the Board of Managers for parole. With the consent of the Board of Managers they go out and remain the wards of the state under the supervision of the institution for one year, when, if their conduct justifies, they are fully discharged, and restored to citizenship by the Governor. Inmates are reduced to the third grade from either the first or second for punishment for certain misdemeanors.

They receive an indeterminate sentence from the court and the length of time they remain here is governed largely by their conduct, and is exclusively in the hands of the Superintendent and the Board of Managers. They can be released at the expiration of the minimum time prescribed by law for the crime committed, or can be retained until the maximum time has expired.

They are required to attend school and learn such trades as it is possible to teach them under the limited conditions now existing. It is expected, however, within the next few years shops will be erected and trades taught to these boys, so that when they go out, they will be able to make an honest living.

Following is a list of the members of the Board of Managers since the institution began:

OHIO SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' HOME.

TO provide for the establishment of this institution the General Assembly passed an act April 30, 1886.

To carry out the provision of the act, Governor Foraker, in April, 1886, appointed as trustees Hon. Isaac F. Mack, R. B. Brown, Thos. F. Dill, Wm. P. Orr and Thos B. Paxton. The board organized on June 3, and elected I. F. Mack president, and R. B. Brown secretary. During the summer a number of places were visited and carefully looked over. A site three miles from Sandusky was finally selected as the best place to locate the Home. H. C. Lindsey, of Zanesville, was chosen architect, and he at once prepared plans for the buildings. Herman Haerline, of Cincinnati, was employed as landscape gardener, and the work of improvement of grounds and construction of buildings was at once commenced.

On July 11, 1888, the corner-stone of the administration building was laid by Judge O'Neill, Commander of the Department of Ohio Grand Army of the Republic, in the presence of Governor Foraker and a large assemblage of Ohio citizens; in the fall of 1888 the Trustees appointed the following officers: General M. F. Force, of Cincinnati, Commandant; Capt. A. M. Anderson, Delaware, O., Adjutant; Col. E. J. Blount, Cincinnati, O., Quartermaster; Dr. S. C. Rannels, Vinton county, Surgeon; Mrs. Sarah J. Price, Mansfield, O., Matron, who entered upon the discharge of their duties in October, and the Home was opened on November 19, with seventeen members. The annual report for the year ending November 15, 1889, shows that 716 men had been admitted during the first year.

In March, 1898, Col. R. B. Brown, after twelve years' continuous service as a member of the Board of Trustees, resigned the office, and Col. J. W. R. Cline, of Springfield, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

On May 8, 1899, the state and the Home sustained a great loss in the death of Gen. M. F. Force, the Commandant. The Board of Trustees ordered spread upon the minutes the following testimonial on his death:

"This Board will leave to others the task of writing suitable obituary for the distinguished dead, but we desire to preserve on our own records some testimonial of our appreciation of the eminent services rendered by Gen. Force for this institution. He was indeed the father of the Home.

"General Force had achieved renown as a soldier and jurist before being called upon to assume the great responsibility of organizing this Home and placing it as we all desired, first among the soldiers' homes of this nation.

"By unanimous voice of the Board he was tendered the position of Commandant before the Home was opened. He accepted the responsibility and came with his devoted wife to prepare for the reception of those who should seek the support and protection of the institution, and as he often expressed it, not to make a military camp, but a home for his unfortunate comrades. His high character and intelligent zeal insured success from the first.

"With him charity and kindness went hand in hand with judgment and discipline. He was ever ready to hear the most humble petition, and while keeping up a high moral standard for the Home he loved and encouraged the weak and unfortunate.

"His resourceful mind gave to the Home steady improvement and his spotless life protected it from scandal. His zeal and devotion were unbounded, and it was a merciful Providence that permitted him to live to see the full fruition of his hopes, and to be comforted by the assurance of the national inspector that the home of which he was Commandant had found first place among the homes of the land.

"We shall miss him at our Board meetings, and wait in vain for him in our councils, but we shall cherish his memory with love and gratitude.

"To Mrs. Force and her son we extend our profound sympathy and assure them that wherever they may go they will bear with them the best wishes of every member of this Board."

At the meeting of the Board on May 17, Capt. A. M. Anderson was appointed Commandant, and C. A. Reeser, of Springfield, was appointed Adjutant.

The first of January, 1899, found the new hospital completed, which gives the home the most complete structure of its kind of any institution in the country. Seven trained lady nurses were employed to look after and care for the sick and suffering old men. Two years' experience has shown that these ladies have added wonderfully to the comfort and welfare of the sick.

The Home started in on the new century with an overcrowded house. Number present, January 15, 1,391; on the rolls, 1,621; average number present for the year ending November 15, 1900, 1,216; cost per capita for current expense, clothing, officers' salaries and trustees' expenses, $151.15; of which the general government pays $100.00, leaving a cost to the state of only $51.15 per annum to comfortably house, clothe, feed and give medical attention to these old soldiers. Since the Home was opened in November, 1888, forty-eight hundred and eighty-five (4,885) men have been admitted and cared for. The Home is largely indebted to the Grand Army of the Republic and the Woman's Relief Corps for generous donations of books, magazines and papers for the library, and hospital supplies of jellies, fruits, cushions and other articles.

The entire cost of building and permanent improvements, amounts to $657,863.72.

On April 18, 1901, Gen. A. M. Anderson died of heart failure. He died the death of one beloved by the gods, for it was instantaneous. He was an honest and honorable man, and a conscientious and efficient officer. He had the love and respect of the members of the Home.

The Board of Trustees selected in his place Thomas M. Anderson, a retired general officer of the army, and a Major-General of Volunteers. He is a native of Ohio, and before the War of the Rebellion was practing law in Cincinnati. When Sumter was fired on he enlisted as a private in the Sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Having been transferred to the regular establishment he was made a Major-General in the Spanish-American War, and commanded a division of the Eighth Army Corps in the Philippine campaigns. He is a Grand Army of the Republic man, a Companion of the Loyal Legion, and has attained the thirty-third degree in the A. & A. S. Rite.

He assumed the duties of Commandant on May 6, 1901. Under his administration a number of improvements have been made by reason of liberal appropriations of the General Assembly. A sewage disposal plant has been constructed on the most approved scientific principles. More methodical methods have been introduced in the management of the Home and it is now pronounced by the government inspectors to be the best institution of its kind in the country.

The average membership last year, 1903, was 1,258. The greatest number present, 1,436, was in January, 1904.

THE OHIO SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS' HOME.

I N the summer of 1869 the attention of the survivors of the civil war was called to the large number of fatherless children in Ohio, who were made so by the enormous gift of Ohio men to the Union Army. Every hamlet and township possessed its quota of soldiers' orphans, while in the larger cities the number of children rendered fatherless by the war was so great as to be particularly noticeable to the public spirited men and women who, having served in or in behalf of the Union Army when in the field, found themselves unwilling to rest from their labors until every possible step had been taken to heal the wounds of that notable conflict. The members of the Grand Army of the Republic in Ohio took up the matter of providing a home for these orphans, those ex-soldiers who were already prominent in the affairs of the state, taking the lead in the agitation of the subject which followed; Chaplain G. W. Collier, Gen. J. Warren Keifer, Gen. Wm. H. Gibson, Hon. Lewis B. Gunckel, Lieut.-Gov. John C. Lee, Hon. John Sherman, Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes; Messrs. Millen, McMillen, Lester Arnold, Capt. McDowell, and others of the city of Xenia, being prominently identified with the early days of the Home. In September, 1869, a two-story building in the city of Xenia was rented by the Grand Army officials, and converted by temporary wooden partitions, stairways and halls, into crowded accommodations for possibly fifty children. Funds were raised from public and private sources, principally by Chaplain Collier, who canvassed the state and addressed churches, Sunday schools, Grand Army meetings and private individuals, and children were admitted as fast as accommodations for them could be provided. The citizens of Xenia and of Greene county were genuinely interested in the movement, and spared no pains to make it a success. A room in the High School Building, of Xenia, was set apart for the children of the Home by the board of education, thus providing immediate school privileges, and the Court House Park was voted to their use by the city and county officers, thus providing a convenient and well-kept playground. The citizens presented the Home with 100 acres of ground, afterwards increased to about 300 acres by purchase of the State of Ohio, on which the present institution was afterward located by the state, and the county commissioners of Greene county, during that winter, voted six thousand dollars toward the current expenses of the Home to prevent the children from feeling the reduced condition to which the treasury of the Grand Army had been depleted by the expense of opening and operating an institution of such a character. The loyalty and public spirit of the men and women of Greene county during the war was repeated in their efforts in behalf of the orphans of the war. In the winter of 1870, with about 75 children in the Home, an appeal was made to the General Assembly to adopt the children as wards of the state, and to take over the property of the Home and make it a state institution. A committee from the General Assembly visited the children, who were assembled in the City Hall in Xenia, inspected the temporary quarters in town, and the property belonging to the Home just outside the city limits to the southeast, and returned to Columbus in favor of the proposition. The committee was addressed on behalf of the children by a Master Gilkey, who was then a boy twelve years old, having been admitted to the Home from Trumbull county in January of that year.

In April of 1870 the Home passed under the control of the state, and its removal from Xenia to its present location on the old Pelham farm, was accomplished in September, the work of construction having been pushed sufficiently to accommodate the children then in attendance. The doors were thrown open to new pupils, and as soon as the transfer from the city to the farm was effected, and from September, 1870, to the present time, there has never been an hour when there were not more applicants for admission than could possibly be received.

It is a matter of course that the requirements for admission should be changed with changing conditions. In 1870 no children were entitled to admission but those whose fathers were killed in action, or had since died from wounds or the disabilities of war. The lapse of time soon rendered this class of children ineligible from age-limit, and the doors were then opened successively to those whose fathers being ex-soldiers had died from any cause; to those whose mothers had died, the father being an ex-soldier, and unable to properly care for his children; to the children of ex-soldiers, whose parents being alive were not able to care for them; to the children and orphans residing in Ohio of such soldiers and sailors who have died or may hereafter die by reason of wounds received or disease contracted while serving in the military or naval forces of the United States.

In 1870 the instruction consisted of the usual school course with some outdoor labor; in 1875 industrial pursuits were added to the school course, and to the number of industries then inaugurated there have been constant additions, aggregating twenty-three, as the science of manual training has grown more familiar to the educator. In the Home was thus established far in advance of similar public institutions, a Manual Training School, supported by public funds for public uses. The Home is the largest institution of its kind in the world, and has a long history of active educational work. Graduates from its schools are filling honorable positions in the civil, political, financial, military, and naval departments of American life. It has been frequently said that in all America it would be hard to find a spot more hallowed to the memory of American Soldiery, more filled with the stirring influences of patriotic devotion to country and to the country's flag; more typical of the peace and honor which follow from the defense of Rights and Liberty, than among the scenes and experiences which surround the home and school life of the 900 pupils of the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans' Home at Xenia.

From an old photograph, made in 1872, the illustration was taken which heads this article, and, on the back of this old photograph is given the names of the men who were appointed by the Governor of Ohio to take over the Home from the Grand Army in April, 1870, and mould it into a state institution. They are:

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY.

IN 1878 the legislature passed "An act to reorganize and change the name of the Ohio Agricultural and Mechanical College and to repeal certain acts therein mentioned." The act provided that the institution should be thereafter designated as "The Ohio State University." Up to this time but one appropriation had been made by the State for the support of the institution. With the reorganization came the larger and broader view of the State's relation to public education, and since that time the Ohio State University has shared with other public educational institutions a more generous support by the State.

The governing body of the institution is a Board of Trustees, appointed by the Governor of the State and confirmed by the Senate, for terms of seven years as provided in the law organizing the University. The original endowment has been supplemented, and the objects of the University promoted, by a permanent annual grant from the United States, under an act of 1890, by special appropriations of the General Assembly; and in 1891, by a permanent annual grant from the State, which grant was doubled by the legislature of 1896. In accordance with the spirit of law under which it is organized, the University aims to furnish ample facilities for education in the liberal and industrial arts, the sciences and the languages, and for thorough technical and professional study of agriculture, engineering in its various departments, veterinary medicine, pharmacy and law. Through the aid which has been received from the United States and from the State, it is enabled to offer its privileges, with a slight charge for incidental expenses, to all persons of either sex who are qualified for admission.

The University is situated within the corporate limits of the city of Columbus, two miles north of the Union depot, and about three miles from the State Capitol. The University grounds consist of three hundred and forty-five acres, bounded east and west by High Street, and the Olentangy river, respectively. The western portion, about 235 acres, is devoted to agricultural and horticultural purposes, and is under the management of the College of Agriculture and Domestic Science. The eastern portion is occupied by the principal University buildings, campus, athletic and drill grounds, a park-like meadow, and a few acres of primitive forest.

The grounds are laid out with care, ornamented with trees, shrubs and flower beds; and are so managed as to illustrate the instruction in Botany, Horticulture, Forestry, Landscape Gardening and Floriculture.

Ohio State University.

The University has eighteen buildings devoted to instruction, one Boiler House, one Power House, two Dormitories, six residences, and some farm buildings. These buildings represent an investment for construction of about eight hundred thousand dollars. The equipment and apparatus amount to about one hundred and seventy thousand dollars. The land now occupied as a site with the farm is valued at one million five hundred thousand dollars.

The Ohio State University is divided into six colleges, as follows:

(1.) The College of Agriculture and Domestic Science consists of those departments represented in the course leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture, Bachelor of Science in Horticulture and Forestry, and Bachelor of Science in Domestic Economy, and in the Course in Dairying.

(2.) The College of Arts, Philosophy and Science consists of those departments represented in the courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Philosophy, and Bachelor of Science; and in the Courses Preparatory to Law and to Journalism.

(3.) The College of Engineering consists of those departments represented in the courses leading to the degrees of Civil Engineer, Engineer of Mines, Engineer of Mines and Ceramics, Mechanical Engineer, Mechanical Engineer in Electrical Engineering, and Bachelor of Science in Industrial Arts, Bachelor of Science in Chemistry or in Metallurgy; in the Course in Architecture, in the Short Course in Clay-Working and Ceramics, and in the Short Course in Mining.

(4.) The College of Law consists of those departments represented in the course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

(5.) The College of Pharmacy consists of those departments represented in the courses leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy, and in the Short Course in Pharmacy.

(6.) The College of Veterinary Medicine consists of those departments represented in the course leading to the degree of Doctor of Veterinary Medicine, and to a certificate of Veterinary Surgeon.

Each college is under the direction of its own Faculty, which has power to act in all matters pertaining to the work of students in that college.

THE OHIO UNIVERSITY.

THE history of the Ohio University antedates that of the State of Ohio nearly two decades. The ordinance providing for its existence and support was passed by Congress, acting under the "Articles of Confederation," July 13, 1787, in the city of New York. The leading spirit in the movement was Manasseh Cutler, a native of Connecticut, and a graduate of Yale of the class of 1765. In accordance with the spirit of his time he proposed to endow an institution for higher education with a grant of land. As there was a superabundance of land, and as the country was pretty sure to fill up rapidly, such an endowment was supposed to be the most stable and almost sure to increase greatly in value. The history of many land grants for education shows, however, that while the expectation of increase in value has realized, the increase rarely accrued to the pecuniary advantage of the beneficiary. To this general statement the Ohio University forms no exception.

Among the ordinances enacted for the Northwest Territory, there was one providing that "no more than two complete townships should be given perpetually for the purpose of a University, to be laid off by the purchaser or purchasers as near the center as may be (so that the same shall be of good land), to be applied to the intended object by the Legislature of the State." In 1795 the lands to be devoted to the support of the University were located. The townships were numbers eight and nine in the fourteenth range, now Athens and Alexander in Athens county. The first families removed to them in 1797, and settled near the present site of the town of Athens, the seat of the University. Two years later the Territorial Legislature appointed three commissioners "to lay off in the most suitable place within the township, a town plat, which should contain a square for the college; also, lots suitable for house-lots and gardens for a president, professors, tutors, etc., bordering on, or encircled by spacious commons; and such a number of town lots adjoining the said commons and out-lots as they think will be for the advantage of the University."

In the same year Dr. Cutler sent his draft of an act of incorporation for the University. In this draft he said among other things, "Forty or fifty thousand dollars cannot be too high, as it must be applied to one of the most useful and important purposes to society and government." Passing over some intermediate legislation, we find that the General Assembly of the new State that had just been admitted to the Union, passed, in 1804, an act of which Section 1 gave to the institution its present name, the Ohio University, and defined its object to be "the instruction of youth in all the various branches of liberal arts and sciences, the promotion of good education, virtue, religion, and morality, and the conferring of all the degrees and literary honors granted in similar institutions."

Section 2 provided for the corporate existence of a Board of Trustees. Section 2 also provided "for the subdivision of college lands into tracts of not less than eighty acres nor more than one hundred and forty acres; the valuation of them by three disinterested and judicious freeholders as in their original and unimproved state, and the leasing of the same for the term of ninety years, renewable forever, on a yearly rent of six per centum of the amount of the valuation so made by the said freeholders; and the land so leased shall be subject to a revaluation at the expiration of thirty-five years, and to another revaluation at the expiration of sixty years, from the commencement of the term of each lease, which revaluation shall be conducted and made on the principles of the first, and the lessee shall pay a yearly rent of six per centum on the amount of the valuation so to be made; and forever thereafter at a yearly rent equal to and not exceeding six per centum of the amount of a valuation, to be made as aforesaid at the expiration of the term of ninety years aforesaid. * * * Provided, always, That the corporation shall have power to demand a further yearly rent on the said lands and tenements, not exceeding the amount of tax imposed on property of like description by the State."

The first building was erected on the northeast side of the present campus and known as the "Academy." It was of wood and has long since been torn down. The first building for collegiate purposes proper was put up in 1817. This is therefore the oldest structure of the kind in the entire Northwest, if not west of the Alleghenies. It is three stories high above the basement, and though somewhat remodeled twenty years ago, is substantially the original building and is still in use. Twenty years later two additional buildings, also of brick, were put up.

In 1881, what was for a time known as the "Chapel Building" was erected and subsequently removed to its present site to make room for Ewing Hall, one of the largest of the University buildings. The Normal College Building is located about sixty-five feet from the west side of University Terrace and faces the east. Among other things held in mind in planning this building were its fitness for the work to be done in it, its sanitary and hygienic conditions, its fire-resisting quality, its safety in construction, and its architectural design showing art, culture, and refinement. The main or central portion of the building was completed at a cost of $46,913.17, the contract price—there being no extras.

The Ohio University.

The new Library Building, now in course of construction, will be ready for occupancy January 1, 1905. The contract price is $32,311.17. Ample means for furnishing the building, when completed, are available.

Though the University was chartered in 1804 no instruction was given until 1809. In June, 1808, the Board laid out a course of instruction which embraced "the English, Latin and Greek languages, mathematics, rhetoric, logic, geography, natural and moral philosophy." One year later when the school was formally opened but three students presented themselves. This is not surprising when we consider the sparseness of population and the poverty of the newcomers on the soil of Ohio. It seemed a paradoxical scheme to establish a university before preparatory schools had been provided, yet this has been the history of education from the remotest times—the higher has always preceded the lower, though the latter did not always appear.

For some years the university had but one instructor, the Rev. Jacob Lindley, a graduate of Princeton. In 1812 Artemas Sawyer, a graduate of Harvard, was added as a second teacher, and six years later a third was added.

The first graduate was Thomas Ewing, who was probably the first person to receive a college diploma in all Western America. This document was dated 1815. The distinguished subsequent career of Mr. Ewing is well known. It is identified not only with the history of Ohio but with that of the nation.

Enrollment statistics for the last six years are shown in the figures given herewith:

Years.	Males.	Females.	Totals.
1899	224	166	390
1900	231	210	441
1901	214	191	405
1902	223	186	419
1903	306	245	551
1904	433	400	33

The increase in student attendance at the Summer School has been very marked. It may be seen from the following statistical statement:

The Ohio University.

The revenues of the university were at first very small, but they would in time have increased to a respectable sum as the two townships above named contain nearly fifty thousand acres. Unfortunately the legislature interfered to prevent the revaluation of its lands, notwithstanding the decisions of the various courts, so that the income from the rent duplicate is and will remain at less than thirty-five hundred dollars per annum. This legislative Act of 1843 dealt the University a blow from which it has never fully recovered. The loss of revenue it caused may be estimated by the following statement:

According to the decennial appraisement of 1900, the value of the land was, exclusive of improvements and inclusive of roadbeds of railroads, $1,356,615.00. Six percent of this amount would give an annual income of $81,376.90.

Toward the close of the seventies the legislature began to make annual appropriations for the support of the university, and in 1896 enacted the so-called "Sleeper Bill," which gives it an annual revenue of over thirty-five thousand dollars.

At the regular session of the General Assembly of Ohio held in 1902 H. B. No. 369—Mr. Seese—became a law. Its provisions place upon the authorities of the Ohio University, at Athens, and the Miami University, at Oxford, the duty of organizing "at their respective institutions a normal school which shall be co-ordinate with existing courses of instruction and shall be maintained in such a state of efficiency as to provide theoretical and practical training for all students desiring to prepare themselves for the work of teaching."

The act further provides for a levy upon the grand list of the taxable property of the State of one-thirtieth of one mill upon each dollar of the valuation of such taxable property. This levy produces an annual income of $65,000, which is divided between the Ohio University and the Miami University in the ratio of seven to five.

Acting in conformity with statutory provisions, the board of trustees of Ohio University, on March 25, 1902, declared by resolution its purpose to establish and maintain "The Normal College of Ohio University" and to provide the necessary teaching force, buildings and equipment therefor at the earliest practicable date.

With the opening of the fall term of the university, September 9, 1902, the State Normal College began its existence, with a corps of capable instructors, tentative courses of study and an encouraging student attendance. Since the date of opening not less than 1,000 persons have received some kind of instruction in the college. Surely the wisdom of the establishment of such an agency for the better training of persons for effective service in the public schools is in rapid process of vindication.

The Ohio University.

Though the college has been giving instruction from 1809 under the charge successively of Rev. Jacob Lindley and Rev. James Irvine, its first president, as he is usually designated, was not elected until 1824, when Robert G. Wilson, a native of North Carolina, and a graduate of Dickinson College, was chosen to fill the position. His successor was the well known Dr. William H. McGuffey. For a few years, dating from 1845, owing to financial embarrassments, the institution was closed, but in 1848 it was re-opened under the presidency of Dr. Alfred Ryors. Dating from 1852, Dr. Solomon Howard was president for twenty years, and was succeeded by Dr. W. H. Scott. From 1883 to 1901, Dr. Charles W. Super was at the head of the institution with the exception of two years, 1896-1898, when the position was held by Dr. Isaac Crook. The term of the present incumbent began July 18, 1901.

MIAMI UNIVERSITY.

GREAT institutions grow. They are not born in a day. It is a part and a privilege of an American to feel a pride in America's historic foundations and institutions. In the document under which the great northwest territory was settled, we read: "Religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged." This sentence is the foundation of the educational policy of the states formed out of this territory. The John Cleves Symmes purchase in southwestern Ohio, like the other grants made under this ordinance, laid permanently the foundation for higher education. Out of this land grant grew Miami University. The trust was given to the State of Ohio and accepted in 1803, and by means of legislative action buildings were erected and the school opened in 1816 as a preparatory school, and in 1824, as a college. The first class was graduated in 1826. Under the stimulus of the land grant, the spirit of the ordinance of 1787, the co-operation of the state and the rapid settlement of Miami county, the college flourished and soon became the most renowned west of the Alleghenies. The early settlers believing in the value of college education sent their sons there. These young men later became the men of affairs and took an active interest in every form of public life. During the war of the rebellion, Miami's graduates, almost to a man, were found enlisted or engaged in some form of public service. Many of these men are still hard at work, so that it has been said that Miami has more prominent men among her alumni than any other western college. A strong American sentiment permeates the every vein of the Miami student or graduate. Miami has been pre-eminently in her history, a college of public spirit. The student catches the spirit of patriotic devotion to the public welfare as a duty, and the graduate feels that he owes something to his country. College spirit has always been identical with a high idea of citizenship.

Associated with this patriotic ideal, is the conviction that leaders should be men of scholarship and sound character. The management has never faltered in that belief that a college faculty should be men of unquestionable character and highest ability. The college education shows itself in a patriotic citizenship, genuine manliness, sound scholarship and liberal culture. Under this ideal more than a thousand men have been graduated, and many times that number have pursued their courses in part.

Miami University.

Miami University is owned and operated by the State of Ohio, and in recent years favorable legislative action has given the institution more vigorous life than ever before. One of the new buildings is the gift of the late Senator Brice, and bears his name. Another bears the name of Hon. John W. Herron, of Cincinnati, whose long and able services to the University have only been equalled by his generosity.

The chapel in the east wing of the main building has recently been enlarged and improved, and, in memory of Robert H. Bishop, Jr., for many years Professor of Latin in the University, named "Bishop Chapel."

The library occupies a part of the second floor of the main building, and consists of some 20,000 volumes, among which many rare old editions may be found.

By the Seese Law, passed by the Legislature of Ohio in March, 1902, two State Normal Schools were established, one of these at Miami University. The law provides for its maintenance by a special tax levy on the grand list of the taxable property of the state.

In September, 1902, the Normal School was opened, and a large number of students enrolled.

Provision is being made for the erection of a dormitory for the accommodation of the young women.

In June, 1902, the Rev. Guy Potter Benton was unanimously elected president, and inaugurated September, 1902.

The location is as healthful as can be found, and comprises fifty-seven acres of the most beautiful campus to be found in the west.

Miami has never been a large institution when measured by her numbers, nor has she ever aspired to be such, but she has been great when measured by her men.

THE WILBERFORCE UNIVERSITY.

THE Wilberforce University, located in Greene County, near Xenia, Ohio, cannot be considered one of the state educational institutions, except that it has been receiving state assistance in establishing and maintaining an industrial department since 1887. The University is for colored youth, and affords an opportunity for extending industrial training to colored youth, such as is not found in other institutions in the state.

The following brief history of this institution is a matter of historical value:

On September 28, 1853, the Cincinnati Conference of the M. E. Church selected a committee which recommended "the establishment of a literary institution of high order for the education of colored people generally;" and in May, 1856, "Tawawa Springs," a beautiful summer resort in Greene county, Ohio, was purchased, and Wilberforce University was organized. By concurrent action, the M. E. and A. M. E. Conferences of Ohio entered into co-operation for the success of the University. It was incorporated August 30, 1856, and a board of twenty-four trustees selected, including Governor Salmon P. Chase, President R. S. Rust, Ashland Keith, of the colored Baptist denomination, and D. A. Payne; and the broad principle adopted that there shall never be any distinction among the trustees, faculty or students, on account of race, color or creed.

The University began its work in October, 1856, under Rev. M. P. Gaddis, as principal. He was succeeded by Professor James K. Parker, and he by Dr. Richard S. Rust, the first president. During the first epoch, which terminated with the Civil War, the number of students, largely the children of Southern planters, varied from seventy to one hundred. Commendable progress was made in literary culture. The War closed the school, and the M. E. Church withdrew from the field.

On March 10, 1863, D. A. Payne purchased the property for $10,000, and associated with himself James A. Shorter and Professor John G. Mitchell, in the re-organizing of the University. It is the oldest college for negroes in this country. Congress in 1870 appropriated $25,000; Chief Justice Salmon P. Chase bequeathed $10,000; the Charles Avery estate added $10,000, and the American Unitarian Association gave for lectures $6,000 to the University.

On March 19, 1887, the Legislature of the State of Ohio came to our aid, helping us in establishing a Normal and Industrial Department, and is appropriating now $17,000 per annum to the University. On January 9, 1894, President Cleveland detailed Lieutenant John H. Alexander, a West Point graduate, to organize and instruct the Military Department of Wilberforce University, and the United States government is still maintaining this department. At the breaking out of the Spanish-American War, Wilberforce furnished some of the best negro soldiers that went to the front, a number of whom are fighting for the flag in the Philippines today.

The University has received from all sources since organization $513,202.80. Six thousand and six negro youths have attended the University, most of them coming from the South. Two hundred and sixty-six have graduated from our literary courses, and are now preaching and teaching in the South, striving to help solve the race question. Two hundred and ten have graduated from the Industrial Department, and are now engaged in the useful trades. It is the pride of the University that it has always been the aim and object to contribute her full share to the intellectual, moral, physical, and industrial uplift of the negro, and thereby assist in removing the standing menace to our American institutions—the race problem.

HANNA MEMORIAL EXERCISES.

ON April 20, 1904, the two Houses of the 76th General Assembly met in the hall of the House of Representatives, in memory of the life and services of Senator Marcus A. Hanna. Senator Charles Dick was orator of the day and delivered the following eulogy:

Mr. President and Members of the Seventy-sixth General Assembly:

Marcus A. Hanna was born September 24, 1837, in New Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio, and died in Washington, February 15, 1904, in the discharge of his duties as Senator from his native State.

Standing in the presence of this splendid representation of the citizenship of Ohio; impressed with the deep significance of this occasion, I am also reminded of the importance of events that go to make up the history of our commonwealth, and the character of the people who have maintained her standing in the front rank of the States which constitute our glorious and imperishable Union. In the light of these recollections, crowned with garlands, of achievement and duty well performed, stand the towering personalities of those sterling types of American manhood whose accomplishments during the last century have made the history of Ohio identical with that of the nation itself.

It is by no accident that Ohio has furnished so many distinguished sons to the nation, including Presidents, statesmen, military chieftains, lawyers, educators, authors, artists, inventors, scientists and captains of industry. The cause is found largely in the circumstances of her birth and development, and in the character of her early settlers.

If, as has been said, God sifted the whole world to find men worthy the high calling of founding a new nation, as truly may it be said that all the original States of the Federal Union contributed to the making of Ohio, the first State of the nineteenth century, the first new State formed out of national territory. Here converged nearly all the early lines of continental travel. Here came the Puritan and the Cavalier, the Scotch-Irish, and those of pure Teutonic and Gallic blood; Lutheran, Presbyterian, Catholic and Quaker. Connecticut bounded the State on the north, and Massachusetts, New Jersey and Virginia on the south. New York, Pennsylvania and other States furnished generous contributions to her population.

Of the new States which preceded her into the Union after the Revolution, Vermont was the offspring of New York and New Hampshire, Kentucky of Virginia, and Tennessee of North Carolina. Ohio was the first State to which the entire Union contributed, the first national territory raised to statehood. All of the original States gave from their best citizenship to build up the first State carved out of the Northwest Territory. Massachusetts founded the first settlement at Marietta, Connecticut peopled the Western Reserve, a New Jersey colony laid the beginnings of Cincinnati, much of the best blood of the States was filtered through New York from New England, Pennsylvania was a liberal contributor, and Virginia reserved a large tract to which came many of her Revolutionary soldiers and their descendants. The abolition of slavery drew to Ohio some of the best blood of the far South. Here, therefore, came all nationalities and all creeds, and they found not tolerance merely but equality in the sight of the law. The early use of federal troops to repress Indian uprisings in the State accustomed her citizens to the exercise of national authority. This Indian warfare held captive in Ohio for a time the determined rush of Western migration. Thus time was given these diverse elements to coalesce into one harmonious whole, and to form a type of stalwart, intensely patriotic Americans.

Hanna Memorial Exercises.

Ohio is the neck of the hour-glass through which passed nearly all the streams of early migrations following the star of empire. All early railroads joining the East and the West crossed her boundaries and her territory. These circumstances also wielded a powerful and beneficent influence on the new commonwealth. We were debtors to all the States east of the Alleghanies, a debt Ohio has fully paid by sending out a million of her own sons in all directions. They have proved worthy of her, and have given her added fame in all quarters of our country.

Pioneers are the sturdiest, the most enterprising and most daring. By such people was Ohio settled. Of such stock and under such surroundings was Senator Hanna born. He was a type of that mixture of elements so characteristic of his State. In him commingled many diverse strains of ancestry.

His ancestors were pioneers. They were among the more hardy and venturesome spirits of the older settlements who followed the frontier as it receded westward. In his family is to be found Scotch-Irish, Cavalier and Puritan, Presbyterian and Quaker stock. While his parents were residents of Ohio, they traced their descent to Virginia and Connecticut. He thus combined the best blood of North and South. His entire life, however, belonged to his native State. His public school training, his brief college days, his years in business and in the public service were spent in Ohio or in full view of the people of his native State. He was in every sense a true son of Ohio, and ranks with the noblest of the glorious company who have been proud to call her Mother.

It was not Mr. Hanna's fortune to be born in poverty, nor did affluence in early years hinder his growth and development. He belonged to the great middle class of fairly well-to-do Americans, who are richest perhaps in their descent from long lines of sturdy, intelligent, God-fearing ancestors.

The father was a country physician, who left a good practice in eastern Ohio, and moved farther west, to Cleveland, then a town of fair promise, and engaged in merchandising because of the wider field it offered for achieving success. In his father's store the future Senator received his first training in business. The beginnings were small but prosperous. He spent a year in the Western Reserve College, with what benefit to himself he declared he never felt certain, though he doubtless builded more wisely than he knew. He served a brief enlistment in the Union armies. The years which immediately followed were years of commercial upbuilding and expansion. His training was in the problems which confront the man of large affairs.

Thus he spent nearly a lifetime in business and with scarcely a thought for other matters. By his hard common sense he won the confidence of his associates and was a leader among them. He had the tremendous personal force of an aggressive mentality. He was as stalwart in mind as he was in body. His strength lay largely in the directness of his methods. He was a masterful man, possessing at all times definite aims in life. He saw with a clear eye, and was able by force of intellect and character to make other men think as he did. He was a man who accomplished results, a leader who led. His business methods were conservative. He was never a speculator, except as all business is a venture. He was constructive, but not a promoter.

He developed great executive ability and built up large business enterprises which survive him. He selected his lieutenants, apportioned the work, directed in a general way without burdening his mind with details, and looked with confidence for results. He did not have the patience for infinite detail, but the greater power of conceiving and executing great undertakings. His success was the result of long years of preparation. He commanded success because he deserved it.

He was a man of great heart and a most liberal benefactor. Growing wealth developed in him the kindlier and more humane side. He gave freely and cheerfully, but modestly and without parade. His charity was discriminating.

He will be most missed by the numerous charities in his home city to which he was a generous contributor. Churches and hospitals without regard to creed enjoyed his aid, and to the practical Christianity of the Salvation Army he was more than generous.

His relations with large bodies of workmg men as employer sometimes led to differences which promised to result in the clash of industrial strife.

Hanna Memorial Exercises.

The militant spirit was always strong within him and the prospect of a contest usually inviting, but he soon saw the great economic waste in strikes and lockouts. He discovered they were unnecessary. By frank and honest dealings with each other, by mutual understandings, by fair concessions honorably lived up to he dwelt on terms of harmony with his employes. He trusted them and they trusted him and by neither was that confidence betrayed. He was devoted and loyal to the interests of those who worked for him and that devotion and that loyalty was nobly repaid. He learned that labor could be trusted, that its engagements were sacredly observed. In one of his late public speeches before a large body of working men, many of them his own laborers, he declared that if he had ever injured anyone in his employ he would resign his seat in the Senate. That statement to this day has gone unchallenged. He stood in the way of business consolidations which would have added to his wealth for fear they would injure men who had grown gray in his service. In times of great business depression and industrial unrest the men who worked for him stood by their posts, because they knew Mr. Hanna was always fair and generous with them and was paying as fair wages as the business justified.

The social instincts were strong in Mr. Hanna. He delighted in the company of his friends, in entertaining them around his own table. Their number was legion and they represented all the varied interests of human life. In the social circle he was most affable and genial, a most companionable man. In all the relations of home life he was most lovable. He was always interested in public matters and enjoyed the friendship of many public men long before he became a figure in national politics. He was a friend of Sherman and took an active interest in his campaigns. He was a friend of Garfield and gave him generous assistance. The political relation, however, which most beautified his life was his devotion to McKinley. Their friendship was of long standing and the tie between them strengthened with the years. Each was great enough to recognize the greatness of the other. Both were masterful men, both were leaders, but their processes and their methods were entirely different. Hanna was the strong, forceful elder brother, but he yielded to and was influenced largely by the gentle strength and tactful guidance of the other. The blow of McKinley's death fell on him with crushing force.

Mr. Hanna spent a full complement of years in business pursuits. He was the architect of his own fortune and achieved success because he earned it. At a time when most men who have engaged in manufacturing or commerce think to retire he entered upon his real life work. It was in the years devoted to business, however, that his talent developed, his great executive capacity.

His daily life was wholesome and clean, his pleasures were simple, his tastes natural. He was a most useful man to his community, but his mettle was yet untried. At three score years it remained to be demonstrated that Mr. Hanna was a born leader of men, a political general of great skill, an orator and statesman of high rank.

With the shrewdness and insight born of long experience and success in business and his intimate acquaintance with conditions in the commercial world, he foresaw the possible promotion of McKinley and seized the opportune time to push his candidacy for the Presidency. With the same far-seeing vision which marked his judgment in business affairs he predicted the elevation of his chosen leader. Politics became for a time the passion of his life; his devotion was unselfish and unwavering. He laid his plans far in advance and organized his forces with consummate skill. No detail was too minute to be overlooked. He won a signal victory against political leaders tried on many hard-fought battlefields. The victory he won in the pre-convention campaign of 1896 was so complete that it obscured the magnitude of the struggle. Success was so overwhelming that one was tempted to forget there had been a struggle. No man who participated therein, however, could make that mistake.

A political campaign followed which alarmed the country and made business interests anxious. More money was offered him for the purpose of waging the contest than could be used. The statement of his expenditures, however, could safely have been disclosed to the whole world.

That campaign was essentially a campaign of education. His motto was, "Thousands for education and organization, not one dollar for corruption." He brought into politics the straightforward, open methods of the upright, God-fearing American business man. If this was an innovation in American politics, it was to the great advantage of politics and the country. He believed that a political campaign should be managed like any other reputable business undertaking. He was honest, sincere and frank and won the confidence of the country. He was loyal to the interests of the party workers who helped him win victories and their devotion to him was unflinching. If he married business to politics, it was because he brought to politics the same honesty, directness and straightforwardness essential to business success. This country need never fear commercialism in politics as long as commercialism stands for Senator Hanna's methods and practices. Business men had been in politics before, but the advent of this business man with his frank, open methods came as a surprise and something of a shock to many party workers. He was a captain of industry who commanded his lieutenants. He was accustomed to say to this man, go, and he went; to another man, come, and he came.

He managed campaigns the same way, and the innovation was not at first entirely acceptable. The ways of political managers had been looked upon as devious and secret; their comings and goings subterranean and nocturnal. He brought daylight into dark places, conducted his first national campaign as he planned and carried on industrial undertakings. The stockholders always had access to the books. This is a commercial era, and if he brought business methods into politics, who will say it has not been to the great advantage of politics?

In the national campaign of 1896 he came under the fierce glare of public opinion, and was immediately seized upon as a fitting target for unmeasured abuse and vilification. He was unknown to the general public, which is only too eager to believe evil of any public man. The cartoonist and the paragrapher exhausted their resources in holding him up to public contempt. These poisoned arrows could not pierce his armor. No man enjoys abuse, and Mr. Hanna suffered because he was not understood; but he went his way serene, calm, cheerful, and undisturbed. Kinder feelings and a more generous appreciation succeeded to distrust and malignity. Vituperation and abuse recoiled from him. He outlived all calumny, and it was his good fortune to live to see the shafts of malice blunted and turned back on his assailers. For eight years the strong searchlight of infinite inquiry was focused upon him, but nothing mean or small was ever disclosed. The honesty of his life and the purity of his motives were admitted even by those who differed with him politically. His life was an open book, every page as clean as the first.

The only political office Mr. Hanna ever held, except membership in the school board of the city of his adoption, was a seat in the United States Senate. President McKinley offered Mr. Hanna a place in his cabinet; this he declined. He was appointed by Governor Bushnell to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Sherman's appointment as Secretary of State, and was endorsed by the State convention of his party for election to the seat. He was still serving his first full term and had been elected to another when his life was closed. The contrast between the circumstances attending his two elections marks the progress of popular knowledge of the man. In both campaigns he was endorsed by the State Convention of his party, the nearest approach perhaps to election to the Senate by direct vote of the people. At the first election the margin of party success was narrow, but apparently entirely sufficient, until faction raised its poisoned head within his own party. During the campaign there were no open evidences of the treachery that was working under cover. After the election the conspirators threw off the mask. It was a base plot against the will of the people regularly expressed. Men high in the confidence of the party and enjoying honors at its hands joined to defeat the expressed will of the people. There was no scheme too desperate to be resorted to. The intensity and bitterness of that struggle no one can appreciate who was not a part of it. It required an uprising of the people in their majesty and wrath to register the verdict which they had instructed at the polls. By resolutions and delegations and informally appointed committees they assailed those who were dallying with dishonor or were listening to golden-tongued tempters. The people spoke and in no uncertain terms. They did not speak in vain; Senator Hanna was elected by a majority of one vote and the State was spared the misfortune and worse of violated instructions and tainted honor. Six years later he was a candidate for re-election. The State convention again declared him the nominee of his party. The difference between his two elections to the United States Senate indicates his six years' growth in public regard. In that time he had become the unquestioned leader and idol of his party. He was the most sought for man on the stump for several campaigns. His meetings were thronged by enthusiastic followers. They were never larger or more enthusiastic than in his last campaign. The result was an overwhelming personal triumph; he was returned to the United States Senate by the largest majority ever given in this body. You witnessed that triumph and know how gratifying it was to him.

It is given to few men who have been reviled and persecuted as he was to enjoy such a complete reversal of sentiment and to close their days in the full sunlight of public confidence and esteem. Public sentiment seemed to desire to make atonement for its early injustice and so lavished upon him an approbation and affection which few Americans have enjoyed to so great a degree. All misunderstanding had passed away. His honesty and sincerity and purity of motives were recognized of all men. He had conquered all misconception, and the years to come promised happiness without alloy, for he had won the universal regard and esteem of his fellow-men.

When Senator Hanna first entered the Capitol at Washington the atmosphere had not been cleared of suspicion, but his unassuming manner, his frankness and geniality soon dissipated all distrust and won the respect and cordial friendship of his colleagues, which in many cases ripened into deep affection. Some of his warmest friends were on the other side of the wall of party politics. He won his way to commanding influence there by the soundness of his judgment and the confidence he inspired.

He was willing to do hard work. The large part he took in helping to frame the schedules of the Dingley tariff law is known to but comparatively few. He rarely took part in debate, but when he did, he spoke with a full knowledge of his subject and with a force and earnestness which carried conviction.

His greatest legislative achievement was in changing a hostile majority against the Panama route for an isthmian canal into a decisive majority in its favor. The country was committed to another plan; the claims of another route had been written into party platforms, and he was told that his efforts would be futile. When he entered upon this contest few members of Congress agreed with him. He made a study of the subject with all his energy and gave it patient, painstaking examination. Having convinced himself, he started out to convince the Congress and the country. He made the contest with all the zeal and energy of his strong nature. When he spoke, it was the successful business man of large affairs who addressed his hearers upon a purely business proposition. His speech in the Senate of the United States was a most convincing presentation of the advantages of the Panama route. The country, as well as Congress, when the final judgment was reached, was converted to his views and no one longer seriously questions the soundness of that position. The canal will be built at Panama and will be his greatest monument. No more signal personal and legislative triumph has ever been won in the Congress of the United States.

His courage never showed to greater advantage than in his efforts to upbuild an American merchant marine. Largely owing to his efforts a shipping bill passed the Senate but has never succeeded in the House of Representatives. Despite strong prejudice against the measure he was unflinching in his support. He believed the opposition was largely due to misunderstanding. He was challenged to advocate the measure in the last campaign in Ohio. The challenge was boldly accepted. He presented his views fearlessly. The result vindicated his judgment and his courage. The people do desire our flag restored to the seas.

Senator Hanna was not merely a scholar; he was more than that; he was a thinker who did not permit others to think for him, and he put his best thoughts in his daily life. True, he held no diploma from college or academy, but he was graduated from the greater university of experience, whose lessons and teachings supplement all other education.

Senator Hanna had no training in the art of public speaking. He never undertook an extended address until after he reached three score years. He was not an orator in the sense that polished paragraph and stately language makes an orator, and he never prepared a set speech. When first he attempted to speak in public he spoke haltingly and hesitatingly, but practice gave him power. He developed amazingly in the faculty of apt and forceful expression. Much speaking gave him ease and self-confidence. He developed the power that was within him and became a convincing speaker. He believed what he said and said it in a way that carried conviction. When he spoke it was from a full heart and a mind richly stored with his subject. He talked the speech of common, every-day life, the vernacular of the plain people; and he talked to them, not over them. He had the gift of homely phrase, and these phrases often crystallized into campaign cries. He used language to express thought, not to conceal it; speech was given him not to hide truth, but to proclaim it. Few public speakers have been more popular, have drawn larger audiences, or moved them more profoundly. So we may say that if oratory is the power of carrying conviction to the hearts of one's hearers and giving them a message which will endure, then Senator Hanna was an orator of no mean rank.

It has been given to no other American to win as great fame as he did in the diverse fields of business and politics, or to make for himself so lasting a name in such a brief space of time. But Senator Hanna was not satisfied; his greatest ambition lay in another direction, and he will probably be remembered longest for the work he did in bringing labor and capital to a better understanding of each other. The greatest good he did was what he accomplished and tried to accomplish to solve the great industrial problem. His greatest service there lay in making labor and capital better acquainted. He was the great peacemaker. In this field there is no one to take his place, no one so high as he in the confidence of interests which oppose each other because they do not understand each other. He had accomplished much in this direction and was arranging to devote his energies and time to this magnificent object. No man was better qualified for the task than he, for he had been a large employer of labor and had been most successful in maintaining friendly relations with his own employes. His first efforts toward conciliation were looked at with suspicion; men on both sides feared he had some ulterior end in view, that he sought some political advantage, but the sincerity of his motives could not long be doubted and his unselfish aim was soon understood by all. He was as honest and frank in this field of activity as in everything else he undertook. He realized the folly of industrial warfare, and felt there was no more reason why labor and capital should quarrel than that the sacredness of the family ties should be broken by domestic quarrels. He helped to organize the Civic Federation, and was one of its leading spirits and most active and valuable members. The immense good he accomplished in reconciling labor differences is a story that has not yet been told. When it is fully known, Senator Hanna will be recognized even more than now as one of the greatest benefactors of his time. He was succeeding because he was frank and fair, because he was bringing labor and capital into more intimate relations and enabling them to understand each other. He was a man of wealth himself, but he never lost sympathy with labor. His interest in all his fellow-men was genuine and sincere. No missionary ever went forth with higher ideals for the service of mankind or with a truer love for his suffering brother than actuated Senator Hanna in his crusade for a better understanding between those interests which should go arm in arm with each other and which would not be in conflict if they understood each other.

It is given to few men to complete the tasks set before them. Man's plans are not often God's plans. Lincoln saw the end of armed strife, but it was not given his sublime patience to solve the trying problems which followed. We had not yet drunk the cup of bitterness to the dregs. McKinley saw the end of armed opposition to our national authority at the close of another war, but was taken away, leaving many vital problems unsolved.

Mr. Hanna did much; few men did so much in such a brief term, but his greatest task lay before him. Business success and political preferment became to him means to an end. He felt the necessity of saner methods for settling disputes between labor and capital. He devoted himself to the cause of industrial peace and social justice. To this great end he had consecrated the rest of his life, and had arranged his business affairs that they need no longer engage his attention. He repeatedly declared he would rather settle the labor problem than be President.

Hanna Memorial Exercises.

He had no secret longings for other political honors. He was not a candidate for the Presidential nomination. He was great enough to put aside any such ambition and was never greater than in resisting the flattery of those who would have made him a national standard bearer. He refused to promise the use of his name in connection with it. The public will know but little of the great pressure brought to bear upon him to accept this crown, nor did he, like Caesar, refuse each time with less and less insistence. He was firm to the last, because he felt he was following the path in which his duty lay. He had given his word he would not be a candidate, and with the fidelity which distinguished his life he kept the faith. This, however, did not discourage the support of his friends nor dampen the enthusiasm which existed for him in all parts of the country. No American citizen ever yet, however, resisted the call of his party to be its candidate for President. Had he lived and taken his seat in the next National Convention of his party at the head of the delegation from his own State, who can tell where the unbounded enthusiasm of his hosts of friends and admirers and the demands of the hour would have carried that body?

No man ever grew so rapidly in influence and power, and no man who entered politics so late in life ever rose so high. Success and high station in politics as a rule come only to those who have served an apprenticeship in lower places.

He sprang full panoplied and equipped into the arena of national activity. We seek for comparisons, but none can be made because no man achieved so great success who was in public life so short a time as he was. No other man who wrought in the double field of industry and politics ever achieved so great a success in both. He applied the straightforward, honest methods of upright business dealings to affairs of party and of State. The country was surprised, doubted, and then applauded. He revolutionized politics by putting it on a business basis. He interested business in politics to the distinct advantage of the latter.

He was distinctly the product of his day and generation, a typical American of the latter part of the nineteenth century. He was constructive in politics and in legislation as he was in business. He was interested in building up instead of tearing down.

Mr. Hanna's response to his physicians' appeal to help them, made in his last illness, was characteristic of the man, "I'll do the best I can." He always did the best he could, always contended with all his might. He was the sturdy fighter who waged war not merely to win but to overwhelm his antagonist. While he did not seek such conflicts, he did not avoid them. Once involved, the martial spirit in him rose to battle pitch. He fought in the open, gave hard blows, and took them manfully.

He fought to conquer and to conquer overwhelmingly, but truce declared and peace effected, he harbored no resentment and punished no enemies. He not merely forgave—he forgot. True, he was not satisfied with a narrow margin of victory; it must be decisive. Even when success was absolutely assured, he did not relax his efforts in the least. This feeling was misunderstood and led to misconception, and was the great source of the excess of caricature from which he suffered. He needed only to be thoroughly known to be vindicated of all charges.

Measure him from whatever point you choose, his sturdy honesty shines pre-eminent. The arts of the demagogue he scorned. He hated all shams and artifice. He had no secret, dark-chamber method of achieving results. He did not win by intrigue. He worked in the open; his methods might at any time have been laid bare to the gaze of the world. There was no secret in his handling of men. He was honest, frank, sincere, sympathetic, friendly. He was direct in his methods and masterful in his dealings. His friendships were not confined within the narrow circle of party politics, for he gained the admiration and respect of those who would not agree with him. His honesty and sincerity no one could doubt.

If he was devoted to any cause it was on account of its righteousness and justice, as he viewed it. He never concealed personal and selfish aims under the guise of advocating public measures. He was frank and open in his relations to all legislation. He did not look to the shifting weather-vane of public opinion to find direction to guide his steps. What seemed right to him he did. He never lacked the courage of his convictions. He was modest and unassuming; he never sought applause and never carried himself to be seen of men. He won no victories on the field of battle, he did not fill the seat of highest authority, but he was a pillar of the State.

He was to a marked degree a well-balanced man, a man sane in all the relations of life. It follows that he was hopeful and optimistic. Cheerfulness and good nature were the very essence of his being. He bore with him at all times the atmosphere of love and sunshine. He was square, brave, and true, a great, tender-hearted manly man. No one was ever deceived by his bluntness of speech when the beaming eye and kindly smile belied the sense of his words. The catholicity of his interests and sympathies was as boundless as his charities. He had some faults that are common to most men, but he possessed virtues so rare as to challenge recognition and admiration. He was at all times a man of deep and abiding convictions of mind and heart.

The enthusiasm and devotion he awakened are only possible to strong men. As he was loyal to others, so were his friends loyal to him. Those who knew him best loved him most. The Old Guard was not more faithful to Napoleon than Senator Hanna's friends to him.

No man who made so brief a passage across the theater of our national life ever left a stronger impress on his day and age in every walk of life in which he took an interest. It is too soon to determine his rightful place in the Valhalla of our national heroes, but it is certain that the impartial biographer will record him a great party leader, a statesman of high rank, a patriot of purest loyalty.

That I can not be mistaken in my estimate of this man is proven by some expressions of regard and affection spoken by his colleagues in the Senate.

Senator Platt, of Connecticut, said:

* * * "when Marcus A. Hanna died all the people mourned with a grief that was deep and unfeigned. Something in his life and character had endeared him to all classes. What that something was it is difficult to say, but we know it was given to but few men in this world to inspire such respect and affection as did our deceased comrade and brother."

Senator Cullom, of Illinois, said:

"In the death of Senator Hanna one of the most remarkable men of our country has passed away. He had an extraordinary career, a career that challenged the admiration of the people without regard to section or partisanship."

Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana, said:

"Marcus A. Hanna was one of the foremost Americans, one of the most eminent members of this great forum. He achieved place and power through no mere caprice of accident. He forged his way to the point of vantage occupied when he laid down his responsibilities by the strength of his own genius and by virtue of arduous deeds done."

Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, said:

* * * "he became next to the President himself, the dominating force in party affairs, and after the death of his lamented friend unquestionably the most popular man in our business and national life."

Senator Depew, of New York, said:

* * * "Hanna, the party organizer, the party leader, the President maker, the Senator and the statesman."

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, said:

"He was at the time of his death the most conspicuous and most influential of the public men in the service of the country."

Senator Kearns, of Utah, said:

"His life is the ideal for which the youth of our country should strive. In his intercourse with men he was all that stands for sterling manhood, and he surrounded his home with a halo of purity and love."

Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, said:

"It is not more than just to say of him that at the end of his six or seven years of public service he held in greater measure than any living American statesman the confidence of all classes. He was a man of sufficient power and force to have made and left his impress upon any Senate that this country has ever known."

Day upon day he grew in intellect, vigor and political strength, until he was the recognized leader of his party and a great Senator. In reaching this eminence he never crawled an inch; he went there as the eagle goes to mountain top. Dignified but not ostentatious; frank but not blunt; reserved but not austere; patient and laborious, he conquered all conditions; surmounted all obstacles, and survived all vicissitudes. Each day added to the charm of his manner, the force of his eloquence, the completeness of his logic, and his grasp upon public affairs. He became the wonder of his colleagues, while he attracted the admiration of his countrymen.

As a citizen Mr. Hanna was in sympathy with all influences which tend to good citizenship. While he was keenly alive to merit the commendation of his fellow-citizens, his duty to the state was the dominating thought of his mind. He was sincere and courageous, and avoided the use of political art to secure his advancement. He walked among his people an able, modest, forceful man, worthy the confidence of his fellow-men. His fidelity and honesty of purpose will ever invite the attention of the student of his marvelous career.

Mr. Hanna was imbued with the genius of our institutions. His love of country was largely developed; his love of her institutions was still more so. He believed our form of government met the needs of mankind, and was permanent in its ability to develop human capabilities; that the principal degree was the foundation of genuine liberty; that it was the acme of human governmental intelligence.

He worshipped law and the Author of law. Mr. Hanna had unbounded faith in the people; he sought their education that they might be better able to comprehend the duties of citizenship and to more fully understand the responsibilities which it imposed upon them. His aim was their education and honesty, fidelity, self-respect, courage, devotion and patriotism, that thereby they would not only be able to detect the unwholesome theories of the sophist, but the more dangerous methods of the demagogue, and courageously thwart their purposes.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle of Lexington and Concord; on that day the embattled farmers first fired the shot heard round the world, which marked the beginning of an armed conflict that was not to cease until a new state had been recognized among the family of nations—a state devoted to liberty and the rights of man. Today we commemorate one who traced his descent from a brave soldier of that war, and who was himself in every fiber a patriot and a lover of his country, for Senator Hanna was an intensely patriotic American. He believed that Lexington and Bunker Hill were as heroic as Thermopylae; that Yorktown had greater influence upon the progress of the world than Waterloo; that Sedan was far less significant than Gettysburg; that Magna Charta was not greater than the Declaration of Independence; that Washington and Lincoln and Garfield and Grant and McKinley were incomparably greater benefactors of the human race than Alexander and Caesar and Napoleon.

He believed that the soldiers who followed Washington and Grant fought in causes holier than the Crusades and for principles as lasting as truth. He believed that the American flag stands today for the grandest story of progress in the history of the world and for the greatest recorded triumphs of civilization for the highest intelligence and the loftiest purposes, for boundless opportunities, for the broadest liberty, personal, religious and political, for freedom, for justice, for education, for progress, for right and for righteousness; in short, that it stands for the best government among men.

He believed that in the record for past success rested the assurance of the future progress of his country, and that Lincoln at Gettysburg delivered an eternal prophecy when he declared that "this Nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal, and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

My friends, these walls had scarcely ceased to echo the applause which greeted Senator Hanna's triumphant re-election to the United States Senate, when there followed days of declining health and illness which did not at first alarm, but soon awakened fear of the final outcome. When he was stricken the people watched through saddened days and nights for news from his bedside, where hope and despair alternated in quick succession. In a conflict with disease which brought out the courage and determination and hopefulness of the patient, Senator Hanna met an adversary he could not conquer. At last the end came. His mighty heart ceased to beat. Millions were in tears; a Nation mourned.

Hanna Memorial Exercises.

The President and Cabinet, Ambassadors, judges of the Supreme Court, Senators, Congressmen, generals, admirals, governors of States, legislators, State officials, municipal officers and captains of industry attended his funeral services. Manufacture in his native State paused; commerce and transportation stood still; the busy hum of machinery and industry was hushed, the miner laid down his tools, labor in all callings ceased its work, and all men bowed their heads in memory of the man whose loss they mourned. The State had lost its first citizen, his party its acknowledged leader, the country a patriot and statesman.

And so he passed away in the fullness of his influence and his powers, in the full possession of his splendid faculties, in the midst of a public career which gave promise of even larger usefulness, secure also in the knowledge that he was known and honored by his country; that all misunderstanding and misconception had passed away; looked up to by one vast set of interests as its shield and by another as its sincere friend and true adviser.

We know not why our friend was taken away.
 God's ways are not our ways.
 His death made a vacancy which will remain unfilled.
 He left the example of his life—a rich heritage.
 The enduring love of his countrymen crowns his memory.

As when some stately vessel sails away
 Full-rigged and masted for the wind and tide
 Beyond the curving confines of the day,
 Where cloud walls rise, and unseen perils hide;

And when in silhouetted majesty
 She stands, full many statures of a man,
 Is seen her greatness and her symmetry—
 Her wondrous adaption for the plan,

Till she has crossed the bar of human sight,
 Where blend the boundaries of sea and sky;
 When all other craft seems small, and blight
 Of insignificance aggrieves the eye.

So passed Mark Hanna to another world;
 So sailed his spirit, mighty, staunch and true;
 Well-built and ready, with each sail unfurled,
 And with a world's best wishes for his crew.

With freight of kindly deeds, beyond a price;
 Of patience, and unselfish simple good;
 Of charity, and willing sacrifice;
 Of love that made for common brotherhood.

Would we could hear the greeting and acclaim
 Upon the other shore! From dome to dome
 Will ring the welcome to his honored name;
 So loved by all: "Mark Hanna, Welcome Home!"

OHIO BUILDING—ST. LOUIS FAIR.

S. B. RANKIN.

OHIO AT THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION.

UNDER an Act passed May 12th, 1902, by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, the following named gentlemen were appointed by Governor George K. Nash as Commissioners to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition:

W. F. Burdell.....	Columbus
L. E. Holden.....	Cleveland
D. H. Moore.....	Athens
David Friedman.....	Caldwell
N. K. Kennon.....	St. Clairsville
M. K. Gantz.....	Troy
Hon. Edwin Hagenbuch.....	Urbana, O.

The Governor appointed S. B. Rankin, of South Charleston, Executive Commissioner from Ohio. The Commission met soon after appointment, and organized by electing W. F. Burdell President, and L. E. Holden, Vice-President.

Ohio at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The plans of F. L. Packard, Architect, of Columbus, were accepted for an Ohio State Building to be erected on the Exposition grounds, and contract let to the Smith & Eastman Company, of St. Louis, to build same according to plans adopted, and one of the most beautiful of all the State Buildings was erected as the home of Ohio Visitors. It is arranged and conducted for the comfort of its guests. Everything for their convenience is provided. Besides a sitting and wash rooms for the ladies, a clean, wholesome and quiet rest room, containing comfortable cots supplied with immaculate linen is ever ready for overtired women, and many there are who take advantage of this room. The gentlemen's side contains sitting and wash rooms. In the sitting room box couches are provided for the convenience of tired men, especially elderly men. Instead of a rest room, a "Den" or smoking room, in Dutch furnishings, is provided for the gentlemen. Comfortable writing rooms, well equipped with stationery at all times, are at the disposal of visitors. Other conveniences as follows: Postoffice, Registration Book, enabling one to keep track of friends and acquaintances, Check Room, where articles of all kinds can be left without charge, Local and Long Distance Telephone, and an Information Bureau, where one can arrange for rooms, have arranged an itinerary for doing the Fair, and all kinds of information regarding the arrival and departure of trains, connections, etc. Uniformed Messengers are always in attendance, to direct or accompany visitors unacquainted with the grounds. On the second floor for the use of Clubs and Societies is a beautiful assembly room. In fact, everything for the comfort and convenience of Ohio visitors has been studied and provided. The Ohio Building is admirably situated on what is known as the "Plateau of States," on a slight incline leading to the great Exhibition Palaces. Fine shade trees on three sides of the building. It faces a sloping grove, and in the rear, beautiful "Forest Park" stretches far to the eastward. The air at the building is therefore always pure and invigorating and the broad verandas, well supplied with easy chairs, afford a cool and refreshing place of rest. The Commission arranged with Prof. Edward Orton, Jr., of the Ohio State University, for a Mineral Exhibit, with the result that Ohio's exhibit is one of the best in the Mines and Metallurgy Building, and the clay exhibit is considered one of the best on the grounds. This exhibit was collected and arranged under the guidance of Prof. Orton by Mr. Ellsworth Ogden, a pupil of the Ohio State University, who has had full charge of the exhibit. The State Archaeological and Historical Society has made some valuable discoveries lately in exploring the villages and graves of that strange and prehistoric people, the Mound Builders, and the display at the World's Fair is the largest and most interesting ever made by this organization. The exhibit is under the care of Prof. William C. Mills, of Columbus, Ohio. Ohio's representation by private exhibitors is perhaps greater than any other. Her Coal, Iron and Oil, as well as her Manufacturers take the lead, and justly makes proud Ohio visitors to that greatest and most beautiful creation ever attempted by man, the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.
